

OUR GREAT CONSOLIDATION SALE

Is on With a Rush!

We are well pleased with the results of the first week of this Big Sale although the heavy buying has had no noticeable effect on the enormous stocks of our two combined stores.

Our reserve space is filled to overflowing with merchandise from the Taylor Department Store stock and THIS VAST SURPLUS MUST BE SOLD. In order to do this WE HAVE CUT THE PRICES AND CUT THEM DEEP REGARDLESS OF COST as we want this big Consolidation Sale to be the biggest "merchandising moving" event Marshall has ever witnessed.

Time and space will not permit us to enumerate the many special bargains we are offering in this big sale. If you wish to supply your present and future needs in all departments at a remarkable saving in cost, come in and look over our "Big Consolidation Sale" offerings. We guarantee to please you. GET IN ON THE EXTRA SPECIALS WHICH WE WILL PLACE ON SALE AT 2 O'CLOCK, EACH DAY DURING THIS BIG SALE.

The New York Racket

BIG - CASH - STORE

County News

SUGAR TOWN
Everything is very sleety. The girls who try to walk around, almost fall wishing, oh, for a man!

Mr. and Mrs. Mort Doan entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lewis and baby daughter, Fern Dell, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Twilling and son George.

We are glad to say the sick in the neighborhood are improving.

Miss Rowena Huff visited home this week.

Claude Marksberry of Jester vicinity is visiting relatives.

David Keehart spent Sunday evening with John Keehart in Marshall.

A crowd from the neighborhood enjoyed Wednesday evening at the home of Johnny Keehart. Also another such social hour Friday at the home of J. A. Strong.

Miss Fannie Mae Twilling spent the week end with Miss Margarette Clarkson last week. The two young ladies were entertained on Sunday at dinner at the home of John Keehart.

Miss Beatrice Huff has been absent from school on account of sickness.

Several of the neighbors in this vicinity were disturbed shortly after midnight several weeks ago by a tremendous howling such as would result from a pack of wolves. In fact they all thought it was wolves and had planned a hunt for the next week, but before the time for the hunt arrived it was discovered that the howling was done by a young gentleman who was returning home after being very badly crippled by a snake dart. The circumstances are very hazardous and the young gentleman should be more careful in the future. We all knew he was a bear-cat but never before was he mistaken for a wolf.

SLATER
Eugene Dawes of Marshall was here on business Tuesday.

J. H. Lessor has been filling the place of mail carrier T. J. Crawford who has been on the sick list.

Mrs. A. H. Laughlin and children went home after a protracted visit with relatives at Odessa.

M. E. Jones and family left Tuesday for Blue Springs where they will reside in the future.

Wm. Neff and wife who have been visiting the former parents C. J. Neff and wife for the past two weeks left Tuesday for Nevada, Mo. for a short visit with relatives before returning home.

H. A. Gregory and A. N. Dickson were here from Hardeman Thursday.

S. B. Burks attended to business in Marshall Friday.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Troy and left a little daughter, Jan 11th.

Miss Ollie May Pierre has returned to her home at Fayette after several days visit with friends.

Mrs. Clarence Brown returned to her home in St. Joseph Sunday, after a several days visit with relatives here. She was accompanied home by her father, E. L. Rhoades.

Orson King one of Little Rocks progressive farmers and J. E. Moore of Clay Center was on our streets Saturday.

Lawson Bros. of Centralia and Marshall, have rented the poultry house formerly occupied by F. W. Weindmeyer and will open up a poultry establishment at once.

NORTH GRAND PASS
James Edwards who was burned at Edwards school house last Monday by an explosion of gas which had gathered on the coal is doing nicely at this writing.

Miss Berta Rhyon of St. Louis is visiting Frank DeMoss and family this week.

Miss Mabel Dickason spent a part of last week with relatives near Alma.

Mrs. W. J. Vogt spent several days last week with her daughter Mrs. John Fell.

Moritz Bros. and families of south Waverly spent last Sunday with their brother Sam and wife.

Uncle Ben Ritchart has been suffering with the grip.

Lawson Byars and family visited C. C. Meck last Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Moore of Malta Bend spent Tuesday with Mrs. P. H. Ritchart.

John Gillis was a business caller in Marshall Monday.

Several from this neighborhood attended the Smith trial in the County Seat last week.

Rose & Buckner's big sale ends Saturday, Jan. 28th, no longer. We don't run extension sales, we do the work in 13 days clean up and start in new.

BLUE LICK
Mrs. John Hanley is very sick at this writing.

Mrs. Scott Cook of Colorado is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank York of Blue Lick.

The supper at J. J. Holdens was a success. There was a large crowd and everybody enjoyed themselves. The Trent boys furnished the music.

Mrs. Robert Conner is on the sick list.

Rev. Boulware will preach at the church next Sunday.

Gracie Laaley has the grip.

MALTA BEND
Sam Tobin was transacting business in Marshall Monday.

Tony Levy returned to Kansas City Sunday evening after several weeks visit with his mother.

G. A. Renick was transacting business in the county seat Tuesday.

J. W. Guthrey and daughter returned home from Kansas City Friday after several weeks visit to relatives.

B. T. Wilson Sr. was transacting business in Marshall Monday.

Miss Emma Baugh returned home Wednesday morning after a three weeks visit with relatives in Topeka, Wichita and Coldwater, Kansas.

Wm Ryan and wife of Miami visited Steve Frazer and family several days last week.

Joe Deckard and wife attended the funeral of the former's uncle, Edgar Baker at Miami Wednesday.

Mrs. H. I. Blosser was shopping in Marshall last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall of St. Louis are visiting Grant Bush and wife.

Wm Ross left Thursday for a visit with his father who is very sick in Ohio.

Mrs. Fulton went to Tipton last Wednesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Monaca.

J. J. Wheelon came down from Waverly Sunday morning for several days stay.

The Union meeting begins at the First M. E. Church next Sunday morning.

SHACKELFORD
Mrs. Chas. Hume is quite sick at this writing.

Mrs. O'Connell of Lemont, formerly Miss Annie Kline of this place who has been dangerously ill, is improving.

Dr. U. B. Weaver informs us that Ubbie Weaver has pneumonia.

We could write a column this week about the sick but will stop at saying there are from two to three in most every family in this locality is sick.

Miss Vic Levy has returned to Kansas City after a visit to Mrs. Lou Tickemeyer.

Arthur Vawter of Marshall was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Goodwin Sunday.

A letter from D. F. Finley and wife formerly of this place states that they are spending the winter in Deland, Florida, and enjoying the climate.

Frank Castle shipped a car load of males to St. Louis Tuesday.

The Misses Walters of Malta Bend are at the bedside of their sister Mrs. Chas. Hume.

As a result of the present sleet Mrs. Andy Judge had a fall Monday, she was considerably shaken up but no bones broken.

EMMA
Amos C. Dierking, Lorenz Meyer Ed Hascemeyer and Henry Dierking, jr. attended the Hardware Dealers' Convention in Kansas City.

Fred Hartman and Gus Bredehoff left for Oklama to visit John Hartman who was sent to the Aaylum. We are sorry to hear this kind of news.

Mr. Werneke and wife visited their son Fred near Houstonia.

The grip is still plentiful around Emma.

Emma ought to have a bank look at the Creamery report. You find it will pay alright. Let us get into the harness.

The Emma Creamery Co held the annual meeting on Wednesday and elected the following directors: L. A. Meyer, Louis Pinkepank, Fred Hermann, Wm. Dierker, Chas. Weinberg, Fred Schelp, Wm. Fisher After the Annual meeting the directors met and elected the following, Fred Hermann, president; Claus Weinberg, vice-president; L. A. Meyer, secretary, Charley Dierking is buttermaker and annual secretary.

Creamery Report of Year 1910.
Cream received, 331485 lbs., butter fat, 949787 lbs., paid average 21c per lb. Paid out $28,993.87. Butter made, 118,320 pounds.

Mrs. Thyras Gallagher was awarded $2000 damages by the Kansas City Court of Appeals last week against the City of Tipton for falling on a defective sidewalk in July 1909.

GRAND PASS
Mrs. Fannie Green entertained young folks with a social Friday evening in honor of her niece Misses Frances and Ethel McReynolds of Oakland, Iowa.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. J. DeMoss' next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

Mrs. F. C. McReynolds is quite sick.

A large crib of corn of John Robertson south of town was entirely destroyed by fire last week.

Rev. H. Foster of Fayette will preach at the M. E. Church Sunday.

Mr. Christison of Rosedale, Mo. visited his cousins Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pfluger this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Press Edwards entertained the young folks socially a few evenings ago.

Mr. Alta Edwards is quite sick.

A. E. Riley spent Saturday with his niece Mrs. Bessie Humphreys in Malta Bend.

McReynolds & Burrus shipped cattle to St. Louis last week.

Mrs. B. Smith is quite sick.

Rose & Buckner's big sale has cleaned out lots of lines but there are lots left. While we will not be able from now on to fit everybody we can outfit the most of you. Come now while the big sale is on, closes Saturday, Jan. 28.

BLACKBURN
Miss Lydia Bradley was a passenger to Higginsville Saturday.

Julius Kirchoff was a passenger to Kansas City Tuesday.

Albert Washburn went to Marshall Friday.

Pinkeldei Bros. and John Bureford shipped a car of cattle to Kansas City Tuesday.

About fifty from here attended the trial at Marshall Wednesday.

August Reith was a passenger to Marshall Wednesday.

Rev. Runge was at Concordia Wednesday.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick and son Charley were at Marshall Wednesday.

Sam Finkelson from Elarwood, took the train for Marshall Wednesday.

Mrs. Tom Davis from north of here was a passenger to Kansas City Wednesday.

Wonder where someone went Sunday, out east?

LITTLE ROCK
Dan Ehlers and Henry Bierbaum went to Edwardsville, Ill., Sunday and from there to Southern Arkansas.

Otto Cramer is attending a business college in St. Louis. We regret his leaving but hope he will return.

Dr. W. L. Sharp was a business caller at Arrow Rock Monday.

Remember the pie supper at Harry Hudson's Friday evening. Benefit of Concord church. Every body invited.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

NAPTON
T. O. Spillers resigned his position at W. F. Heckman's store Saturday night and left Monday for his home at Otterville. Miss Pearl Caswell will take his place temporarily. We regret to lose Mr. Spillers, as he is a fine and able young man.

Want and for Sale Column

FOR SALE—Rhode Island Red Cockerels, $1 each; Duroc-Jersey pigs, both sexes, fall farrow. D. H. Emison, Napton, Mo. 50-54.

A few choice Rhode Island Red Cockerels for sale by Mrs. L. A. Brown, 6 miles south of Slater. R. R. No. 2 Box 33. 50-54.

WANTED—To rent or engage work on farm with house for family. For particulars consult the Editor of this paper, or address with particulars Oscar Lunbeck, Malta Bend, Mo.

HAY FOR SALE—Pure timothy hay for sale J. B. Campbell, rfd. 3, Marshall, Mo.

FOR SALE—Five good farm mares, good workers and brooders, bred. A. C. Potter, Marshall, Mo.

COLLEGE MEN—Students wanted to sell our Wall Charts during spare hours or vacation period. New census and maps of Missouri, United States and World. Big Profits. Address, World Map Company, Chicago, Ill.

FOR SALE—Bourbon red turkey gobblers—extra good ones. B. Anderson, rfd 3, Marshall, Mo.