NOW THE RUSH IS OVER THE FALL PARTIES BEGIN

Miss Rosemary Rollins Who Has Been Entertained Extensively in Columbia Recently.

It is always open season for guests in Columbia society—even Lent has been known to give way to the equally sacred rites of hospitality,—and just now there are no restrictions as to the number of affairs one visitor may bag. There is a certain delight in entertaining for a guest, as one hostess is said to have remarked: "Strangers you entertain because you don't know them yet, and friends because you do." For latter reason perhaps, Miss Rosemary Rollins has been widely feted during the week among the town folk here. Now comes Mrs. J. M. Hearn, who will be remembered as Miss Clara Thompson by the University, to visit Mrs. Jones. Also it is said Catherine Hinton will be down from Chicago before long to furnish another motive for festivity.

All news cannot be good news, and it is a lagubrious fact that Caroline Jesse and Mary Louise Brown left Friday night. Miss Jesse goes back to Baltimore, and Miss Brown is off for Smith College.

Rushing is finally over—all the spikes out and the new members in-under cover as it were. Have you ever noticed that rushing is rather like the European war? Everybody always wins. We are almost certain that if Diogenes ever found his honest fellow he wasn't a fraternity man, and it is known that he never looked for a woman. In the sororities, rushing this year was a strictly onesided affair—we are fast becoming feminists—and no men were allowed. One reactionary was heard to mutter that with things as they were she could not tell whether parties were negatively a bore or positively a pain.

People may wonder just who was surprised at the surprise dance given at the home of Mrs. E. Sidney Stephens Tuesday night. As a matter of fact it was the hostess herself who was taken aback when she came home from the movie show to find the quiet house which she had left, brilliantly illuminated, an orchestra playing, and refreshments being served to more than thirty-five couples, who joyfully bade her welcome to her own formal ball. This was the climax to a number of impractical jokes which had been in vogue during the week, by, with, for, and from Miss Rollins and her friends.

Other affairs in honor of Miss Rosemary Rollins and Mrs. H. B. Rollins this week were; a luncheon given by Miss Margaret Rollins at her home Grasslands, on Providence road; a bridge party at Mrs. E. Sidney Stephens and a dinner at the Pi Beta Phi house. Sunday, Thursday and Tuesday nights were taken up with dinners given by Mrs. Stephens.

Mrs. H. B. Rollins and daughter, Miss Rosemary Rollins, left last night for New York City, where Miss Rollins will attend Miss Semple's School.

and Mrs. J. C. Holloway, Miss Betty Ransome, and Mrs. Taylor.

Open houses last night were held at the Kappa Kappa Gamma, Kappa Alpha Theta, Alpha Phi and Chi Omega houses.

Yesterday afternoon the Delta Tau Delta fraternity gave an open house in honor of Stephens College girls. A freshman dinner party will be given today at the house.

The Phi Kappa Psi pledges will give a banquet tonight in honor of the older members of the fraternity. The Columbia alumni present will be, Dr. O. M. Stewart, Dr. R. H. Baker, G. B. Colburn, D. O. Bayless and I. E. Norris.

The Acacia fraternity will entertain a number of Masonic students of the University at dinner today.

Thomas Fristoe Chapter of the United States Daughters of 1812 met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Hale, 420 Price avenue. Mrs. J. N. Belcher was leader and read a paper on "How Dolly Madison Saved the Declaration of Independence." Mrs. Belcher was assisted by Mrs. Eugenia Gentry and Mrs. E. W. Stephens. The following officers were elected for the year: Miss Pearl Mitchell, regent; Mrs. Charles Hale, secretary. Other members present were Mrs. N. T. Gentry, Mrs. John N. Taylor, Mrs. J. H. Laughlin, Mrs. E. A. Allen, Mrs. John D. Lawson, Mrs. Orville Barnett and Mrs. John T. Mitchell.

The Beta Theta Pi fraternity will give a dinner party to-day for Mrs. W. T. Stephenson.
