CAMPUS NOTES

Mrs. R. S. Latschaw of Kansas City is visiting her daughter, Miss Constance Latschaw.

The Farmhouse will give an informal dance for out-of-town visitors the night of November 24.

Mrs. C. M. Klein of St. Louis spent the week-end with her daughter, Miss Lucile Klein, at the Alpha Delta Pi house.

Miss Mamie Sharp of La Belle, Mo., a senior in the School of Education, has been called home on account of the serious illness of her father.

The Saline County Club met Wednesday at the Beta Theta Pi house. A committee was appointed to arrange for advertising the University at the high schools of the county during the Christmas holidays.

Dr. M. P. Ravenel, professor of preventive medicine, will read a paper on "Present Views in Reference to Methods and Prevention of Infection in Tuberculosis" before the Second Pan-American Scientific Congress to be held under the auspices of the Government, December 27, to January 8.

The Carroll County Club met Wednesday in the Y. M. C. A. Building and made plans for entertaining Carroll County visitors here for the Kansas game. Room B, Y. M. C. A. Building, has been secured as headquarters for the club, and a committee, consisting of R. L. Furry, Russell Wilson and R. H. Stanley, will be on duty there Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning before the game. This committee has a list of rooming places and will assist visitors in finding rooms. In 1913 about one hundred persons came from Carrollton. As the club has been advertising the game in the Carroll County papers, an equal or greater number is expected this year.

Students from Nodaway County met in Room 220, Academic Hall, Thursday, and organized a Nodaway County

Club. Fourteen members attended. Len Daise was elected president of the organization. The other officers are: Vice-president, Theo Long; secretary, Genevieve Harmon; treasurer, Harold Ramsey; sergeant-at-arms, Raymond McPherson. A committee was appointed to arrange for the entertainment of visitors from Nodaway County on Thanksgiving day.

The Livingston County Club has organized for the year with the following officers: President Miss Jacobina Brandenberg; vice-president, George Milbank; secretary and treasurer, Miss Mary Grace Seay. Plans are be-

Parcel Post Laundry Case

The Universal Students' Parcel Post case for sending home laundry saves time, postage and trouble. The cost during its term of service is less than the cost of good paper and twine, and your laundry is never mused. Saves relabeling each time and the address can't come off. Made for students who send laundry home. Ask one of our student clerks to show you one of these cases.
