Miss Miriam Glandon

For three years the University has honor of Mrs. Sidney Rollins. The been without a "Dramatic Quad Club." Several weeks ago three members of the club which produced "The Hundred Dollar Bill," Russel Richards, A. G. Hinman and Walton Holmes decided to revive the organization. Mr. Holmes was elected manager of the new Quad Club and Bernard Hurwitz was made assistant manager. The club is planning to produce the "College Widow" about two weeks after Thanksgiving, with Miss Miriam Glandon as the leading lady.

The Wilson-Hughes race was not closer nor more exciting than the bridge tournament held Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Alex Martin by the "Big Four" and the "Blue Birds." The Big Four, Mrs. Kate Conley, Mrs. Odon Guitart, Mrs. Turner Gordon and Mrs. Alex Martin, have played bridge together once a week for many years, and, as one member said, naturally thought they could defeat the Blue Birds who have practiced for only six years. The "Blue Birds," Miss Eva Johnston, Miss Pearl Mitchell, Mrs. J. D. Lawson and Mrs. Walter Miller, were not so sure of this, and accepted the challenge. When the scores were added it was discovered that the "Blue Birds" had won by 365 points.

Mrs. E. L. Mitchell gave a bridge party Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. H. B. Kline of Chicago. Mrs. Kline was the guest of honor at a luncheon on Friday given by Mrs. L. O. Hockaday. The other guests were Mrs. E. Sidney Stevens, Mrs. Guy L. Noyes, Mrs. Berry McAllister, Mrs. J. P. McBaine, Mrs. Will Conley, Mrs. C. B. Miller, Mrs. C. C. Bowling, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell and Miss Margaret Rollins.
