

PANORAMIC VIEW OF BUSINESS SECTION OF COLUMBIA

Photograph Taken From Top of Miller Building.

TELLS WHAT GUILD CAN DO IN WAR WORK

J. Breckenridge Ellis Opens First Meeting of Journalism Week With Talk.

IN SESSION ALL DAY

Missouri Writers Addressed by Noted State Authors—C. G. Ross Speaks.

The work of the Missouri Writer's Guild is to lend advice, to teach patience, to encourage those who have aspirations to write...

He said "our work in this world war is to mould public opinion and to instill hope. Lee Shippey's poems stir the blood and clear the brain."

He said that the Missouri Writer's Guild is different from other organizations in that its members do not have to actually write, they only have to aspire to it.

This is the fourth annual meeting of the Missouri Writer's Guild. The reports of the secretary treasurer, Floyd C. Shoemaker, were read.

The lecture by Charles G. Ross on "Literary Adventures in the Antipodes" which was to have been given this afternoon was transferred to the morning program.

Mr. Ross said that the Australians take literature seriously and that they do everything thoroughly.

According to the speaker, the two best known writers in Australia are Harry Kendall and Adam Lindsay Gordon. Gordon being perhaps the better known.

John D. Hagan, 57 years old, died of Bright's disease early this morning at his home, 306 North Ninth street.

John D. Hagan, 57 years old, died of Bright's disease early this morning at his home, 306 North Ninth street.

John D. Hagan, 57 years old, died of Bright's disease early this morning at his home, 306 North Ninth street.

John D. Hagan, 57 years old, died of Bright's disease early this morning at his home, 306 North Ninth street.

John D. Hagan, 57 years old, died of Bright's disease early this morning at his home, 306 North Ninth street.

John D. Hagan, 57 years old, died of Bright's disease early this morning at his home, 306 North Ninth street.

ARMY SCHOOL HERE FOR DRAFTED MEN

Training in Mechanics Will Be Conducted at University for 320 Soldiers.

TWO MONTHS' COURSE

No Barracks so the Students Probably Will Live in Gymnasium.

The University will conduct a school of mechanics for drafted men beginning about June 15.

FEW TICKETS LEFT

Sale for Made-In-Wartime Banquet Is Unusually Large This Year.

The demand for tickets to the Made-in-Wartime Banquet to be given Friday night as the closing event of Journalism Week has been unusually large.

The program of addresses for the banquet will be completed by tomorrow. Besides M. Antonin Barthelmy, French consul at Chicago, it was announced today that John T. Harding of Kansas City, Wilbur Nesbit of Chicago and Charles A. Sumner of Kansas City would speak.

Many more flags arrived today for the display to be shown at the banquet.

TO INVESTIGATE GRAFT

President Orders Inquiry Into Charges Against Aircraft Production.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—An investigation by the Department of Justice of the graft charges in aircraft production, made by Gutzon Borglum, the sculptor, was ordered today by President Wilson.

Borglum's charges of pro-German influence also will be investigated. A demand for a criminal investigation had already been made by the Senate.

DEATH OF JOHN D. HAGAN

He Came to Columbia From Excelsior Springs.

John D. Hagan, 57 years old, died of Bright's disease early this morning at his home, 306 North Ninth street, after an illness of several months.

Mr. Hagan was born in Kentucky, March 19, 1861. He lived in Oklahoma several years before moving to Excelsior Springs last fall. The body will be taken tomorrow to Wilton, Mo., where burial will be in the Goshen Cemetery.

Besides a wife, he is survived by three daughters, Stella and Hattie Hagan of Columbia and Mrs. Robert Cook of Midway; and three sons, L. T. Hagan, Earl Hagan and John D. Hagan, Jr., all of Columbia.

MRS. LAURA M. REES DIES

Was Daughter of Ed. Perine, Who Was Killed in Coal Mine.

Mrs. Laura M. Rees died of puerperal fever at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at her home 209 St. Joseph street. She was the daughter of Ed. Perine who was killed several months ago by a ledge of rock falling on him in a coal mine.

OVER LOAN QUOTA MORE THAN $125,000

Present Total of $674,150 in Boone Will Be Materially Increased.

4,017 BUYERS LISTED

Reports of Saturday's Sales in Country Yet to Be Figured In.

Boone County's quota $549,150 Previously reported $651,850 Added Saturday 22,500 Total $674,150

Columbia's quota $203,500 Previously reported $253,950 Added Saturday 8,500 Total $262,450

With Saturday's sales through banks outside of Columbia yet to be counted in, the official total of subscriptions to the Third Liberty Loan in Boone County is now $674,150.

The total number of subscribers in Boone County is now listed as 4,017, and in Columbia as 1,297.

Subscriptions by Columbians not previously announced are as follows: W. A. Watson 100 W. C. Gibbs 50 E. H. Bugg 50 George W. Whiting (additional) 100 H. W. Hibbard (additional) 100 Charles Wilson Greene 100 Helen H. Greene 50 P. F. Trowbridge 100 W. H. Baker 50 F. L. Graves 100 C. S. Walker 100 Mrs. Bettie Hall 50 A. B. Artis 50 F. W. Smith 50 Frances Carter 50 Proctor Carter 50 Nelson C. Tisdell 50 Sallie Love Banks 50

Negro Is Fined for Stealing. Henry Fuller, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for breaking into Roberts' shop and taking a suit of clothes and several pairs of shoes.

Negro Is Fined for Stealing. Henry Fuller, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for breaking into Roberts' shop and taking a suit of clothes and several pairs of shoes.

Negro Is Fined for Stealing. Henry Fuller, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for breaking into Roberts' shop and taking a suit of clothes and several pairs of shoes.

Negro Is Fined for Stealing. Henry Fuller, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for breaking into Roberts' shop and taking a suit of clothes and several pairs of shoes.

Negro Is Fined for Stealing. Henry Fuller, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for breaking into Roberts' shop and taking a suit of clothes and several pairs of shoes.

Negro Is Fined for Stealing. Henry Fuller, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for breaking into Roberts' shop and taking a suit of clothes and several pairs of shoes.

Negro Is Fined for Stealing. Henry Fuller, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for breaking into Roberts' shop and taking a suit of clothes and several pairs of shoes.

Negro Is Fined for Stealing. Henry Fuller, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for breaking into Roberts' shop and taking a suit of clothes and several pairs of shoes.

Negro Is Fined for Stealing. Henry Fuller, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for breaking into Roberts' shop and taking a suit of clothes and several pairs of shoes.

Negro Is Fined for Stealing. Henry Fuller, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for breaking into Roberts' shop and taking a suit of clothes and several pairs of shoes.

Negro Is Fined for Stealing. Henry Fuller, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for breaking into Roberts' shop and taking a suit of clothes and several pairs of shoes.

Negro Is Fined for Stealing. Henry Fuller, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court this morning for breaking into Roberts' shop and taking a suit of clothes and several pairs of shoes.

WE CELEBRATE OUR TENTH ANNIVERSARY

The Evening Missourian, with this issue, celebrates the tenth anniversary of the founding of the newspaper and the School of Journalism.

The Evening Missourian, formerly the University Missourian, was started, not to conflict with or supplant any publication, but to furnish a laboratory, a clinic, a practice school for future newspaper men and women.

One hundred forty-two graduates of the School of Journalism are now scattered over the earth. Twenty-nine more expect to receive their diplomas this June.

The University of Missouri was the first university in America to establish a School of Journalism. Several universities have followed its example.

Since the opening of the School of Journalism, the University has been broadened by the establishment of new schools and departments, by the building of almost an entire new campus, by a large increase in the number of faculty members and by notable improvement of the standard of work.

Columbia has made wonderful progress since Volume 1, Number 1 of this paper was published. It has made greater progress in these ten years than in any other decade in its history.

From a city of 5,000 with 4 miles of paved streets it has grown to a city of 12,000 with 22 miles of pavement. All the points which distinguish Columbia, the Athens of Missouri, from other cities its size in Missouri have been acquired in the last ten years.

The progress of the University of Missouri and the progress of Columbia have played an important part in the progress of the School of Journalism and of the Evening Missourian.

The progress of the University of Missouri and the progress of Columbia have played an important part in the progress of the School of Journalism and of the Evening Missourian.

The progress of the University of Missouri and the progress of Columbia have played an important part in the progress of the School of Journalism and of the Evening Missourian.

The progress of the University of Missouri and the progress of Columbia have played an important part in the progress of the School of Journalism and of the Evening Missourian.

The progress of the University of Missouri and the progress of Columbia have played an important part in the progress of the School of Journalism and of the Evening Missourian.

The progress of the University of Missouri and the progress of Columbia have played an important part in the progress of the School of Journalism and of the Evening Missourian.

The progress of the University of Missouri and the progress of Columbia have played an important part in the progress of the School of Journalism and of the Evening Missourian.

The progress of the University of Missouri and the progress of Columbia have played an important part in the progress of the School of Journalism and of the Evening Missourian.

The progress of the University of Missouri and the progress of Columbia have played an important part in the progress of the School of Journalism and of the Evening Missourian.

The progress of the University of Missouri and the progress of Columbia have played an important part in the progress of the School of Journalism and of the Evening Missourian.

The progress of the University of Missouri and the progress of Columbia have played an important part in the progress of the School of Journalism and of the Evening Missourian.

The progress of the University of Missouri and the progress of Columbia have played an important part in the progress of the School of Journalism and of the Evening Missourian.

THE WEATHER

For Columbia and Vicinity: Unsettled weather, with showers this afternoon, tonight and probably Tuesday; not much change in temperature.

For Missouri: Unsettled weather tonight and Tuesday; probably showers; cooler northwest portion to night.

The weather this morning is unsettled and somewhat stormy in most of the territory between the Mississippi River and Rocky Mountains; and during the past 24 hours showers fell in the upper Missouri drainage area and continue this morning throughout the Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, embracing parts of Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Oklahoma, and most of Eastern Texas.

The rains were heavy in Oklahoma and Southern Kansas, amounts varying between one and two inches in the latter to near four inches in the former state.

The weather is somewhat cooler in the northwestern states than it was two days since, but temperatures differ but little from the seasonal average anywhere.

In Columbia unsettled and showery weather will prevail during the next 36 hours.

The highest temperature in Columbia yesterday was 79; and the lowest last night was 66. Rainfall 0.00. Relative humidity noon yesterday was 55 per cent. A year ago yesterday the highest temperature was 57 and the lowest was 35. Rainfall 0.00.

The Temperatures Today. 7 a. m. 65 11 a. m. 63 8 a. m. 67 12 noon 65 9 a. m. 62 1 p. m. 65 10 a. m. 64 2 p. m. 69

Victor Morgan Will Give First Night Address of Journalism Week.

TUESDAY, MAY 7 9 a. m., Switzer Hall. A. B. Chapin, of the Republic, St. Louis, on "The Place and Purpose of the Cartoon."

Lee Shippey, of the Star, Kansas City, on "Country Newspapers as Seen from the City."

Mrs. Olivia Barton Strohm, of the Critchfield & Co. Advertising Agency, Chicago, on "Women's Work in Advertising."

2 p. m., Switzer Hall. Mrs. S. E. Lee, of the Reporter, Savannah; Mrs. F. L. Stufflebaum, of the Herald, Bolivar, and Mrs. Martha Jewett Wright, of the Democrat, Shelby, on "Rural Journalism as a Field for Women."

4 p. m., Switzer Hall. Missouri Intercollegiate Press Association, G. W. Lacy, of the Drury Mirror, Springfield, presiding.

4 to 6 p. m., Missouri Union. Reception by Theta Sigma Phi, journalism sorority, for all attending Journalism Week.

7:15 p. m., University Auditorium. Concert by University Band. Paul W. Brown, of The West at Work, St. Louis, on "Missouri's New Place on the World Map."

Victor Morgan, of the Press, Cleveland, Ohio, on "Journalism Over There."

A newspaper man who has just returned from the Western Front will tell of the conditions in France in the University Auditorium tomorrow night, the first night session of Journalism Week. This speaker will be Victor Morgan, of the Cleveland Press, who will have for his subject, "Journalism Over There."

Mr. Morgan is not primarily a war correspondent, but went to France with a view of studying conditions there that his paper might handle war news more intelligently.

Mr. Morgan a few years ago tried the plan of building a staff on his paper from graduates of schools of journalism over the country.

Columbia people will remember Mr. Brown, the speaker from St. Louis. He has many friends in this city and was the chief speaker at the annual banquet of the Commercial Club a few years ago.

Mr. Morgan will be "Missouri's New Place on the World Map."

BRITISH PUSH AHEAD ALONG SOMME FRONT

Gain Is Made Over Considerable Line Southwest of Morlancourt.

BOCHE ATTACK FAILS

On Flanders Sector Repulse of Anglo-French Forces Is Reported.

LONDON, May 6.—The British line has been advanced on a considerable front between the Somme and Ancres rivers, southwest of Morlancourt, says the official statement from Field Marshal Haig's headquarters today.

British positions in the neighborhood of Locon and the Lave River on the southerly leg of the Lys salient in Flanders, have been improved as a result of local fighting.

Local German Attack Repulsed. PARIS, May 6.—After an intense bombardment, the Germans last night attempted a local attack near Anchin Farm southeast of Amiens. Today's official statement says the enemy was completely repulsed.

GERMANS TAKE 300 PRISONERS. BERLIN (via London) May 5. (Sunday).—A repulse of Anglo-French forces on the Flanders battle front was reported by the War Office today. More than 300 prisoners were reported captured on the front. Increased artillery activity south of the Somme was announced.

Ball From Prisoners Is Found Injected With Poisonous Substance. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.) PARIS, April 19.—The Germans are credited in reports received here with injecting asphyxiating gas in letters sent home by prisoners in camps in Germany. A woman recently was ill several days after opening a letter from a French prisoner in Germany.

On the same day it is said another woman received a letter also containing poison gas from her husband who was in a camp in Bavaria. Other cases have been reported.

TO ADDRESS SENIORS President of N. Y. Post Will Give Commencement Address June 5.

Oswald Garrison Villard, president of the New York Evening Post, will deliver the commencement address at the University Wednesday, June 5. Mr. Villard, one of the noted journalists of this country, was chosen because this commencement will mark the close of the tenth year of the School of Journalism.

Mr. Villard has spoken at previous Journalism Weeks in Columbia. He is the grandson of William Lloyd Garrison, the abolitionist. He is a graduate of Harvard University and received a doctor's degree from Washington and Lee University. For two years he taught history in Harvard University. Later he was employed on the staff of the Philadelphia Press. From the Press he went to the New York Evening Post as an editorial writer. He is the author of many magazine articles and historical works.

RUNAWAY CAUSES DEATH Green E. Easley, 74 Years Old, Dies From Injuries.

Green E. Easley, 74 years old, died at his home in the north part of town at 6 o'clock last night from injuries received in an accident March 3. His team ran off of a culvert and his right leg was broken when the wagon turned over. Complications which resulted proved fatal.

Mr. Easley was born in Boone County, February 14, 1844. Besides a wife, he leaves two daughters, Mrs. H. F. Jones of Columbia and Mrs. Ben Goodson of Paris, Mo. Burial will be in the Columbia Cemetery tomorrow.

Green E. Easley, 74 Years Old, Dies From Injuries. Green E. Easley, 74 years old, died at his home in the north part of town at 6 o'clock last night from injuries received in an accident March 3.

Green E. Easley, 74 Years Old, Dies From Injuries. Green E. Easley, 74 years old, died at his home in the north part of town at 6 o'clock last night from injuries received in an accident March 3.

Green E. Easley, 74 Years Old, Dies From Injuries. Green E. Easley, 74 years old, died at his home in the north part of town at 6 o'clock last night from injuries received in an accident March 3.

Green E. Easley, 74 Years Old, Dies From Injuries. Green E. Easley, 74 years old, died at his home in the north part of town at 6 o'clock last night from injuries received in an accident March 3.

Green E. Easley, 74 Years Old, Dies From Injuries. Green E. Easley, 74 years old, died at his home in the north part of town at 6 o'clock last night from injuries received in an accident March 3.