CHICAGO URGES PREPAREDNESS

Estimate Places 250,000 Persons in Parade Like New York's. CHICAGO, June 3.—A preparedness demonstration equal to New York's gripped Chicago today.

Nearly a quarter of a million Chicago men, women and children, it is estimated, marched today in a parade to arouse the nation to preparedness.

One feature of the parade was the suffragist section. Another was the motorcycle section, in which several thousand motorcyclists rode their machines.

One hundred and eighty union chauffeurs offered their cars without charge to anyone desiring to take part in the parade.

Illinois National Guard regiment marched by special permission of Governor E. F. Dunne.

It was estimated that Mayor William Hale Thompson would have to sit in the reviewing stand twelve hours if he planned to see the parade from start to finish.

Major-General E. C. Young headed the parade. His chief aid was Colonel Milton J. Foreman of the First Illinois Cavalry regiment.

IS SUED TWICE FOR SLANDER

T. S. Long Is Defendant in Cases Transferred From Sturgeon.

Two change of venue cases, both asking for $2,500 actual and $2,500 punitive damages, from the Sturgeon court of common pleas were filed in the office of the circuit clerk for the June term of the Boone County Circuit Court yesterday.

Riggs, who is the agent for an insurance company, charges Long with malicious slander, alleging that Long hurt his business and reputation to the extent of $5,000.

JUNE CROP REPORT ISSUED

High Prices of Stock Will Make Up for Loss in Wheat.

The June crop report of the State Board of Agriculture, issued yesterday, said that although there will be only a partial wheat crop this year the high prices for live stock will make up the difference.

Speaking of May, the report says that except for a few days the latter part of the month was favorable for farming in practically every part of the state except a few counties in the south central and southern parts.

COLUMBIA HAS A TIE KING; HE BUYS 'EM FOR RAILROAD

Tacoma has her lumber kings, Pittsburgh her steel kings and other American cities their kings of various sorts. Even Columbia, a city of less rank in the matter of population, has a citizen who last year bought more railroad ties than any other tie contractor in the United States.

John H. Lightner.

Mr. Lightner last year bought and turned over to the Wabash 410,000 ties, valued at more than $200,000. Besides this, he bought large quantities of lumber and other building materials.

Mr. Lightner was for several years a school-teacher and farmer near Madison, Mo. He later attended the Kirksville Normal School. He is now president of the Lightner Mercantile Company of Sturgeon and owns and operates a 500-acre farm one-half mile north of that place.

Kentucky Senator Is Chosen for Convention Head—Delegates Arrive.

By United Press. ST. LOUIS, June 3.—Senator Ollie James of Kentucky was chosen permanent chairman of the Democratic National Convention tonight.

Delegates are arriving, and the city is fast taking on the air of excitement attached to the holding of a national convention the size of the Democratic rally.

UNOPPOSED FOR STATE SENATE

Mark A. McGruder, M. U. Graduate, to Represent Sedalia District.

Mark A. McGruder of Sedalia will be one of the new men in the State Senate next January. He will represent the Fifteenth District, succeeding Senator Louis Grother of Benton County.

McGruder's district comprises Saline, Pettis, Benton and Hickory counties. Saline and Pettis are strongly Democratic, and the nomination of McGruder will assure his election.

McGruder was born and raised on a farm in Pettis County. He received his early education in the public schools. Later he attended Westminster College at Fulton, and was graduated in 1901 from the University of Missouri.

McGruder's candidacy was unanimously endorsed by the Democratic central committee of Pettis County.

McGruder became well known among the bar association of the state through his literary efforts. He has written several law texts.

Three M. U. Alumni at Winfield, Kan.

Albert J. McCullough, who graduated from the University in 1895, writes to H. H. THEIR WEDDING REAL SURPRISE

E. C. Brownlee and Miss Mary Margaret Shore, A. B. '16, Marry.

What everyone thought was to be an informal party for an out-of-town guest turned out to be the wedding of Ellis C. Brownlee of Brookfield, Mo., and Miss Mary Margaret Shore of Columbia at the home of the bride's parents at 813 College avenue at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

It was known to several intimate friends of the couple that they would be married soon, but when told today of the wedding all were much surprised. It was learned late last night that the bride's father knew nothing of it until Friday night.

As soon as friends learned of the wedding, they were at the train and gave the newly married couple a riotous farewell. The couple left for Kansas City, where they will spend their honeymoon, and then will go to Prockfield, where Mr. Brownlee will continue his work in his father's bank.

The bridegroom was a student in the School of Engineering until the beginning of the second semester of this year. He is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity and up to the time that he left school was a second lieutenant in the University Cadet Corps. The bride is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She received her degree of A. B. last Thursday.
