

POSTERS TO WILSON AND HUERTA

Farmers Fair Widely Advertised—Preparations Are Almost Complete.
Posters of the Farmers' Fair have been mailed to President Wilson and to President Huerta. Every agricultural student who does not work for the fair will be run through the pond on the State Farm. Committees reported a most interesting collection of side shows.
These were the facts brought out at the last Agricultural Club meeting. The next and last meeting before the fair will be held Tuesday evening, when the preparations will be completed.

STUDENT ELECTION

FRIDAY 8:30 TO 1:30
Polls Close Early to Avoid Conflict With Farmers' Fair
VOTING BY DIVISIONS
Student President, Editor of Savitar and Manager to Be Chosen.

The annual student election, as provided for in the constitution adopted by the student body several years ago, will be held next Friday. The polls will be open from 8:30 to 1:30 o'clock. The early closing is meant to avoid a conflict with the County Fair, scheduled for the same day.
The voting is to be done under the direction of the student council. Councilmen will preside at the polling places.
The law students will vote in the Law Building, with C. B. Rollins in charge. Students in the College of Arts and Science and the School of Education will vote together in Academic Hall, directed by D. H. Wyatt and D. L. Edson.
The women will exercise their suffrage in Academic Hall, under Miss Marguerite Jackson and Miss Hulda Rollman.

Voting in Your Own Division.
Voting in the College of Agriculture will be held in the Dairy Building, under F. L. Duley.
The students in engineering are to vote in the Engineering Building, where W. M. Lauber will be stationed. Journalists will vote in Switzer Hall, with T. S. Hudson in charge.
R. R. Haley will have charge of the voting in the School of Medicine. The ballot box will be in the Medical Building.
George C. Willson, student president, wishes to have it understood distinctly that each student must vote in that division of the University in which he is entered and in which he has paid his fee. In voting, the student must scratch the name of the candidate or candidates against whom he wishes to vote.
A List of the Candidates.
The ballot contains the following names:
For president: Kearney Wornall, R. W. McClure.
For vice-president: Paul H. Arthur, George M. Duren.
For secretary-treasurer: A. W. Roffe.
For editor of the Savitar: Ralph Turner, Claud F. Clayton.
For business manager of the Savitar: W. Warren Browne, J. B. Williams.
For student councilmen from the various divisions of the University, the following have been nominated: College of Agriculture, E. M. Staude; College of Arts and Science, Thomas Barclay and Rush Limbaugh; School of Education, Terrence Kelley; School of Engineering, C. E. Stemmons and Stanley G. Goodman; School of Journalism, John C. Stapel; School of Law, Roy Burns; School of Medicine, G. B. McArthur.

YOU'RE NEXT! TRY THIS RAZOR
Barber Has 200-Year-Old Instrument That Looks Like a Bludgeon.
A barber shop in Columbia has a razor which is said to be 200 years old. The owner believes it to be of Italian make. To say the least, a young man of the present day would perhaps go unshaved before submitting to treatment with this instrument.
The blade is in the shape of a triangular wedge. Each side measuring two inches. It contains enough metal to make three blades for a modern razor. From its appearance, the razor would be a more efficient weapon than part of a barber's equipment.

Engineers Hear Lecture on Safety.
"The Prevention of Accidents" was discussed by C. C. Boswell and F. L. Anderson before the student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers in the lecture room of the Engineering Building last night. Mr. Anderson, assisted by Lorimer E. Knapp, gave a demonstration of the method of resuscitation in case of an electric shock. Lantern slides illustrated the talks. Refreshments were served in the electrical design room.

SERENADERS HAUNT SORORITIES

Salt, Sugar, Coffee, the Only Food Found at One House.
Have you heard the very latest innovation at Missouri? It is a minstrel serenade. There are but four members in the original company. Like ghosts they appear only at midnight and after.
However, instead of appearing in the grave yard they appear under the windows of the various sorority houses and girls' dormitories.
At first one thinks there is going to be an ordinary serenade, for there is nothing but song. The object of singing first is to get all occupants of the house awake. When there has been sufficient applause to warrant them in proceeding with their program, they crack jokes worthy of any professional minstrel show.
"Say old man will you lend me ten dollars for a week?"
"Lend you ten dollars for a week?"
"Yes lend me ten dollars for a week, old man."
"Say quit your kidding, who is this weak old man?"
"Say Charles, did you know that a cow gives buttermilk?"
"Do I know that a cow gives buttermilk?"
"Yes, that is what I said."
"No John, I didn't know that she gave anything but her milk."
These dialogues continue, after each of which is the following announcement. "That was a play on food, food, food!"
It was said at one sorority house that if there had been any place where they could have ordered a quick turkey dinner for the jokesters they certainly would have done so, but as fate would have it, the ice chest was locked and they couldn't find a thing other than salt, sugar and coffee.

YALE MAN TO Y. M. C. A. DINNER

Charles R. Brown, Dean of Divinity School, Will Address Members.

Drink a "Jimmie" Cherry Phosphate

The pungent flavor of the cherry stone lingers in every drop of the "Jimmie" phosphate. Big, red cherries are crushed for the juice of the sparkling "Jimmie" drink.

And it is this delightful flavor in the bubbling phosphate that you remember after your thirst is quenched. The "Jimmie" phosphate quenches the thirst without producing any after-effects. Drink all you want. Pure, wholesome, refreshing.

Tuxedo—A Hit with the Hit-Makers

HUNDREDS of the snappiest ball players in the country—the clean-cut athletes who provide Americans with their greatest outdoor relaxation—enthusiastically endorse Tuxedo. This is the kind of endorsement that carries a convincing punch.

These men know that Tuxedo is a mild, pure tobacco, which can be smoked all day with pleasure. Tuxedo cannot bite the tongue; it burns freely and smoothly, giving a cool, sweet smoke.

Tuxedo
The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo is made from the finest, mildest, leaves of high-grade Burley tobacco, so treated under the famous original "Tuxedo Process" that it burns slow and cool, with a delightful flavor and aroma.

The "Tuxedo Process" makes it impossible for this perfect tobacco to bite or sting the most delicate throat or tongue.

Tuxedo has many imitators—in outward appearance. It has no equal in the pipe or cigarette.
