

COLUMBIA NOTES

John N. Taylor went to Huntsville today.
J. H. Kazar went to Moberly this morning.
C. W. Ellis went to Moberly this morning.
Mrs. J. F. Robertson of Grant City is visiting her daughter, Miss Gladys Robertson.

Miss Mary Barks went to Mexico, Mo., today.
O. R. Barnes returned to Hallsville this morning.
J. W. Ridgeway went to Centralia this morning.
Bennett Clark of Bowling Green is visiting here.
Mrs. Joseph Gant is ill at her home, 101 Price avenue.

WABASH MARKET

Tuesday-Wednesday Specials.
Phone 888.

- Turnips pk.20
 - 30c Wishbone Coffee, lb.25
 - 15c Green Beans, can.10
 - 20c Pitted Cherries, 2 cans.35
 - 15c Pimentos, can.10
 - 35c Peanut Butter, jar.30
 - 25c Coffee, lb.20
 - 25c Catsup, bottle.29
 - 10c Corn Flakes, 4 boxes.25
 - Hand picked Jonathan Apples, pk.15
 - 20c Ripe Olives, can.15
 - 5c Milk, 7 cans.25
 - 5c Laundry Soap, 10 bars.25
 - 25c Fruit Jam, qt.15
 - Best lard.12 1/2
 - 10c Yours Truly Pork and Beans.05
 - 20c Alaska Red Salmon, 2 cans.25
- We Give S. & H. Stamps.

The Rev. Archie Brown went to Sturgeon this morning.
Mrs. E. H. Guitler and Mrs. H. I. Bragg went to St. Louis today.
Dr. F. A. Martin of Fulton spent yesterday in Columbia visiting friends.
W. H. Brown, who has been visiting Samuel Asbury, left this morning for Kansas City.
Dr. H. C. Tuck, deputy state veterinarian, will leave tonight for Neosho, Mo., on business.

Alexander Bruce, who has been the guest of John Clay, returned this morning to Thompson.

Louis Vandiver, a student in the University, spent Sunday in Jefferson City visiting his parents.

Mrs. L. T. Fawks returned to Salisbury today after a visit to her sons, M. E. and Rush Fawks.

R. L. Brown of Centralia was a guest of his sister, Miss Mary Brown of 716 Maryland place, yesterday.

J. K. Wright, farmers' institute lecturer of the State Board of Agriculture, returned Saturday from Neosho, Mo.

Mrs. Earl Koontz of Fulton, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. C. Knight, returned to her home this afternoon.

Mrs. E. A. Creel will leave tomorrow for Jefferson City to attend a Presbyterian meeting, to which she is a delegate.

Miss Bab Bell, assistant professor of home economics of the agricultural extension service, returned Saturday night from Mexico, Mo.

Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Roberts left this morning for their home at Fredrick, Okla., after a visit to their daughter, Miss Lewis Roberts, a student in the University.

C. B. Hutchison, professor of farm crops in the College of Agriculture, returned Saturday night from Mexico, Mo., where he judged corn at the Mexico Corn Carnival.

The animal husbandry department of the College of Agriculture shipped a carload of hogs to St. Louis this morning. The hogs have been on a self-feeder trial experiment.

Mrs. J. J. Phillips, Miss Myrtle Parker and the Rev. Madison A. Hart will attend the county convention of the Christian Church at Red Top Church, near Hallsville, tomorrow, and Wednesday.

The Rev. T. W. Young, Miss Mary Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stephens, Dean W. W. Charters and Mr. and Mrs. James M. Wood will attend the Baptist General Association meeting, which opens at Trenton today.

Miss Kathrine Edwards of Kirkwood is visiting Miss Julia Sampson at her home, 1211 East Broadway. Miss Edwards was a student in Stephens College year before last. She may take work in the University later this year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chandler and daughter, Miss Thelma Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Ballenger and daughter, Miss Sigmund Ballenger and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Monroe spent Sunday at Centralia, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Roberts.

SOCIETY

Mrs. R. B. Price, Sr., gave a family dinner yesterday in honor of the eighty-third birthday of Mr. Price. They were at home to their friends in the afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Robert L. Ramsay and Mrs. H. M. Belden will give a tea Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. A. H. R. Fairchild at the home of Mrs. Belden.

Mrs. E. A. Allen, Mrs. W. G. Brown and Mrs. F. B. Mumford will receive. In the dining room will be Mrs. R. D. Miller, Mrs. J. S. Ankeney, Mrs. R. M. Dewey, Miss Mary Allen and Miss Emily Guitler.

Miss Rowena Ray entertained with a tea this afternoon for some of the Christian College girls from Kansas City.

The Beta Theta Pi fraternity gave a dinner yesterday for Miss Anne Clark, Miss Glorietta Pixlee and Carl Dingess.

Miss Lucile Keene entertained with five hundred Saturday night at her home at 1301 Keiser avenue.

Phi Beta Pi, an honorary medical fraternity, gave a dinner party last night in honor of Miss Laura Bitter of the Redpath Lyceum Bureau and Miss Helen Rice, a student in Hardin College, Mexico, Mo. Miss Bitter is a sister of Arthur Bitter, a student in the School of Medicine. Dr. and Mrs. Waldon E. Muns were chaperons.

CAMPUS NOTES

The students from Greene County will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight in Room B, Y. M. C. A. Building.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Burkhalter of Kansas City visited their son Ben, a student of the University, yesterday.

The Read Hall members gave a dance and "bunking" party Saturday night for the Annex girls and the other boarders.

Emmett Elder, Caldwell Summers and Roscoe Summers, students in the University, visited at the home of Richard O. Worrell of Mexico, Mo., a former student in the University, Saturday and yesterday and attended the open house held by Hardin College Saturday evening.

Mrs. W. P. Cave of Moberly returned to her home yesterday, after spending the week-end with her son, Harold, at the Dana Press Club.

Miss Leota Versen, a former student in the University, spent the week-end with her mother, who is chaperon of the Chi Omega sorority.

Donald S. Libbey of Centralia, who was graduated from the School of Commerce last year, spent Saturday and yesterday at the Sigma Phi Epsilon house.

H. L. Shrader, who is doing poultry investigation work for the United States Department of Agriculture, is visiting here. He was graduated from the College of Agriculture in 1914.

Four students from Westminster College at Fulton walked to Columbia Friday night and saw the Missouri-Oklahoma football game Saturday. They returned to Fulton this morning.

M. D. Wood, '15, a member of last year's stock judging team, stopped over yesterday in Columbia on his way from Odessa, where he judged live stock at the county fair. He will judge in Jasper County next week.

Paul D. Higbee of Kirksville was a guest of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity Saturday and yesterday. He is a graduate of the University, having received his A. B. in 1909 and his LL. B. in 1911, and is a member of Phi Alpha Delta, an honorary legal fraternity.

More than fifteen students in the College of Agriculture practiced basketball at Rothwell Gymnasium Saturday night in preparation for the inter-department games, which will begin soon after Thanksgiving. Paul Shepard will have charge of the agricultural team.

Students going to the library Saturday morning were compelled to make a detour and wade through the mud, as the walk from Lowry street to the door of the library had been taken up by the workmen who were preparing the campus for seeding. The trees have been removed from the library campus and the campus terraced and prepared for seeding. Workmen have been employed there for the last week diking and harrowing the ground and building up the terraces.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

The regular meeting of the Tuesday Club will be held at 2:30 next Tuesday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium.
(Adv. 66)
Wanted At Once:—Two well furnished modern rooms for light house keeping. Man and wife. Address, A. B. C. Care Daily Missourian. Z-41.
Lost:—Monday or Tuesday between 302 Virginia avenue and Academic Hall, a Beta Sigma Omicron pin. Reward if returned to Missourian office.
P 44.
Read "Tomorrow's Best Bargain."

HONEY MAKERS

Are at work in our window. Come in and see them. Real live bees making honey.

SMITH & BRIGHT

Phone 179 1013 E. Broadway

It's a Charming Little Dress

This Betty Wales No. 1

For school and daylight wear it's simply fetching.

Made of a fine quality of French serge, beautifully tailored and most modestly priced.

Ask to see Betty Wales number 2, also Betty Wales No. 3.

All designed for school wear and service.

We are exclusive agents for Betty Wales dresses.

STRAWN-NEATE D.G. CO.

The Home of Standard Ware.

10c ANNEX THEATRE 10c TONIGHT

"THE FIGHT"

The New York Hudson Theatre film sensation, featuring Margaret Wycherly and John E. Killard.

At The 5c Broadway Nickel Odeon 5c

"THE GOPHER"

featuring Herbert Rawlinson and Anna Little.

STAR THEATRE TONIGHT

3—Vaudeville Acts—3 Special Photo Plays

Ziegler's STAR Orchestra

Betty Harte

"Nancy of Stony Isle"

A thrilling story of the sea.

The Telephone Puts the Markets of the United States at Your Door.

The Business Man of Columbia can talk personally with the men or companies they do business with in distant cities ---they can do this from their houses or business office. It's cheaper, quicker and without the delay or inconvenience attending other means of correspondence.

Use Long Distance.

Columbia Telephone Co.

BLUFF an' boast are props for a weak case. VELVET is its own argument in the court of last resort—yo' pipe.

Shoes For Men

Banister - - $7.00
Florsheim - $5 and $6
Other well known makes $2.50 and up.

We have the neat men's shoes. Come in and see the new styles.

LIPSCOMB SHOE GARTH CO.

YOU, TOO, WILL LIKE "THE CLEANEST LAUNDRY"

Send by Parcel Post—St. Louis, Mo.