LLOYD WILL UPHOLD

J. W. Peebly and Others Lose $40,000 Case in Circuit Court.

The case of J. W. Peebly against Elma U. Lloyd in the Boone County Circuit Court was lost yesterday after the jury had been out fifteen minutes. The case was called Friday morning and was before the court until the verdict was returned at 2:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The plaintiff alleged that the late Simeon B. Lloyd was of unsound mind and was unduly influenced in the assignment of his property according to his will.

Mr. Lloyd was without direct heirs. After the death of his near relatives he lived with his niece by marriage, Mrs. Elma Lloyd, for his last five years.

By his will Mr. Lloyd left the bulk of his property valued at about $40,000, to Mrs. Lloyd and her near relatives. Since Mrs. Lloyd was no blood kin, J. W. Peebly, with twenty-seven nieces and nephews, sued to break the will.

The John Duncanson case, an ejectment suit against M. A. Lane, was upheld by Judge David H. Harris.

Two cases postponed from Wednesday's docket were taken up by the court: W. A. Longbottom against Thomas S. Long on charge of slander and Milton D. Riggs against Thomas S. Long on the same charge.

Mexico is in ambush, somewhere in Audrain County, awaiting the attack of the Columbia Browns, according to advices received from the front. The defenders have one heavy gun on which to pin their faith, and his name is Lancaster. He shoots a good brand of curve-ball pitching and, to quote reports, "His fast one has a hop on it."

The two Central Missouri League teams will meet this afternoon at Mexico, Mo.

The Browns, in their recruiting camp at the Fairgrounds, have been going through a hard drill every day and are anxious to leave the arduous routine and see a little action. One new rookie has been added to the corps by Recruiting Officer George Taylor. His name is Logan. He claims to be at home in the infield and he came all the way from Canton, Mo., to enlist. He will be seen somewhere in the first line of trenches this afternoon, according to the recruiting officer. Ed Hill has been sent to the field hospital on account of his hand, which was injured some time ago, and Major Price, a cannon ball catcher or renown, may see a little service. Adjutant-General George Bryant will toss the hand grenades for the Browns.

The team will entrain at the Wash station at 10:50 o'clock this morning, accompanied by many Columbians. The opening gun will be sounded at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

AD MEN MEET IN PHILADELPHIA

University of Pennsylvania Will Help to Entertain Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, June 24.—With a clamor that should have disturbed the taciturn composure of Billy Penn's statue topping City Hall, the vanguard of more than 19,000 delegates who will attend the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World hit Philadelphia today.

As each delegation rolled into the City of Brotherly Love it was met at the railroad station by special committees and brass bands and escorted with loud acclaim to its hotel. Before nightfall it is expected 6,000 of the "liveliest and peppiest" ad men of the country will be in complete possession of the city.

Delegates from every state in the union and every large and small city of the country will talk advertising today, while awaiting the formal opening of the six-day convention tomorrow, when religious services will be held in more than a score of churches, to be followed by a great inspiration service at the Metropolitan Opera House.

The scene of the world's great "business gabfest" will be two of the country's foremost educational institutions. The big general meetings of the convention will be held in the Commercial Museum, itself a storehouse of knowledge, while the twenty-two departmental gatherings and conferences, of which there will be about thirty, will be held in the various buildings of the University of Pennsylvania.

The entertainment program for the delegates is the most elaborate ever arranged here. Nothing in the way of expense was spared.

The women visitors, numbering about 2,000, are provided for as well as the men. The Poor Richard Club, host, will endeavor to send the visitors away from the city with the avowed intention of returning whenever the opportunity presents itself.

Churches to Hold Union Services.

The Sunday evening union service will be held at the Presbyterian Church tonight. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. T. W. Young, pastor of the Baptist Church.

M. U. LETTER LOST SIX YEARS

Slamming of Door Dislodges Communication for Alumni Secretary.

Door slamming and other such violent acts have one admirable feature: They serve to dislodge all foreign objects that may be in their vicinity. Had the door to the old office of the alumni secretary been slammed more often and more violently a letter mailed to the secretary on October 28, 1910, would have been discovered earlier than this.

The letter had been placed in the wooden box for incoming mail and had slipped into the space between the box and the door. It took six years for the letter to get eighteen inches.

Fortunately, the contents of the letter were only the name and address of an alumnus, Albert Sidney Cowden, a graduate of the School of Law in 1888, who had not changed his address since the secretary, William G. Beck, had been notified the previous year. Mr. Cowden's address, Springfield, Mo., is still the same.

U. S. ACTION HINGES ON GENERAL'S WORD

Pershing's Communications Menaced by Massing of Troops at Pass Near Dublin—Report May Cut Loss.

MEXICO CITY, June 24.—Reports from the Republic of Guatemala, adjoining Mexico on the south, that the country is preparing to declare war on Mexico if Carranza begins hostilities with the United States, caused excitement here tonight. The reports were denied by official representatives of the Guatemalan government.

Dr. Toledo Lopez, Guatemalan revolutionary leader, announced that he would invade Mexico with a well equipped army attacking the rich state of Yucatan simultaneously with the attack by the Americans on the north. He says the whole Guatemalan army of 85,000 would join him.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 24.—Dispatches from General Pershing to the field telegraph stations tonight of the battle at Carrizal may spell peace or war for the American troops massed and ready for any eventuality. If further reports from Pershing confirm the stories of negro troopers who escaped from the massacre that the two companies of the Tenth Cavalry were led into a trap by the Carranza general, Gomez, officers here at the army post say there can be nothing but war.

COLUMBUS, N. M., June 24.—Several thousand Carranzistas tonight are reported to be massing back of Carrizal Pass, commanding the American communication lines north of Dublin, Mexico.

COLUMBUS, N. M., June 24.—A new report from General Pershing on the Carrizal fight is understood to reduce considerably the seriousness of the American losses. It is believed to have been forwarded to General Funston tonight.
