"CIVIC DOCTOR" IS THE LATEST

D. H. McFarland Helps Revive Kansas City Chamber of Commerce. Among the many professions that graduates of the University of Missouri enter has been added that of "civic doctor." D. H. McFarland, who was graduated from the University in 1905, took part in the recent revival of the Chamber of Commerce in Kansas City as campaign manager of the Town Development Company. The Town Development Company is one of few organizations in this country which have for their purpose the building and rebuilding of towns. Mr. McFarland began work as a newspaper man. He then became publicity man for the Town Development Company, and then became its campaign manager. His former home was in Kansas City.

C. E. MEMBERS IN WAR WORK

Presbyterian Society Has Extensive Program Arranged. Caring for an orphan in Belgium, sending newspapers and magazines to the soldiers in Europe and in this country, knitting for the Red Cross and writing letters to the boys in khaki, constitutes the special war work which the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian Church has undertaken. This is in addition to the regular programs of the society and the missionary work carried on annually.

More than $25 have already been pledged toward the support of a Belgium orphan for which $36.50 is necessary. The first contribution was made by Prof. R. H. Baker by telephone as soon as he heard of the project. The society has not yet been informed of the name of the child which is to be supported for a year on money sent from here.

Between 7 and 10 o'clock on Thursday nights and from 1 to 3 o'clock on Saturdays, two sections of Red Cross work will be conducted under the direction of Miss Grace Lynn, chairman of the war relief committee. There are about twenty-five members of the society in each section and considerable work has been planned for the coming winter months. Books and magazines brought to the Christian Endeavor rooms will be forwarded to the soldier camps here or abroad, whether or not they bear the necessary one-cent stamp which some magazines indicate in the upper right-hand corner of the cover is required. Glenn Davis is in charge of this phase of the work and solicits contributions from everyone interested in sending the soldiers good reading material.

High School Students Judge Cattle. Milton H. Fohrman of the dairy department returned Sunday from Independence, Mo. He conducted a dairy cattle judging contest for the high school students of Jackson County at Longview Farm. Teams from eight schools competed, and the cup was won by Raytown.

Gets Big Price For Cattle. W. H. Thomson, four miles north of Columbia, sold twenty-five Hereford steers to Clatterback and Wilson of New Bloomfield today for $10.75 a hundred. The cattle averaged 1,146 pounds making the total receipts almost $3,000.

Bull Sold to Arkansan. An eighteen-months-old Shorthorn bull, belonging to the dairy department of the University, has been sold to W. S. Danner of Clarkdale, Ark. The bull will be used to improve native cattle in that section.

Military Heel Boots

For the additional activities shouldered by women this winter—Red Cross sewing and what not—the practical military and the Cuban leather heel is suggested.

In addition to the smartness of the many styles of which they are part, they afford exceptional comfort in walking. They are advised also for growing girls.

We are showing a wonderful selection in dark brown, tan and black, some with contrasting tops of cloth and buckskin.

Delightful Hosiery and Spats

A plentiful selection of both staple and fancy Silk Hosiery styles in black and colors. A new shipment of dark brown and grey hose.

New high Spats in all the wanted shades of dark brown, grey, taupe, olive drab and khaki.
