The lodge today unanimously passed the following resolution:

"Whereas, the local press of the city has been so liberal in space and generous in sentiment in giving publicity to the good things we have done and are doing, and

"Whereas, by giving such publicity, the press materially helps the race in the efforts for greater influence, and

"Therefore, we, in grand lodge assembled do most heartily thank the press for the fair treatment of our effort to worthy citizenship.

Approved unanimously.

better work and working conditions. What will be the next step should the President fail to get the agreement of the presidents to his proposals was not disclosed.

Dramatic events have followed rapidly during the last two days.

Never in the history of American labor has the President met so many representatives of industry, attempting to solve a crisis.

A gathering of the presidents, which is scheduled for 2 o'clock, is itself the biggest of its kind ever held. Never for any purpose of their own have so many of the railroad heads assembled.
