

DEATHS

KILLED IN AN AUTO ACCIDENT

H. I. Blosser, of Malta Bend the Victim

The news of an awful automobile accident at Malta Bend caused a big sensation there and elsewhere Saturday evening. The interested parties had been in Marshall shopping and being well known here our city was also much stirred.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Blosser, their daughter, Miss Myrl, and Payne Blosser had been to Marshall shopping Saturday and left about five o'clock for their home in Malta Bend, where Mr. Blosser conducts a livery business.

When they had reached the level stretch of road just east of Malta Bend and near the old M. W. Walker farm they decided to overtake Walker Baker who was ahead and speeded up their 53 horse power Auburn auto to 45 miles an hour. This speed was a little too great and the car commenced to sway. Realizing his danger, Mr. Blosser applied the emergency brakes, but failed to shut off the gasoline. This caused the machine to swing around and put the full momentum against the four wheels sidewise turning it over and landing it on the side. Some part of the auto hit Mr. Blosser and fractured his skull, killing him almost instantly. Mrs. Blosser was caught under the machine and suffered some severe bruises as did also Miss Myrl, who also had her shoulder dislocated, and a painful bruise on her ankle.

Mr. Stueber was thrown clear of the wreck and was stunned a few minutes but suffered no injuries, and came quickly to the relief of the ladies.

Mr. Baker had also seen the accident and after assisting as best he could, drove rapidly to Malta Bend for the three physicians, Drs. Brown and Alken.

Louie Blosser, whose office is opposite the Republican, was also sent for and made the run of twelve miles in his car in twenty minutes, but was too late to be of much assistance.

The accident is a most unfortunate one, especially as the family is one of our most prominent and respected ones. The damage to the car was very light.

Henry Ishmael Blosser would have been 42 years old next August 31, 1912. He was a son of Henry Blosser, a prominent farmer of Blosser. Besides the sorrowing wife and five children he is survived by the following sisters and brothers—Quincy Blosser, Norway, Kansas; William Blosser, Springfield, Mo.; E. J. and Louie Blosser of Blosser; Mrs. Ward Heekett, Jefferson City. The children are—Myrl, Myron, Morris, Frank and Louis Blosser.

All the relatives were summoned at once and most of them were able to be at the funeral.

Funeral services were held at the Christian church in Malta Bend of which deceased was a member, at 1:30 p. m. Monday, Rev. Talbot, of Slater, conducting the services. The remains were then taken to Union cemetery, west of Marshall and laid to rest in the Blosser family lot with Masonic honors. The pall bearers were: O'ffa Walker, E. H. Farnley, Robt. Montague, Archie VanAnglen, Forney Baker and Everett Walker. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in the community.

The wife and children have the community's sympathy in the loss of a kind husband and father.

Killed by Emery Wheel

Thomas G. Pittard was killed at Lorimer, Iowa, on April 26th by the bursting of an emery wheel, a piece of which struck him in the breast. His remains were brought to Marshall and taken to the home of Miss Madie Irvin by Undertaker Walker Saturday and after services there were taken to Ridge Park cemetery for burial.

Mr. Pittard last December married Miss Clara Irvin of this city, who survives him. He was 45 years old and was a good man. His death is a severe blow to the young widow, who has the community's sympathy.

J. ANDERSON JOHNSON, county assessor of Saline, died at his home in the northeastern suburbs of Marshall Friday evening April 26th, after a long illness of catarrh of the stomach. He is survived by his wife and two children, James Hoy and Bernice.

Mr. Johnson was an exemplary young man, hard-working and steady, and had worked his way up from the ranks in a very creditable manner. It was probably his hard work that caused him to break down. He was a faithful member of the Methodist church, was a kind husband and father.

He was born on August 16th, 1872, on a farm four miles southeast of Slater and was a son of Mrs. J. L. Johnson. In September 1895, he was married to Miss Laura Rieder, of Slater. He is also survived by one brother, Charles, of Slater, and five sisters—Mrs. Jasper Johnson, of West Plains, Mo.; Mrs. T. J. Lawler, Mrs. T. J. Stroud, of Slater; Mrs. J. H. Dye, Enid, Okla.; Mrs. M. B. Byrd, Slater.

He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows lodges and they had charge of the burial which occurred in Slater Sunday afternoon. Revs. A. R. Faris and J. T. Pritchett preached the funeral sermons.

Mr. Johnson had been county assessor for about three years. His unexpired term will no doubt be filled by Gov. Hadley by appointing someone promptly.

CALVIN P. SNODDY, died at his home three miles northwest of town Monday, April 29th, of cancer, aged 64 years. Mr. Snoddy had been a sufferer from this ailment a long time and was confined to his room for nearly a year. He is survived by his wife and one son, Calvin Jr.

Mr. Snoddy was a good man and desirable citizen. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and lived a consistent life.

Funeral services were conducted by his former pastor, Rev. McCane, of Lee's Summit, Mo., at the residence Wednesday afternoon and burial at Ridge Park. The pallbearers were six nephews of deceased.

ETHELBERT D. THOMPSON, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thompson, of West Morgan, died Tuesday, April 30, 1912, of hepatitis, aged 4 years, 3 months, and 24 days. The little girl was never strong and was called to a better land where sickness and pain are no more her lot. The remains were taken to Ridge Park cemetery after services at the home Wednesday morning.

MRS. ROBT. REYNOLDS died at her home in Kansas City, Tuesday, April 30th, after a several months illness. She was a sister of Mrs. John Reynolds, of this city, and formerly resided in Cooper county, her maiden name being Miss Kate Bridgewater. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and lived a consistent faithful life. She is survived by her husband and a large family of children. Her remains were brought back to Nelson yesterday and laid to rest in the Nelson cemetery about noon.

DANIEL B. CAMPBELL, one of the old and respected citizens of Clay township, died at his home seven miles southeast of Slater, Sunday, April 22nd, at the age of 72 years and five days. The funeral services were held at Fish Creek Baptist church on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, and were conducted by Rev. J. N. Winn.—Slater Rustler.

MRS. HUTSON, wife of I. P. Hutson, aged 33 years, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Powell, about one mile north of Gilliam, Friday, April 19th. The funeral service conducted by Rev. J. Edwin Norvell, was held at the residence last Sunday afternoon, where many friends of the family gathered to pay the last tribute of respect.—Slater Rustler.

MRS. EDMONIA JAMISON died suddenly at her home on South Lafayette at 3 a. m. Saturday of heart failure, aged 28 years.

Mrs. Jamison came here from Arrow Rock about five years ago her husband having died four years before at their old home in Arrow Rock. The family had resided on the same place for 28 years. Mrs. Jamison resided at the Lafayette address with her daughters, Misses Edmonia and S. B.

Jamison, and had many friends here and over the county who admired her good qualities. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. R. Faris at the residence Sunday afternoon and another short service was held at the grave in the Arrow Rock cemetery Monday. Both the daughters named, she is survived by a son, M. A. Jamison, of Sapulpa, Okla., and daughter, Mrs. A. J. Davis, of Hardeman who both came to Marshall at once.

MRS. SARAH CARROLL DAVIS wife of Thomas Davis, died at their home on East Yerby suddenly about nine o'clock Tuesday evening. She had been enjoying her usual health and had been to see her neighbors, (Elias Redman's, that evening, so that death came as a complete surprise. When she felt the attack coming on she went to the porch and sat down in a chair and informed a lady staying with her that she was sick and she died in a few minutes later. She was 66 years old and a good Christian lady. Funeral services were conducted at the First Presbyterian church by Rev. McCain yesterday at 2:30 p. m.

MRS. LETTIE WRIGHT, col. wife of Philip Q. Wright, a prominent colored former of Napton, died suddenly of dropay Tuesday. She was prominent in church and social work among her people, and was much respected.

Her remains were laid to rest in the colored cemetery near Napton Wednesday.

Boonville Won

The annual debate between the Marshall and Boonville high schools took place in our high school auditorium Monday evening. Leon Snyder and Raymond Downs represented Marshall while E. Coram and Floyd Orer took part for Boonville. The Boonville crowd came up in a special train and the debaters wore short pants, no doubt to make our boys feel small in being beaten by a bunch of "kids." The Marshall boys had the affirmative side of the question of the "Recall of Judges" and lost 2 to 1. The judges were Prof. Van Cleaver of Columbia, Rev. B. T. Wharton, Marshall, and a Boonville attorney.

After the program a two course lunch of ham sandwich, peanut butter sandwiches, fruit salad, oyster salad, pickles, ice cream and cake and coffee.

Dr. Wheeler in his pleasing way delivered a most impressive and instructive address on what the order has done and is doing for the betterment and upbuilding of humanity and its outlook for the future.

The whole world is startled at the magnitude of this great orders work. Our constant devotion to our duties, our untiring efforts at all times to promote the best interests and welfare of our members and our adherence to and practice of the great principles of our order. Friendship, Love and Truth have won for us a large place in the hearts of our countrymen.

Visiting Brothers and sisters were present from Miami, Blackburn, Grand Pass and Marshall. At a late hour all left for their homes.

Toll all your bells, O cities by the Sea!
Toll bells of grief from cross-crowned tower and dome,
Toll for men loved and praised that come not home,
Toll for the homeless exile, now set free
In God's invisible city, where shall be
No more farewells, no death and no more sea.
O all ye ships of ocean, lift your prayer,
Through the dark midnight air,
Unto the plying God; whose angel Death
Men's souls from land and sea each moment summoneth,
And guards in voiceless gloom
Of the Great Deep, one vast, unscriptured tomb,
Where heedless of our tears
Sleeps an unnumbered host, that hears
No storm forevermore, nor mortal fears.
Ring bells of honor for the dying brave:—
For proud, unflinching chivalry that gave
Its wealth and glory to the engulfing wave,
And trusting God above,
Over the woman in her weakness threw
Manhood's strong shield of love,—
In one swift hour of sacrifice that drew
Many hearts back to God,
And joined them with His blessed Cross who trod
Gethsemane, and conquering the grave
From sin and death did save.
Toll bells of pity, swinging sad and slow!
To many an altar many mourners go.
While to the desolate exiles' widowed band,
Fraternal heart and charitable hand
Give pitying welcome to a stranger's land.
Ring bells of prayer above the kneeling throng!
Ring bells of hope, O cities by the sea!
Tell faith's unfathomable mystery
In organ—voice of song,
Uttering sorrow's benediction—
"O love of God! O deep and boundless sea!"—Theodore Williams.

Around Town

One of our readers asks us to publish the following directions for killing a cur: Take him around the southwest corner of the square, beat him with a club till he becomes limp and noisy, then take him to the west side of the square and shoot him, let him then trot to the east side of the square and shoot him again. If not done thoroughly beat him again with the club till he quits his racket.

While complaining about the slowness of a shipment a visitor at the Republican office told us Monday that he gets all his drinks over the — Railway. We had noticed before that this road was carrying most of the "booze" and our curiosity was aroused. We asked him why he shipped over this road and he said, "I like old whisky, and it's the only way I am certain of getting it well aged."

Church Notes

Jacob VanDyke will represent the First Presbyterian church as commissioner to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, U. S. at Bristol, Tenn., on May 16.

Rev. Henry Austin, of Texas, preached at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. A congregational meeting will be held next Sunday morning to consider calling him. He is a very able man and made a good impression.

Prominent temperance orators occupied most of the Marshall pulpits Sunday morning and the Slater pulpits Sunday evening.

The sermons at the First Baptist church next Sunday will be as follows, morning: "Paul's Conversion," evening: "Falsifying Facts," special music.

Christian Science subject for 11 a. m. Sunday, "Everlasting Punishment."

Among the Sick

Mrs. G. R. Smith went to Plattsburg Sunday on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Geo. W. Brown.

Miss Rosa Richter, who was seriously ill several days this week, was a little better yesterday.

Mrs. John W. Blackburn was and has been so from infancy. He here from Blosser Wednesday has given over 7000 concerts during some shopping.
