ALL SEASONS ARE SHOWN AT GREENHOUSE DISPLAY

Columbia can boast of a floral establishment equal to any outside of the big cities of Missouri. And it is being appreciated too, if one may judge from the number of people who are visiting the houses these days when the Chrysanthemum show is on.

Burnam, deceased; the unknown consorts of Mary Hadden, deceased; of Thomas E. Orear, deceased; of John D. Hadden, deceased and of Elizabeth Ashley, deceased, and of each of them respectively, whose names and places of residence can not be inserted in said petition for the reason that they are wholly unknown to this plaintiff; that the claims or interests of said unknown persons in and to the real estate hereinafter described and how such claims or interests are derived to said plaintiff, by force of the unknown consorts, heirs, devisees, donees, assignees or immediate mesne or remote, voluntary or involuntary grantees of John F. Burnam, deceased; and the unknown consorts of Mary Hadden, deceased; of Thomas E. Orear, deceased, and of John D. Hadden, deceased, and of Elizabeth Ashley, deceased, through and by virtue of the following facts and defects in the record title thereto, to-wit: That Thomas Hadden acquired title to Lot One Hundred and seventy-four hereinafter described, on the 21st day of April, 1830, under and by virtue of a warranty deed of that date duly recorded in Book C page 205 of the deed records of Boone County, Missouri, but it nowhere appears of record that the said Thomas Hadden ever parted with or conveyed his said title to said real estate. That Mary Hadden on August 30, 1847, being in possession of the west half of Lot 174 and claiming to own an undivided one-third interest in and to the west one-half of said lot, did on said date convey the same by warranty deed to one Thomas E. Orear, which said deed appears of record in Book R at page 59 of said deed records, but that it does not appear from said deed whether or not the said Mary Hadden was single or married. That on the 8th day of March, 1850, John D. Hadden being in possession of the west one-half of said Lot One Hundred and seventy-four and claiming to own an undivided one-third interest in and to the same, did on said date convey said interest in said Lot by warranty deed to Thomas E. Orear, which said deed appears of record in Book T at page 35 of said deed records, but it nowhere appears of record whether the said John D. Hadden was single or married. That on the 16th day of January, 1860, Thomas E. Orear being in the possession of the west one-half of said Lot One Hundred and seventy-four and claiming to own an undivided one-third interest in said lot, did on said date convey the same to Thomas E. Power, which said deed appears of record in Book V at page 61 of said deed records, but that it does not appear in said deed whether or not the said Thomas E. Orear was single or married. That on the 23rd day of September, 1863, John J. Crittenden and Elizabeth, his wife; Andrew McKinley and Mary, his wife; Edward C. Cabell and Anna Maria, his wife, being the owners and in possession of all the land hereinafter described, attempted and intended to convey a part of said lands by deed to one John McKelway, which said deed appears of record in Book V at page 61 of said deed records, but that the description in said deed was too indefinite to pass the title to said real estate. That on the 13th day of March, 1849, John McKelway and Isabelle, his wife, being in possession of said lands and claiming to own the same attempted and intended to convey a part of said real estate to Alexander J. McKelway by deed of that date, which said deed appears of record in Book "S" page 14 of said deed records, but that the description contained in said deed was too indefinite to pass the title to said real estate. That on the 21st day of May, 1849, Alexander J. McKelway and Mary Ann, his wife, being in possession of said lands and claiming to own the same attempted and intended to convey a part of said lands to one Richard Crowder by deed of that date, which said deed appears of record in Book "R" page 145; but that the description contained in said deed was too indefinite to pass title to said real estate. That on the 15th day of July, 1851, Elizabeth Ashley being in the possession of and claiming to own an interest in said real estate, conveyed a part of said lands by deed to one Thomas E. Powers, which said deed appears of record in Book "U" at page 88 of said deed records, and Boone County, Missouri, but that it does not appear in said deed whether or not the said Elizabeth Ashley was single or married at the time of executing the same. That on the 26th day of August, 1879, Frank Horan and Elizabeth, his wife, being the owners and in possession of said lands, conveyed the same to Robert L. Todd, in trust to secure the payment to John F. Burnam of a certain promissory note in said deed of trust described, which said deed of trust appears of record in Book 16, page 125 of the deed of trust records of Boone County, Missouri; that thereafter the said Frank Horan fully paid and discharged said indebtedness and afterwards, to-wit on February 5, 1890 there appears an attempted release on the margin of the record of said deed of trust which purports to be the release of the said John F. Burnam, but that said release was not properly attested as required by law. And plaintiff further states that the said Thomas Hadden, John J. Crittenden, Elizabeth Crittenden, Andrew McKinley, Mary McKinley, Edward C. Cabell, Anna Maria Cabell, John McKelway, Isabelle McKelway, Alexander J. McKelway, Mary Ann McKelway, John F. Burnam, Mary Hadden, John D. Hadden, Thomas E. Orear and Elizabeth Ashley are all now long since deceased, as he is informed and believes. It is therefore ordered by the Clerk of said court, in vacation, that the said defendants be notified by publication in the plaintiff, by petition herein filed of date November 11, 1916, has commenced against them in the Circuit Court of Boone County, Missouri, an action for the purpose of perfecting the record title to the plaintiff, by limitation, in and to the following described real estate, lying, being and situate in Boone County, Missouri, to-wit: Lot One Hundred and seventy-four (174), and the west one-half (1/2) of Lot One Hundred and seventy-three (173) in the original town, now City of Columbia; and by which said action plaintiff seeks to forever bar and preclude the defendants, and each of them, from setting up any interest or claim in or to said real estate adversely to said plaintiff. It is further ordered that the said defendants be and appear in this court, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be holden at the Court House in the City of Columbia, Boone County, Missouri, on Monday, January 1st, 1917, to answer or plead to said petition, or in default thereof in said petition will be taken against them, and judgment will be rendered against them, in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's petition. It is further ordered that a copy hereof be duly published at least once a week for four weeks successively in the Daily Missourian, a daily newspaper printed, published and circulated in Boone County, Missouri, and designated by plaintiff's attorney as most likely to give notice to said defendants; the last insertion of said order of publication in said newspaper to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next term of said court. A true copy from the record: WITNESS my hand as Clerk of the Circuit Court of Boone County, Missouri, and the seal of said Court. Done at office, in Columbia, Missouri, this 11th day of November, 1916. JAS. E. BOGGS, Clerk. By E. S. POLLARD, Deputy. (SEAL) E. C. Anderson, Atty. for Plff.
