UNIVERSITY "Y" IS BUSY MOTHERING M.U. "FROSH"

The University Y. M. C. A., following its annual custom, is doing a large part of the work of making freshmen feel at home as they arrive in Columbia for their first year as University students.

Get-together meetings have been held each evening for the past week in the association building. Heading the student work this year for the Y. M. C. A. is a committee of students known as the promotion committee, with Gardner Smith at its head. Plans are to have at least 100 men connected with the work of the organization through this committee.

Student Activities Planned.
 Activities for several weeks have already been planned. On September 23 the annual stag will be held in the association building. On September 25 the first meeting of the Monday Night Forum will be held with President A. Ross Hill, Dean Walter Miller, as speakers. The annual reception of the President and the Deans of the University will be on September 30. Sunday, October 8, will be known as Student Sunday in all the churches of Columbia, when special programs of interest to students will be given and a special effort made to induce the students to identify themselves with the different churches.

Demands among the students for work are greater this year than ever before, according to Secretary J. S. Moore of the Y. M. C. A. More than 250 applications have been received from new students. The shortage in jobs is due to the fact that the student body is fast growing past the capacity of the city for furnishing work.

Rooms Are Plentiful.
 Rooms for rent, on the other hand, are more plentiful than ever. Where, in former years, it was difficult to secure a satisfactory room after the first day of registration, landlords in many desirable locations announce that they have excellent rooms unoccupied.

Several large rooming houses have been opened this year. The Y. M. C. A. capacity of eighty-one men is taxed to its limit, according to Secretary Moore.

New Assistant for Y. M. C. A.
 L. R. Capehart, alumnus of Hanover College, Hanover, Ind., has taken the position of assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Capehart comes here from the Crawfordsville, Ind., Y. M. C. A. His work in that city was preceded by one year's service in the Chicago association. He will do graduate work in sociology in the University.

BRITISH BLACKLIST NEEDN'T WORRY U. S.

So Says European Market Investigator for This Country.

BY JOHN H. HEARLEY
 (United Press Staff Correspondent)
 ROME, Sept. 20.—"British blacklists and other economic and industrial measures needn't worry the American business men," said Clarence W. Moomaw, European investigator of markets for the United States Department of Agriculture, here today.

Moomaw's investigations in England, France, Switzerland and Italy are the basis for his statement. Later he will visit Russia, the Scandinavian countries and Spain.

Moomaw is one of many agents in Europe making plans to protect America's future commercial relations with Europe. Special investigation is being made into the exportation of American grains, livestock and cotton. The department probably will establish permanent agencies in the principal European cities after the war to see that American interests are protected and furthered. Plans are being made to overcome England's discriminatory freight rates in favor of herself and her allies and to the disadvantage of enemy and neutral nations. It is said that now, because the grain must be shipped in British bottoms, wheat bought at one price in the United States is sold to Britain and her allies by British carriers at five times less than it is sold to Switzerland and other neutral countries.

An attempt is being made to establish direct trade relations between the United States and Italy. As it now is, Italy must buy, for instance, all her cotton through Liverpool agents, thus permitting the British to control the Italian-American trade.

The secret of how America is to overcome these difficulties, at least in part, is the investment of American capital in European countries and the establishment of American banking facilities. The National City Bank of New York already has taken steps in this direction in Milan and Genoa. The Americans are the only people the Italians do not fear politically. Before the war Germany was a big factor in Italy's commercial life. The Italians say it never will be so again. Italy now really is a commercial orphan, inasmuch as many Italians fail to see any advantage in further indebtedness to the British.

Wants Law to Stop Blacklist.
 By United Press.

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 20.—Representative Avellaneda is waging a vigorous fight in the Argentine congress for the passage of a bill, introduced by himself, prohibiting in this country all commercial practices of the nature involved in the British blacklist of enemy firms in business in foreign countries. For violations of the proposed prohibition, the bill provides a maximum fine of 2,000 pesos—$880—imprisonment up to six months and cancellation of the offending firm's charter to transact business in the country. Avellaneda is ex-speaker of the Argentine house of representatives and one of the most influential of its members. His bill is considered to stand an excellent chance of adoption.

PLAN "BABY BARRELS" OF APPLES
 Fruit Company Wins Missouri Favor for Packing 1½ Bushel Lots.

The Missouri apple, winner of international honors at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, will shortly be marketed directly from the grower to the consumer in "baby barrels," according to claims by the Federal Fruit and Cold Storage Company of New Orleans and St. Louis.

The "baby barrel" holds half a barrel, which is equal to one and a half bushels. It was recently adopted as the standard pack for six hundred acres of orchards near Macon, Mo., in competition with the three bushel barrel and the box.

123 Football Suits Out.

The athletic department checked out 123 football suits yesterday and last night. About 70 of these went to the varsity squad while the freshmen squad received the others. Director Brewer expects to give out more suits this afternoon and tomorrow.
