

SHOW NETS $92 TO SUFFERERS
Proceeds of Benefit at Columbia Theater Are for Tornado Fund.

Columbia people showed their willingness to aid the sufferers from the recent tornado by attending the benefit show at the Columbia Theater last night. The proceeds of the show, $92.50, will be added to the fund now being collected for the benefit of the sufferers. The picture, one of the best shown here this year, featured Jack Pickford, the young star of the Famous Players Film Company, as a deaf and dumb detective, who outwits a group of kidnapers and wins a $10,000 reward.

Book Store Reported Sold.

It was reported today that the Campbell and Alexander Book Store, 929 Broadway, had been sold. The owners of the store declined to confirm the sale this afternoon. Clerks are now making an inventory of stock in the store.
