Geo. E. Jett of near Miami sends us his renewal this week and says in a letter that the people of northern Saline are well prepared for the winter as almost every one has plenty of pork meat, corn, homony, wheat and that pasture was good until late in the fall so that they had plenty of milk. Mr. Jett is not at all worried about free trade, in fact he is very optimistic regarding the matter.

L. H. Jett, the jolliest and handsomest bachelor in Miami township, came to Marshall Saturday to leave us three dollars for the Republican and also to tell us that he is unable to find a nice young man to share his fortune. Unfortunately the young widows were all out of town and the girls at the matinee, but we promise that if he comes again we'll help him out next time.

R. H. Stanley was up from Blue Lick Saturday and said he has an uncle at Darwin, Va., whom he wants to keep in touch with and as he is a poor hand at writing letters decided to send him the Republican to keep him informed of his doings. In order to do our part we will say Mr. Stanley seemed sober, is tall as ever and is enjoying life like a good citizen should.

Jas. Krivokucha, of southeast of town, was here Saturday looking lonesome. He admitted it was because his wife was at her mother's on a visit, Mrs. Kate Hartsook at Bardolph, Ill. To add to his lonesomeness is the fact that he has a new son since December 18th, whom he has not seen and he is counting the days when he will go after his wife and son and "get acquainted."

F. A. Jurgeman of Blackburn, returned last Thursday from a visit in St. Charles, St. Louis and Weldon Springs. At St. Charles he attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Minnie Jurgeman, who died there December 30th. He had not seen her in twenty years. At St. Louis he visited a sister-in-law and at Weldon Springs he spent several pleasant days with his grandmother.

The many friends of J. M. Thornock, late of the rural route at Blue Lick, Mo., will no doubt learn with satisfaction that he is getting along well at the Soldiers Home at Leavenworth, Kas. Returning to that place from here last October, he at once entered into the activities of the home and quickly regained his former position as Post Adjutant. We note from the Leavenworth Times that he has been chosen commander of the post and was at an open meeting installed as such on January 5th.

LAKIN-HILTON MARRIED WEDNESDAY. On Wednesday, January 7, 1914, Mr. Henry Lakin and Miss Mattie Hilton both of Marshall, Mo., were married at the Christian parsonage. Rev. B. T. Wharton officiating.

The wedding took place at 3 o'clock and was witnessed by a few relatives and the pastor's family.

They returned immediately to the Lakin homestead, and here in the midst of the neighbors with whom they grew up, they will make their future home, and may that home be a happy and prosperous one is the wish of many loving friends.

Resigned His Pastorate. The Blackburn Record says Rev. Arthur Downs, preached his farewell sermon at the Christian church at Blackburn last Sunday having resigned the pastorate. The paper also said Mr. Downs had made a great many friends during the time he had been in charge, who regretted that he had severed his connection with the church.

ELECTED OFFICERS

DR. R. P. C. WILSON OF PLATTE CITY ELECTED SUPERINTENDENT OF MISSOURI COLONY.

The new board appointed this week by Gov. Major for the Feeble-Minded Institute in this city held its first session Friday. There was much to be attended to and the meeting ran over into the evening, so the members of the board were delightfully entertained for tea by Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Quigg as well as dinner.

In the organization of the new board Hon. R. M. Reynolds was made chairman and Mrs. W. W. Graves, wife of Judge Graves of Jefferson City was elected secretary of the board.

The following officials were elected: superintendent, Dr. R. P. C. Wilson of Platte City; A. Peecher of this city, was given the steward's place, and Circuit Clerk Will R. Scott was made treasurer of the institution. The election of the assistant physician and matron were left over until the February meeting.

Dr. Quigg the retiring superintendent took the newly elected board through the buildings upon a tour of inspection, during the afternoon.
