SPORT

Special to the Missourian.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 17.—A new Tiger fighting machine that worked consistently through the four quarters defeated the Washington eleven by a score of 19 to 3 on Francis Field this afternoon. The work of Collins, Chittenden, Viner, Stevens and Rider deserves special praise in making possible a victory in the final out-of-town game for Missouri this season and the last conference game before the Jay-hawkers appear on Rollins Field on Thanksgiving Day.

Missouri's touchdowns came in the first and last quarters, Marshall kicking goal after the second touchdown. The first touchdown was made by Viner after seven minutes of play. Collins carried the ball over for the second touchdown in the first quarter but failed in his attempt to kick goal. Viner made the third touchdown at the opening of the fourth quarter.

After holding the Pikers scoreless for three quarters and most of the fourth quarter, Missouri illegally interrupted a Piker forward pass in the last five minutes of play. A drop kick from the 25-yard line, where the ball was placed after the foul by Missouri, gave the Pikers their three points.

A 20-yard successful forward pass which was carried forward 30 yards around the Tigers' right end was the only spectacular play made by the Pikers during the game. Missouri is credited with 24 first downs against 3 for Washington, the Tigers gaining a total of 364 yards by rushes to 34 yards gained by the Pikers.

The Pikers outpunted the Tiger kickers, making 277 yards in eight punts to 185 on six punts by Missouri. Missouri made no successful forward passes, while the Pikers succeeded in three. The Pikers tried in all 11 passes, the Tigers making only 4 attempts. As has been the case in practically all games played by Missouri this year, the Tigers bore the big end of the penalties, losing 85 yards to only 15 against Washington.

The Tiger team was composed almost entirely of second string men at the start of the game. Substitutions made during the game were: Hershel Collins for Rider, Wilson for Mattingly, Mattingly for Hershel Collins, Ewing for Kirkpatrick and Cross for Wilson.

Nebraska Wins Valley Championship.

By Associated Press

LAWRENCE, Kan., Nov. 17.—Nebraska University's football eleven earned a 13 to 3 victory over the University of Kansas team here today, the latter team crumbling before the Nebraska onslaught in the third quarter after having outplayed their opponents and having led them in the scoring, 3 to 0, up to that time.

The game was the second and last the Nebraska team will play with Missouri Valley Conference teams and gives them a clear-cut title to the championship.

Throughout the first half the Kansas line held well and the offensive playing of the Kansans excelled, encouraging the Kansas rooters to hope for a victory. But in the third period the Nebraskans started a grinding drive that netted two touchdowns and swept almost at will through the Kansas line. With the collapse of the line, the Kansas backs lost their ability to dash through for good gains, and they tried the aerial tactics that had stood them in good stead throughout the season.

The Nebraskans were prepared to meet this, however, and not one of the nine forward passes attempted by the Kansans was completed. The manner in which the Kansas line repelled the assaults and the Kansas backs found holes for good gains was the surprise of the game, which had been all but conceded to the Nebraskans.

In the third quarter Kansas gained 89 yards to Nebraska's 62 yards and made four first downs to Nebraska's three. The tide was turned when Cook of Nebraska got away in a stiff-arming 35-yard dash that gave the Lincoln eleven its first touchdown.

MEN PRAISE Y. M. C. A. WORK

Three Letters From Officers Tell of Work Among Soldiers.

The invaluable work that the Y. M. C. A. is doing in the training camps can best be realized, perhaps, in the effect that it has on the men there. Letters received by Hurley S. Daily from men in three camps: Captain George Appleyard at Camp Custer, Mich.; Lieutenant E. R. Bayley at Fort Sheridan, Ill., and William F. Buckner at Camp Funston, Kan.

Lieutenant Bayley says that he has "seen his men leave the barracks in the evening, quarrelsome and complaining, and come home from the Y. M. C. A. at taps whistling a dozen keys but all satisfied with the rough living. I think the Y. M. C. A. with its music, speakers, reading and writing tables and strict regard for good order is the biggest factor for making an army full of pep on the drill ground or in the work every morning."

The Y. M. C. A. and the Catholic buildings furnish the only available religious services for the men. The Y. is also teaching the illiterate and those who understand no English—the best melting pot in the army.

"When we first came to Camp Custer," writes Captain Appleyard, "the only outfit on the job doing business was the Y. M. C. A., and it has kept on the job ever since. It has justified its existence in this one camp alone, it is the home for the enlisted man."

Equally sincere in his praise is William F. Buckner. "The Y. M. C. A. has procured Sunday dinner invitations and motor rides for the boys in towns near here—also serves sandwiches and coffee at midnight when we are in the trenches. It is doing a work which is invaluable in the army and will reflect on the citizenship of the country after the war."

Petrograd Papers Face Crisis.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press)

PETROGRAD, Oct. 15.—The Association of Managers and Editors of Petrograd daily newspapers has published a statement informing newspaper readers that the press may very soon find itself in a critical condition in consequence of the enormous increase in the cost of material and labor, wear and tear of machinery which cannot be replaced, and of the strike in paper mills.

ITALIANS CONTINUE TO HOLD INVADERS

The French commander in charge of the sector has mentioned in dispatches fifteen American officers and soldiers, including three who are killed, for excellent military quality and bravery displayed in the recent trench raid. A note accompanying the citation says that between 8,000 and 10,000 shells were used in the attack which had been in preparation for three months down to the finest details.

The results obtained by the enemy were very small, he being unable to penetrate more than the first-line trenches because of the resistance of the Americans with rifle, pistol and grenades. The enemy had to content himself with carrying off a few prisoners, the report said.

2,000,000 Pounds of Jam to France.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press)

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The British army in France gets nearly 2,000,000 pounds of jam every week from this country. The daily ration of three ounces of cheese calls for a shipment of between 1,000,000 and 2,000,000 pounds weekly, while the daily ration of just over half an ounce of tea absorbs over 500,000 pounds each week.
