TUBERCULAR GERM SPREAD IN LAUNDRY

So Says Philadelphia Woman, in Address to World Congress.

SHE WOULD ISOLATE VICTIMS

Negroes Are Found to Be the Chief Victims of Consumption.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Addressing the International Congress on Tuberculosis here, Miss Mabel Jacques, of Philadelphia, declared that in the home of every poor consumptive, there is work of some kind going on that will carry out into the world the destructive tubercular germ. Miss Jacques said in part:

"One might almost make a sweeping assertion and say that in the home of every poor consumptive there is work of some kind going on that will carry out into the world the destructive tubercular germ.

"Until it becomes possible to abolish work done in these unsanitary homes, and to find safe occupation for this class of people, it seems impossible that much progress can be made toward successfully stamping out the disease.

"Statistical reports indicate that the greatest amount of tuberculosis is found amongst the Negro Race. The chief occupation in their homes is laundry work. "When questioned as to whether any precautions are being taken about handling the clothes after waiting upon the patient you are looked at with surprise, and doubtless discover upon further questioning, that they are being washed with those of the patient.

Favors Forming Colonies.

"It really seems that the only efficient means of obtaining employment for these people, that is harmless both to themselves and the public, would be in the forming of colonies for them, outside of the cities, where to a certain extent they could be under supervision.

"Gardening and raising of plants might be carried on, the most difficult work being done by those physically competent, the lighter work by those whose condition will not allow the heavier work.

"Pressure should most assuredly be brought to bear by all interested in the tuberculosis movement, to influence those afflicted with the disease to find employment out of town, but this will never be universally accomplished until there is some general plan to get them out, and some marked inducement to draw them there, and the Consumptive Colony seems to be the best solving of this very difficult problem."

CHILD IS FOUND TO HAVE BOVINE TUBERCULOSIS

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The experiment conducted under the auspices of the International Congress on Tuberculosis, in session here, of inoculating charity patients in a hospital, showed that one child has tuberculosis of the bovine type.

Dr. Detre, the distinguished Austrian physician, says this proves that human beings can contract the disease from food. The question has divided the congress.

Dr. Robert Koch denies that bovine tuberculosis can be transmitted to humans. He is opposed by the majority of his colleagues, who want the congress to make a declaration on the subject.

Copper in Street Paving.

SUPERIOR, Wis., Oct. 2.—Copper ore of a startling richness was discovered in a large amount of the rock used to pave the city streets with plain macadam. The rock comes from the vicinity of Rockmont on the copper range nearest the city. There has been a good deal of money spent here, but the results have not proved satisfactory up to the present time.

Brandishes Razor and Pitcher.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 2.—Dr. I. W. Rigs of Aurora, S. D., terrified employes and guests in the Ryan hotel by running through the corridors with a razor in one hand and a water pitcher in another. Several policemen who were called in had a desperate struggle with the man before he was subdued.

The Executive Board of Curators has ordered the University Missourian sent daily to all the accredited and partially accredited high schools in Missouri.

PHONOGRAPHS ANNOY CIRCUS CAMEL, BUT TIGER LIKES TOWN

Jungle Folk Discuss Columbia Until University Students Demand Their Attention.

After the circus parade was over yesterday, and the calliope had exhausted its steam in one final shriek, the jungle folk foregathered in their tent for the customary gossip about the new town they had entered.

"May blisters fall upon these sons of Eblis," grumbled an ungainly yellow camel. "I am weary of this wandering which leads nowhere except to fresh insults. 'Tis had enough to have that steam-voiced 'Thing of Horror' always with us; but now we have come to a place where even as we walk through the streets voices which are not human sing at us through funnels as we go."

"This isn't such a bad place," murmured an elephant, ponderously content. "They feed us the little nuts in shells, and our beds are always soft."

"Asian ass," grunted the camel. "Thou wouldst be contented anywhere. What dost thou know of daylong travel over hot sands, and the rest at the oasis when night has come and the sky is purple velvet spangled with gold—when the men lie down to smoke, and it is a pleasure to be tired. A curse on this life, I say."

"Well, as for me," purred a huge tiger, "I feel perfectly at home here. I never had people make so much of me in my life. This must be a tiger town."

The entrance of a crowd of University students, laden with peanuts and curiosity, cut conversation short.

Attorney General Hadley, who is candidate against W. S. Cowherd for Governor, was born in Olathe, Kan., Feb. 20, 1872, and after studying at the University of Kansas, completed his education at Northwestern University and the Chicago Law School.

Within four years after Hadley left school he was made first assistant city counselor at Kansas City, where he had decided to make his home. Since then his rise politically has been steady, and he became a national figure in his notably successful legal fight against the Standard Oil Co. in an ouster suit for violating the anti-trust laws of Missouri.

PLAN GENERAL RAISE IN FREIGHT RATES

Vice President of "Katy" Tells Commerce Commission So.

By United Press.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 2.—C. C. Haile, vice-president of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad, told the Interstate Commerce Commission at its hearing yesterday on the Texas rate case that the recent increase in rates in Texas was only a part of the plan to increase rates in other territory. Plans are now in progress to raise the rates in other sections. The hearing probably will conclude tonight, to be resumed at Austin, Tex. late in November.

While the Commerce Commission was hearing the testimony in this case, forty railroad companies, headed by the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, brought an injunction suit in the United States Circuit Court against the commission to restrain the enforcement of the lower rates on live stock to the large stock markets.

POLITICS IN BIBLE THEME FOR THOMAS

Playwright Declares Judas Was Republican, Moses a Democrat.

LARGE CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

Henry T. Lee Introduces Noted Guest to Cheering Audience.

Augustus Thomas, the noted playwright, in addressing an audience of about 700 democrats of Boone county at the Airdome this afternoon, humorously declared that Judas was a republican because, as treasurer of his organization, he received campaign contributions.

Moses was a democrat, Mr. Thomas said, because he said "Thou shalt not steal." He mentioned other Biblical characters in connection with present-day political situations.

Will Carry Ohio.

The democrats, according to Mr. Thomas, will carry Ohio and Indiana this fall. The republicans realize that the country is in danger from the dominating spirit of the President, says the playwright. Mr. Thomas suggested two cures for corporations. First, the publicity of campaign contributions before the elections; second, the prevention of the Government from dealing in campaign contributions. Applause repeatedly interrupted the speaker.

Mr. Thomas was introduced by Henry T. Lee, chairman of the Boone County Democratic Central Committee, and was received with much enthusiasm. Many students were in the audience.

Ball Stumping for Cowherd.

FATE WAS CRUEL TO JOHNNY JERGENSEN

Boy Is Only Pupil in District and Has Teacher All to Himself.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 2.—Johnny Jergensen, 11 years old, perhaps occupies the most peculiar position of any pupil under the public school system in the United States. He is the only child of school age in the district near Kettle Falls, Ferry county, Wash., and has a teacher all to himself. The instructor is M. R. Honeyman, formerly of Spokane, who took charge of the school early this month.

There were three pupils at the beginning of the term, soon after which the parents of two of them moved out of the district, taking their children with them. The district is regularly organized and has a school board, with chairman, secretary and treasurer.

It also has ample funds to its credit, and in addition to this the State makes an appropriation of seven cents a school day in the year for each pupil. This is the highest appropriation of any state in the Union.

SHE WILL BECOME FIRST WOMAN CLOWN

Miss Kimball Will Be "Rube" at the Hippodrome.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Miss Maud Kimball is a pioneer among women in an occupation which heretofore has been confined to men. Miss Kimball, according to theatrical sages, is the first woman clown and from now on her duty will be to raise "laughs" among the patrons of the Hippodrome.

Before adopting a stage career Miss Kimball was a teacher in a country school in Kansas. The humorous side of life always appealed to her even in the days when her mission was to teach the young idea how to shoot. Possessed of an excellent voice, she came to New York and became a member of the Hippodrome chorus and ballet.

She displayed so much ability in comedy work that this year in arranging the circus, Stage Director Burnside gave her a part as clown with James R. Adams, who has probably been a clown longer than any other man in the world. Miss Kimball and Adams work together as a pair of "Rubes." Besides being naturally funny, she can "do a fall" with almost the grace of Marcelline.

CLASS RUSH MAKES WORK FOR CLINIC

Special Session Held to Attend Medical Students' Hurts.

FIGHT STOPS CAR TRAFFIC

One Chicago Student Almost Has Eye Gouged Out.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—A number of students were injured, two seriously, yesterday in a flag rush between Freshmen and Sophomores of Rush Medical College at the college building on the west side. George Keller sustained a dislocation of his left arm and James Doyle had one eye almost gouged out. Several other students sustained cuts and bruises.

The fight was so furious that street car traffic in the vicinity had to be stopped, for fear some of the students would be injured.

Today there was a special clinic at the college and the injuries of the victims were attended to by the more advanced students.

ELECTED CLASS PRESIDENT BECAUSE OF "MARTYRDOM"

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 2.—Hal Lynch, formerly of the Manual Training School, was elected President of the Freshman class of Washington University as the result of an attempt he made Tuesday night to warn his classmates of a proposed attack on their dormitories by the boys of the Sophomore class. Lynch heard of the attack, which was for the purpose of binding the Freshmen to their beds and leaving them helpless.

On the trip from the Liggett to the Tower dormitories, Lynch was captured and carried away by the Sophomores to divers mysterious punishments. This martyrdom helped him in his candidacy for president, as he won the office after a spirited contest. Messrs. Sihler and Meredith being his opponents.

The other officers are: Miss Sarah Thomas, vice-president; Miss Frances Clayton, secretary; B. F. Price, treasurer, Shepard Barclay, representative of the student body; Blak Howard, athletic director; Nelson Lockwood, representative on the "Hatchet."

These officers will serve for the present half-term. Hugh Ferris, president of the Junior class, presided at the meeting.

LED TO FAR EGYPT BY A DREAM ANGEL

North Carolina Preacher Believed He Had a Divine Call.

RALEIGH, N. C. Oct. 2.—The Rev. John White, living near Elizabeth City, dreamed that an angel appeared to him and told him to sell everything he had and go to Egypt and preach the Gospel. Next day he told his dream to relatives and neighbors and said he must obey the angel's injunction. They tried to dissuade him, but he was determined.

In January he sold his farm and other property and with the proceeds left with his wife and children for Egypt.

Two months ago a letter was received by his relatives saying that his mission was a failure; that he was penniless, and that his one desire now was to get back home. They at once sent him funds, and last week he and his family arrived. Mr. White says that in the future he will not be guided by dreams.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Struck by an express train running sixty miles an hour on the Ontario & Western railroad, Mrs. Sarah Young, the wife of a farmer, lives to tell the tale. She arose and, shaking her skirts, said she guessed she had better go on home.
