Russell and Herrider were appointed to look after the matter by the Commercial Club.

Whole Family Insane.

Several very peculiar cases of insanity occurred several miles southeast of here last week, when Mrs. Bronstrup and her two sons, Albert and Edward were found wandering about in the woods, apparently unconscious of their actions. During the past month neighbors observed that they acted rather strange but no one paid any special attention to them. During the night of Monday of last week they became convinced that some demon or demons were after them and that their entire farm was on fire. They there fore soaked several large blankets thoroughly with water and fled to the timber where they wandered about several days. They visited several of the homes of their neighbors, but would remain but a short time. Most of their time was spent in a wild rabble supplication to be delivered from evil wild spirits. The illusion of their farm burning seemed to cling to them, as they frequently waded into water and soaked their clothes to keep them from burning.

On Friday they were brought here by sheriff Dyer and several deputies, and adjudged insane by a jury in Judge Poisse's court. They were taken to Fulton Saturday.

Neighbors state that the family was very quiet and industrious, and in most particulars seemed equal to the average citizen. For some time, however, they have been studying witchcraft and believed in witches very strongly. During the past few weeks they conceived the idea that neighbors possessed the wonderful power, and exerted an evil influence on their stock, crops, feed and every thing about the place. That this contributed to their insanity is believed, though the fact that all lost their minds at the same time is rather peculiar. There is no one left to look after the property, and the court appointed a guardian to take charge of same. One brother, William, a former jeweler, here, is located in Arkansas. The case is a very pitiable one.—Warrenton Mo., Banner.

65 Degrees Below Zero.

Irma, Alberta, Canada, March, 6th, 1909.

Editor Republican:— Enclosed please find postoffice order for your paper; we feel that we can hardly do without the Re-publican. We have had a very cold winter here. The thermometer was from zero to 65 below for about four or five months. It is fine weather now and snow is going fast. We have had snow since the middle of November but if it keeps warm we will be able to commence seeding by next week. We are all well now. Six of our family had the small pox last winter. The three oldest children were away from home and escaped. The Grand Trunk R. R. is being built past our place but no trains yet. Our town will be Irma 4 miles from us. For the present we will get our mail at Galistaw via Hardisty. We have a good school house—cost about $1000—and school now. W. C. Reed, Hardisty, Alta, Canada.

We think we are Preforming a Duty

we owe every horse owner in Saline County in writing this adv. of our black calf face collar, it is the only collar sold here that has a black calf face in place of the usual harness or collar leather face. All harness or collar leather faced collars get hard in the course of a year or so and are then more liable to make sore necks than when new and soft. In fact the main cause of sore necks in horses is on account of working a collar after it has become hard and unyielding. Our black calf face collar never becomes hard, it is the only collar that will remain soft after several years of continuous use, a six years trial has convinced us and all who have used them that this collar will do all we claim for it. Embree Bros., Napton, Mo., say they have used this collar for three years and never had a sore neck during this time. We put this collar in with all our team harness. When you give this collar a trial you will consider it very, very cheap at $2.75 each.

We will offer for one week only, ending April 24th, one lot of blind and open bridles at 35 cents each. They are worth more but we want to close them out.

Dragged to Death.

Eugene Piper, col., aged 22 years was dragged to death by a mule Saturday night. He was one of the hands employed by Turner Embrey on the old Mills farm and had just returned from work. And while in the act of unhitching his foot became entangled in the loose frightening the mule, who started to run. Piper was dragged a distance of a quarter of a mile before the animal was brought to bay. When the man's body was picked up he was unconscious and died during the night. Burial at Union Hill Monday afternoon.—Slater News.

Obituary

BRANCH—At Marshall April 10 1909 Joseph Branch aged 35 years 2 months and 5 days passed from this life to the life beyond.

Mr. Branch was born Feb. 5, 1874. He was united in marriage to Miss Ella Burns Dec. 28, 1897. To this union was born 5 children whose ages run from one to nine years. Deceased was stricken with stomach and heart trouble. He bore his suffering bravely and patiently. In his death the community loses a respectable citizen; the wife and five little children a faithful husband and father. Besides the wife and children he is survived by three brothers one sister, and one aunt.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. U. S. G. Moore, pastor of Mt. Calvary Free Baptist Church, April 11, and remains laid to rest in Fairview cemetery.

The text was "God is a refuge and a hiding place, let me hide in the cleft of the rock."

The immediate relatives desire to express their heartfelt thanks to the people of Marshall for their kindness and care to the above deceased during the period of his illness. Would especially mention the Samaritan kindness of Mrs. M. E. Murray, who was faithful to the last.

Charley Branch, S. Smith.
