AT THE THEATERS

Columbia—Tonight and Saturday: "The Double Dyeed Deceiver," with Jack Pickford in the role of the Llano Kid, is the main attraction at the Columbia Theater for tonight and tomorrow. It is taken from the O. Henry story of the same name wherein the Llano Kid, known throughout Texas as a "bad" hombre has fled to the east coast of South America because of his indiscreet use of a revolver in a gambling house. While there he enthusiastically welcomes the plan to rob one of the wealthy residents of the town.

There will also be a Mutt and Jeff comedy and a Pathe News.
Hall—Friday and Saturday: In February, 1918, there was presented on the New York stage a play called "The Copperhead." It created a stir. "The Copperhead" has been made into picture with Lionel Barrymore cast in the same part that he took in the spoken drama. Critics have proclaimed it a great picture. "The Copperhead" opens a two-day engagement at the Hall Theatre tonight and there will be a matinee as usual tomorrow. "Fatty" Arbuckle in his latest comedy, "The Haysseed" will be an added attraction.

THE informal dance at the country club is not so informal that you can afford to wear a collar you are not sure of.
