

MARSHALL REPUBLICAN

VOLUME XXII.

MARSHALL SALINE COUNTY MISSOURI FRIDAY, AUGUST 15, 1913.

NUMBER 33

DEATHS

J. V. JEFFRIES

Mr. Jesse Jeffries died Wednesday night at his home near here after a short illness at the age of 73 years. Mr. Jeffries was taken sick Sunday and grew considerably worse Wednesday morning. Dr. Thos. Hall of near Marshall was called in consultation with Dr. Barnes Wednesday evening, and he was found to be in a very dangerous condition. Inflammation of the bowels and congestion of the brain was pronounced the cause of his death.

Deceased is survived by his wife and 5 children, 3 sons, Erbert and Eppie of near here and Earnest of Oklahoma and 2 daughters, Mrs. Turner of Texas and Mrs. Wm. Rhoades of near here.

Mr. Jeffries had lived in this vicinity a number of years and has a large number of friends and relatives who regretted to learn of his death. Funeral services will probably be held at the Baptist church today. Burial in Nelson cemetery.—Nelson Record.

As we go to press the word comes of the death of Mrs. M. F. Henderson at her home in Coleman, Texas, of typhoid fever, Thursday, August 7. The funeral will be held in this city but the final arrangements can not be made in time to be stated in this article.

Mrs. Henderson was Miss Flora Wilson, the youngest of the children of the late Capt. Joseph Wilson, who died July 7, just one month before the passing of his daughter. And still more sad is the circumstance that the deceased girl went to the Lone Star state only two months ago, June 4, a happy bride. We little thought that she would come to us so soon wearing the white robes of immortality.—Miami News.

MRS. MARY E SHEPARD

Wife of Chas. M. Shepard, died at her home in Clay township Thursday, July 21st, at the age of 42 years. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. W. F. Roberts of this place, were held at Fish Creek church Friday morning at 10:30 and the remains interred in the church yard cemetery at that place.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Wm. Pugh, one of the residents of this part of the country. She is survived by her husband and five children, who have the sincere sympathy of many friends in their sad bereavement.—Slater Rustler.

Willard, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Harold, died Wednesday morning, August 6th, after a short illness. The funeral services were held from the Fish Creek church Thursday morning at 11 o'clock conducted by Rev. J. E. Norvell. Burial in the Fish Creek cemetery. To the bereaved ones, the Globe extends deepest sympathy.—Gilliam Globe.

Nora Helms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Helms, died Tuesday, August 5, 1913, aged two years, two months and eight days. The funeral service, conducted by Rev. Ernest Runge, was held Wednesday afternoon, according to the Lutheran service, at the house at 2 o'clock, and then in the Lutheran church. Burial in the Blackburns Lutheran cemetery.—Blackburn Record.

E. L. POINDEXTER

An old citizen of Arrow Rock, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Kate Meeds at Baxter Springs, Kansas, on August 3d, aged 92 years. He is survived by four children. Jesse and Joe Poindexter of Marshall attended the burial at the Sappington cemetery near Arrow Rock.

Michael Vincent Frane, the infant son of Vincent and Badio Frane, died at the home of the parents in Shackelford, August 14th. The child, which was 1 year 2 months and 15 days old, was buried at Mount St. Marys.

JOHN C. LAMKIN.

This board announces with deep sorrow the death of our late vice president, Mr. John C. Lamkin.

Mr. Lamkin entered the service of the bank in 1889, and for over twenty-four years has been diligent and faithful in the discharge of his duties, having served the bank as teller, assistant cashier, and later as vice president. For more than twenty years past he has been an active and highly valued member of the board of directors.

His character was above reproach. To a high sense of honor, and an abiding faith in his fellow man, was joined in his character a spirit of devotion to his friends, and, to any cause which he deemed to be just. He was ever a consistent advocate of personal rectitude and of civic righteousness.

The loyalty and devotion of his family life was a source of inspiration to all who knew him. He was a devoted husband and father, a sympathetic and courageous friend. His business ability, consistent christian character, kindness of heart and uniform urbanity, were evidenced by his daily life, which was like an open book to all with whom he came in contact.

We have lost a valued personal friend and companion. We wish to record our appreciation of his splendid character, and extend our deepest personal sympathy to his family and friends.

C. G. PAGE,
Chairman of the Board.
J. P. HUSTON,
Secretary.

LOST CORN AND HAY BY FIRE

John Miles was shelling corn with a steam engine last Thursday, when a fire was discovered which it is thought was caused by sparks from the engine or by some one smoking. He lost 1,335 bushels of shelled corn which he valued between $900 and $1,000, this, however, was covered by insurance. A 65 acre meadow was also burned which was worth about $500. Mr. Miles wishes to thank his friends for helping him to save the 5,000 bushels of corn which was in the crib. The fire was a large one and caused a great deal of excitement in the community.

LARGEST STAKE

SEDALIA, Mo., Aug. 11.—The greatest saddle horse stake that the world has ever known is offered this year by the Missouri state fair at Sedalia. This stake is for $2,500, with entrance money added, which makes it a total of $2,900. It will be shown in front of the grand stand on Friday, October 3. This is the date selected by the Missouri Press Association for Editors' Day at the State Fair, and it promises to be the biggest day of the week.

Several of the horses entered in this stake have never been defeated in a show ring, and as horse-show idols, are known from coast to coast. The dates for the 1913 Missouri State Fair are September 27 to October 3.

OBITUARY

Died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Maddox, two miles north of Napton, July 31 at three p. m., Eva Lee Maddox, aged twelve years ten months and eleven days old. After funeral services by Rev. Price at the Baptist church of Napton, she was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at that place.

She leaves a heartbroken father and mother, three sisters and little brother.

The pall bearers were her school mates: John Thorp, Boyd Hanlon, Cecil Heckman, Truman Campbell, Phillip and George Smith. Her Sunday school class of eight little girls were flower bearers.

As Eva was the oldest it seems so hard to give her up. She was a bright and loving child and loved by all who knew her. All that kind and loving hands could do was done, but the Lord said come up higher and the rose bud so promising, blooms now in Heaven. She has gone from the cares and temptations of this world to the crowning glories of eternity.

But her memory will long live in the hearts of her school mates and especially in her Sunday school of which she was a faithful member and we will say to the stricken father and mother, sisters and little brother, how in humble submission to our Heavenly Father, for well you know Eva is safe in the arms of Jesus, who said, suffer little children to come unto me. Our saviour has loving said The angel of death passed over the place;

Paused to gather a flower most fair.

And breathed but a moment on Eva's lips.

The coldness and silence left there on the marble brow of the beautiful child

No furrows of anguish were made. He stole not the roundness from the rosy cheeks.

Where so lately the dimples had played.

Look up dear Father and Mother, beyond the dark clouds,

Thro Heaven's open portals behold Little Eva's bright form with glorified feet.

Are walking the streets of bright gold.

LILIAN WOOD.

ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ludwig entertained a number of friends Sunday, August 10 at their beautiful country home east of town in honor of their niece and nephew, Miss Victoria and Mr. Frank Vogl of Kansas City. Almost seventy-five guests were present.

The evening was pleasantly spent in music and games, which was furnished by Mr. Adolph Weber, Carl Solomon, Paul Solomon, Ed. Solomon Frank Brown and Henry Ludwig.
