It is said the Missouri Pacific shops at Sedalia have cut down the working force in the coach and freight car departments, about 60 per cent, but it is thought it will be only for a short time.

Twelve men, five white and seven negroes were killed in an explosion in the Rock Castle, mine of the Davis Creek Coal Co., thirty-five miles south of Birmingham, Alabama last Saturday. More than 300 men were at work in the mine. All but twelve got out before the damp affected them seriously.

The annual meeting of the Central National Savings and Loan Association was held Tuesday at the office of G. W. Newton on West side.

The directors re-elected were T. H. Harvey, W. S. Huston and W. S. Laurie. The officers were also re-elected except that Dr. G. E. C. Sharp was elected president instead of F. W. Miles, who is out of the city the greater part of the time on account of his traveling position. P. H. Franklin is vice president; J. P. Huston, treasurer; W. S. Huston, superintendent of agents; G. W. Newton, secretary.

The assets of the association have increased from $15,000 to $38,000 and the monthly dues now amount to about $1,000 and the organization has paid more than 10 per cent on all stock.

The meeting was exceedingly satisfactory and the outlook was never better for the Central National Savings & Loan Association. The officers also appreciate the fact that the state examiner has complimented the association very highly with reference to its splendid showing.

FELICE LYNE.

The diminutive star Felice Lyne, who was born and reared in this county has gained new laurels in her recent, around the world trip in grand opera, as will be seen by the following clipping from the Sunday Post-Dispatch. She and her mother have had some interesting experiences:

"Felice Lyne, prima donna and star in the Quinlan Opera Company of 200 people, is completing a 40,000-mile trip around the world. She has received an ovation in every city where she has appeared.

The trip has been beneficial to the health of the young woman and, according to a letter from her mother to her grandmother, Dr. Theodosia Purdon of Kansas City, the singer has gained six pounds during the trip.

"On the journey the Lynes have had two harrowing experiences, one in the Indian Ocean, when it was feared the vessel was going down in a storm, and the other in Johannesburg last September, when the big strike was at its height. In Johannesburg the singer and her mother had to stay in the opera house until 3 o'clock one morning because there was so much shooting in the street. One man was shot to death near them and they witnessed other killings from the windows. Three performances were annulled because of the riots.

CURRENT EVENTS

Twelve white men were wounded, seven natives were killed and forty wounded, in a fierce fight at Jagersfontein, South Africa, Saturday. The Europeans dispersed the natives. The situation now looks brighter.

The march of the New York suffragettes to Albany ended last Wednesday. The footsore women obtained an audience with Gov. Glynn. Gen. Rosalie Jones carried a lighted lantern into the executive chamber. "What's the idea?" asked the Governor. "Are you patterning after Diogenes?" "I'm looking for an honest statesman," replied the General laughing. The Governor did not commit himself on the suffrage question.

The Alexander Lavalley, was the first ship to pass through the Panama Canal, it reach the Pacific ocean Wednesday. The boat was taken from the Atlantic entrance to the Cullbra cut in December, when it remained until last week. It is one of the fleet of canal work boats.

The will of Martha Washington, which was stolen from the records of Fairfax county, Va., during the Civil War, has been found in the J. P. Morgan Library in New York. Morgan has refused to return it, and the State of Virginia is planning to bring suit in the United States supreme court for its recovery. Morgan maintains that the will is contraband of war and therefore, is legitimate loot, which he is entitled to keep.

Attorney General Lacey of Illinois in a statement of Springfield said that in his opinion the courts of Illinois will not aid the Missouri officials in collecting the fines imposed upon the ousted Missouri lumber companies, which have moved into Illinois. He stated that while a judgment in civil proceedings could be collected, with the aid of the Illinois officials, he did not believe the same rule applied to the collection of fines.

The United States circuit court of appeals at Chicago affirmed judgment of the federal district court at Indianapolis in sentencing to prison 20 members of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, in the dynamiting cases, which grew out of the destruction of the plant of the Los Angeles Times. The state department at Washington has on file reports showing that the Waters Pierce Oil Co., of the United States aided in financing the Madero revolution in Mexico, which began in November, 1910, and ended when Porfirio Diaz fled from the country. The reports were filed by Henry Lane Wilson, former Ambassador to Mexico and secret service operative. It is said President Taft knew of the reports and for that reason refused for many months lending moral support to the Madero cause.

Hall et al., and the other was from the colored citizens of Marshall and was signed by Fred Bell (col.) et al. Was Thought Boston Firm Was Throwing Away Money. From the Boston Journal.

Frank A. Allen of the firm of Allen and Paine, engaged from 1860 to 1863 in the manufacture of women's cloaks on Devonshire street, is the oldest Journal advertiser living today. The Journal was the first paper in New England to print a full page advertisement, and this came from Mr. Allen in 1861.

"At that time," Mr. Allen said a few days ago, "so large an ad was almost unheard of in a Boston or New England newspaper. With the exception of Roger Benson's advertisement of his New York Ledger, I do not recollect any other occupying so large a space. I remember very well some of our friends thought us foolhardy and on the high road to ruin because we jumped into the advertising proposition to such an extent, and we were accused of throwing away money, and particularly for throwing away so much money for one ad, and in a single paper.

"The result, however proved that we were not fools."

John T. Rhoades of Slater spent Sunday here and heard Rev. Wm. Vardeman preach at the First Baptist church.

Wayne Hayman an attorney of Sweet Springs is here on legal business and is stopping at the Ruff.

Mrs. Charles Gilpin was among the ladies from the northern suburbs of Marshall shopping here Saturday.

Mrs. Stephen Keehart was in the county seat Saturday from her country home, north of the city, taking advantage of the bargains being advertised by our merchants.

It must be fine to be as youthful as the cub reporter who writes about a man fifty years old as "aged."

Mrs. J. M. Rose who has not been in good health for some time was taken much worse at her home on North Jefferson, Friday morning and her condition has been serious ever since. It is hoped that she will soon be much better.
