TIGERS LOSE FINAL GAME

Only Defeat of Season Suffered at Hands of Kansas Aggies, 32 to 24.

The Tiger basketball players are the 1921 champions, but not all-victorious. Their record was marred Saturday night when the final game of the year the Kansas Aggie five administered their first defeat, 32-24. The result was merely a case of history repeating itself, as it was the same team which beat Dr. W. E. Maxwell's championship quintet last year at Manhattan after 17 victories had been checked up on the credit side of the ledger.

There can be no denying the fact that the Aggie men played better than the Tigers for the greater part of the game. They outplayed the Missourians who were plainly in the slump. Undoubtedly the psychology of the situation was too much for the Old Gold and Black five. They did not play particularly poor basketball, but the Aggies played a superior game. As the Aggie coach of the opposition expressed it, "My men played real basketball for the first time this season." The Cornell brothers starred on defense. One or the other was constantly guarding the star player Williams at center for the Tigers, who was held without a field basket for the second time this season. Burger, the Manhattan "Ace," was at his best and his six field goals and as many fouls, were the largest contributing factors in the defeat of the champions.

The defeat was no disgrace yet with a perfect score, and a new Valley record being set, it was unfortunate that they could not come through in the final game. Had they accomplished this feat, undoubtedly they would have deserved the title of "The greatest team the Valley ever turned out."

The Missourians were in trouble from the opening whistle. The Aggies struck a speedy stride and unfortunately for the local tribe, maintained it throughout the game. At half time they were leading by 6 points. The Tigers sputtered dangerously with but 7 minutes to play, but the Aggies came through with several classy shots and the possibility of a clean state was lost.

The Aggies are popular in Columbia. Their fast clean play came in for a great share of admiration from Missouri fans. They are true sportsmen, playing the game hard but fairly, and there is no doubt but what the Tigers would rather have lost to their any other team in the Valley.

Saturday afternoon. The game was somewhat slow due to the fact that a high wind swept the field all afternoon. Neither team played at its best and both showed a weakness at the bat. Few good hits were registered throughout the game.

"Red" Laramore, who played with the scrubs, was practically the only man to get more than two real hits.
Before the game began the time was taken up in hitting and bunting practice. Then the team was given a little infield practice, while the pitchers were warming up.

HAMILTON STAR OF CARNIVAL

Missourian Sets New Record for Septathlon; Maxwell Second in Dash.

Competing against one of the fastest fields ever assembled for an indoor track and field meet, Missouri athletes, four in number, carried the Old Gold and Black to the fore with flying colors at the Illinois Relay Carnival at Champaign Saturday. The feature performance of the evening was the mark set by Brutus Hamilton in the septathlon, the all-around event, America's greatest athlete won this event and broke the meet record by 254 points. To do this it was necessary for him to win first place in the pole vault, shot put and 75 yard dash.

The defeat of Osborne, the Illinois all-around athlete was considerable of a blow to his supporters who had hoped him to win in this, his favorite event. It was evident after Hamilton had won three of the first four events, that he would not be headed unless something unexpected thwarted his efforts. He took second place in the broad jump, third in the high hurdles and finished well in the half mile and high jump.

Maxwell, Missouri's middle distance speedster, took second place in the 600-yard dash. Donohue, Illinois fastest 600-yard man, won the event over Maxwell by a few feet. "Fuzzy" Williams found a fast field lined up against him in the low hurdles, but managed to edge out fourth Missouri entry, was crowded out by the stiff competition afforded. Neither Hart nor Williams was able to qualify in the running broad jump.

One of the surprises of the evening was the sensational running of the Pennsylvania University quartet in the one-mile University relay which they won by 30 yards in 3 minutes, 25 seconds over Michigan and Chicago their nearest opponents.

What Representative Students Think

Ten minutes after I arrived in Columbia the Y. M. C. A. started to help me. It has been helping me ever since. It is a representative student organization deserving of the support of everyone.
FRED ELDEAN,

The Greeks gave the world the ideal of a balanced life. Accepting this ideal, the Y. M. C. A. attempts to give poise to student life of Missouri University by developing a phase of life left untouched by other organizations of the campus.
