McDONNELL'S INJURIES SERIOUS

Real Estate Man Was Hurt in Fight With Joseph Lyon.

According to a statement today by Dr. S. D. Smith, there is no improvement in the condition of E. B. McDonnell, real estate dealer, who was injured in an altercation with Joseph Lyon, a contractor.

Doctor Smith said that McDonnell is suffering an injury to the spinal cord, and it will be probably about two weeks before any prediction can be made as to the outcome of the injury.

Emmett McDonnell, a brother of the injured man, said today that the trouble between his brother and Lyon arose from a dispute over the payment of a bill for a concrete walk which Lyon had built. McDonnell was the agent for the piece of property in front of which the walk was built.

After work had been started on the walk he and Lyon made an agreement that Lyon was to build the walk subject to the approval of the owner, who McDonnell says assured Lyon that he would pay the bill. McDonnell says that his brother corresponded with the owner, who instructed him to pay Lyon out of the rent money received from the building. He says Lyon agreed to this proposition.

McDonnell says that Friday evening Lyon and his daughter drove up in front of his home and that Lyon began abusing and swearing at him. He told him to come back later. As he turned to leave he says that Lyon struck him in the back of the neck.

Joseph Lyon said today that McDonnell told him to put in the sidewalk and that he would see that it was paid for.

"About a month ago he told me he would pay me when the rent on the house was paid. I heard nothing further from him. Friday my daughter and I drove by McDonnell's home. I ask McDonnell if he had ever received the rent. He said, 'no not all of it.'"

"A few words were interchanged, and I finally told him that he must pay the bill, which amounted to $18. He refused to pay the bill, and I took hold of him and shook him. He grabbed me by the collar and in the scuffle turned his head a little to one side, and I struck him over the right ear. He started toward the house, saying, 'You wait until I get my gun and I will come back and teach you something.'"

Forrest Boggs Buys Residence.

Mrs. G. R. Kaser of Willis avenue has sold her house on North Third street to Forrest Boggs for $2,000.
