

Society

Columbia has spun dizzily in a widening circle of clubs, conventions, dances, picnics, football games, teas and dinners. The stranger is within the gates, and Friday night Washington rooters applauded for encores at the dances almost as joyfully as they cheered for their team Saturday afternoon. All the fraternity houses were filled with guests, and they do say that the sleeping arrangements resembled some of the hardships our boys endured at the border. In addition to all the "inside stuff" of entertainment, Nature and Company, the original moving picture artists, are offering a spectacular scenic film this month in their twelve-reel serial, "The Seasons." The picture has a thirty day's run, and society has flocked to the afternoon matinee. Almost every day gay parties go motoring out to the country side. And, judging generally from the lunch baskets, the call of the wild is also a call to dinner.

Out-of-town guests have been the occasion of much of the town festivity. Mrs. D. W. Shackelford, wife of Congressman Shackelford, has been the guest of Miss Pearle Mitchell. Congressman and Mrs. Shackelford will go to Washington early in the fall. Sunday evening Miss Mitchell entertained a few of Mrs. Shackelford's friends with an al fresco supper at Forest Farm. Monday night Mrs. Shackelford was the guest of honor at a small dinner given by Mrs. J. C. Whitten.

Mrs. T. O. Robinson entertained with a tea Tuesday for Mrs. and Miss Dallmeyer of Jefferson City.

Mrs. George Evans was hostess at a large tea Thursday afternoon for her sister, Mrs. H. L. Dawes of New York, formerly Miss Lucile Prewitt of Columbia. Her husband is a graduate of the University.

Thursday afternoon Miss Eva Johnston entertained with a tea in honor of Mrs. George Hearn and Mrs. C. W. Leaphart. Mrs. Hearn is the house guest of Mrs. J. C. Jones.

Mrs. J. C. Jones was hostess at a dinner Wednesday night for Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Samsun of New Orleans, who are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller.

Mrs. J. C. Whitten entertained last Tuesday in honor of Mrs. James Waugh and Mrs. Libby Thomas.

Mrs. C. E. Clinkscales was hostess at a family luncheon given at her home on Seward Road.

Mrs. J. C. Jones' country home was the scene of a picnic dinner given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Jones in honor of the October weather and some twenty boys and girls, members of Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pi Beta Phi.

The Fortnightly Club held its opening reception Wednesday afternoon at Read Hall. The regular meetings will begin October 25.

The annual meeting of the fourth district of the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs will meet at Columbia Friday and remain in session until Saturday afternoon. The Fortnightly and Tuesday clubs will be hostesses and many state officers and prominent women from out-of-town will attend. The president, Mrs. W. R. Chivvis, of St. Louis, will make an address at the Friday evening session. Mrs. J. M. Johnson, trustee of the federation endowment fund, will attend the meeting. Miss Mary Semple Scott, managing editor of the Missouri Woman, will also give a talk in connection with the magazine.

Three Columbia women, members of the executive board of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, attended the recent session at Kirksville. They are Miss Pearle Mitchell, Mrs. Charles W. Greene and Mrs. Rosa Ingels. Miss Mitchell, who is chairman of the social and industrial department, will be interested this winter in securing the passage of a bill creating a state board of censors for moving pictures. Another bill in which she is interested is the creating of county homes for neglected boys and girls.

At the next meeting of the Tuesday Club Mrs. St. Clair Moss will give a talk on preparedness.

Kappa Alpha men from Washington University were entertained by their Columbia brothers at a dinner dance at the Virginia Grill Friday night. Twenty Washington rooters are guests at the Kappa Alpha house, and several men from William Jewell and Westminster in town for the game are staying at the house.

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity gave an informal dance at the Virginia Grill Friday night for about one hundred guests, including fifteen visiting Washington University men. The chaperons were Mrs. J. L. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bowling, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Rollins, Mr. and Mrs. E. Sidney Stephens and Mrs. Gussie Smith. Last night the men were entertained at a dinner party and smoker.

At the Alpha Delta Pi reception Friday afternoon in honor of its chaperon, Miss Flora Crouch, the house was decorated with autumn flowers and leaves. An orange and white color scheme predominated, the same idea being carried out in the refreshments. In the receiving line were Miss Zola Myers, Miss Flora Crouch, Miss Eva Johnston, Mrs. A. H. R. Fairchild, Mrs. W. J. Pommer and Mrs. Rutherford. Assisting in the living room were Mrs. Neibert and Mrs. Obener of St. Louis, Mrs. I. J. Holt and Mrs. Oler Hombs. Miss Sybil Pommer assisted in serving.

Delta Tau Delta gave a dinner Friday night for the following guests from St. Louis: Dr. John Lavan and George Sisler of the St. Louis Browns, A. O. Goode, Wilbur Wood and James Craig.

Members of Alpha Tau Omega gave an informal dance for twenty-five couples at the chapter house Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Broadhead were chaperons. Miss Grace Lewis of St. Louis was a guest.

The Alpha Phi sorority is entertaining this week-end Miss Ramona Walters, Miss Irene Sisse and Miss Mary Louise Alexander of St. Louis, former students of the University. Thursday the sorority entertained at dinner Prof. and Mrs. O. D. Kellogg and Prof. and Mrs. W. C. Curtis.

Chi Omega will give a formal dinner for its pledges next Thursday night. Miss Ruth Barnes will be toastmaster. This week-end the local chapter is entertaining Miss Kathryn Longmire and Miss Lucile Riedle of St. Louis, members of the Washington University chapter. Mrs. Mary C. Love Collins, grand president of Chi Omega, was a guest at the chapter house last week. Mrs. J. E. King and Miss Eva Johnston were guests at a dinner given in her honor.

Miss Frances Wendl, Miss Margretha Roth, Miss Katharine McNulty, Miss Jessamine Price, Miss Grace

Threadgill, Miss Margaret House, Miss Alice Johann and Miss Rachel Metcalfe, members of Kappa Alpha Theta at Washington University, are being entertained this week-end by members of the chapter here.

The Phi Mu sorority has as house guest this week-end Miss Eloise Harris of Mexico, Mo. Miss Beth Field, a member of the sorority, is visiting at her home at Slater.

The Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity is entertaining for the Washington game Glen Bruner and Rea Bruner, who are visiting their brother, R. E. Bruner, Jr., and W. P. Jones, an alumnus member of the chapter. Kenneth Sears of Jefferson City and Henry Eversole are also guests. A dinner party will be given today in honor of Mrs. I. B. Hyde, Miss Frances Hyde and Lawrence Hyde of Princeton, Mo., who are house guests this week-end.

A possum hunt was given by the Sigma Chi fraternity Friday night for Washington University visitors at the house.

The Kappa Sigma fraternity gave a smoker last night for members of the Washington University chapter of the fraternity who came to Columbia for the game.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity gave a dinner Friday night for the Washington University rooters who are staying at the house.

Visitors from William Jewell College and Washington University were entertained at dinner last night by the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. Thursday night the freshmen of Phi Gamma Delta gave a dinner for the Sigma Nu freshmen.

The first of the series of informal dances for its pledges was given by the Sigma Nu fraternity Friday night. Members of Sigma Nu at Washington University were guests. Martene W. Corum of Boonville and Oliver Smith of St. Louis were other out-of-town guests. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Niedermeyer were chaperons.
