

Yea, Tigers! They're Coming Home!

Banker, the Captain.

Every effort is being made to make this year's Homecoming a memorable event in the history of the University of Missouri. Elaborate plans are now in development for the entertainment of the 20,000 alumni and visitors to Columbia. No amount of provided entertainment can, however, assure the success of Missouri's greatest celebration without the cooperation of every student in the University. A delegated committee can arrange the details for this occasion, but the success of it depends on the undivided support of every student. We appeal to you for this support. We urge you to extend a cordial hand of welcome to every visitor. The honor for a big and successful Homecoming will be the students. Let's prove to the old grads that the Tiger spirit is no longer in a toddling stage; that it is a full development of conscientious and whole hearted interest in the University; that the spirit which lives today, has known no greater fidelity to the University and its traditions.

Al. Lincoln

The Parade

King Solomon at the height of his glory never rode in a more gorgeous caravan. The parade will mark a new era in unbelievable spectacles. All the science and ingenuity of the University has combined to make this event an impressionable feature of this year's Homecoming. A super-parade, freakdom unexcelled, a dizzying, dazzling review of unequalled supremacy.

The "Breeze Bug"

The "Breeze Bug" speaks the last word in Metropolitan Frolics. If you can't laugh, you won't enjoy it. If you can laugh, you'll unbutton your whole face with roars of delight. It's a gay galaxy of smiling, giggling girls, combined with the best talent of University actors.

Homecoming Events

Wednesday, November 29

- 7:30 P. M.—Monster Mass Meeting—Rollins Field. Freshman Cap Burning—Pep Speeches. Calliope Jazz Music.
- 8:30 P. M.—Old Grads Reception—Rothwell Gymnasium. Given by the Home Economic Girls.
- 9:00 P. M.—Special production of the "Breeze Bug" for Alumni ONLY. A gay galaxy of smiling, giggling girls—written by the authors of the "Ninth Deacon"—Entirely a University production, Hall Theater.

Thursday, November 30

- 9:30 A. M.—Massive Parade—Sixty floats, spectacular Memorial float, Veterans organizations, University band and cadet corps, civic clubs. Places will be reserved in the parade for alumni organizations.
- 11:15 A. M.—Laying of Corner Stone for the new $500,000 Memorial Building, no speeches.
- 2:30 P. M.—Missouri-Kansas Classic.
- 4:30 P. M.—Informal reception for Students and Alumni at the home of President and Mrs. J. C. Jones.
- 5:30 P. M.—"M" Men's Banquet—Daniel Boone Tavern—All men who have made a letter in any organization of the University are invited to attend.
- 7:30 P. M.—Theater parties—Fraternity dances—club smokers.

Friday, December 1

- 9:00 P. M.—Razzler Dance.

"M" Men's Banquet

The men who attend this banquet are men who have made history at the University of Missouri. Traditions will never collapse so long as men are able to attain the perfection in activities as have these men. The spirit manifested by the students has generated from the deeds of those who have attained the highest honors in University activities. All "M" men are invited to attend the banquet.

Old Grad Reception

WHERE GREEK MEETS GREEK. The old grads reception will give you an opportunity to "swap tales" as in the days of old. You have waited for this opportunity for many years, don't let it go by now. Your old cronies will be there, and they will be looking for you. If you're not there, they'll naturally think you have lost the spirit of Old Mizzou.

The gang that will "Eat 'Em Up"

To the Merchants and Townspeople

The Homecoming Committee and the students of the University of Missouri acknowledge the support, both moral and financial, which you are lending in making this year's Homecoming celebration a success. Our gratitude cannot be measured in words, however, we pledge our fidelity to the townspeople in the years to come for a bigger and better Columbia.

The Homecoming Committee

E. E. Dittbrenner, Chairman—We are trying to give you the best Homecoming the University has had. Address 819 Rollins, telephone 1780 Black.

Prewitt Turner, Parade—Every organization and individual is invited to participate. Turn your name in now. Address 520 College, telephone 255.

Jack Spitzer, Decorations—Rollins Field will be a veritable illumination of the Tiger spirit. Address 909 University, telephone 1646.

Bill Armstrong, Program—Recorder of all the doings. Address 520 College avenue, telephone 255.

Irvin I. Femrite, Publicity—"Nuff Said." Address 906 University. Telephone 403.

Special Trains from Everywhere---Plenty Room Here