PRESS OF THE MISSOURI STATESMAN

OUR CHRISTMAS NUMBER.

The Xmas number of the Professional World will contain cuts and biographical sketches of prominent professional and business men and women of the negro race. If you desire to use space let us hear from you.

Nov. 18, 6-w.

Politics in Missouri will be interesting indeed next year.

Patronize our advertisers, and tell them where you saw their "ad."

The programs of the Missouri State Teachers' Association are out. The session promises to be quite an interesting one.

An individual who will not pay subscription to a newspaper is just as dishonest as the individual who does not pay a grocery bill.

The saying that "one half of the people never know how the other half lives," is almost a true one. Especially is this true in the large cities. The New Yorker who thinks that Delmonico's is the only place in the city to get a meal or does not see how a family can be housed in less than a score of rooms with all modern improvements, can scarcely imagine that there are hundreds within a few blocks of his mansion who never enjoy a full meal or have sufficient clothing or fire to keep them warm. A St. Louis Sunday paper gives the pitiful account of one Tilly Kloessel, whom a policeman found guarding her meager supply of household furniture on the sidewalk during the blizzard last Saturday evening. She was of course charged with blockading the sidewalk. An investigation followed and the facts were as follows:

The unfortunate woman earned her bread by sewing in two rooms in the building in front of which she was found, and having been unable to pay the past two week's rent, on account of illness, was mercilessly ejected by a heartless landlord. The case of Tilly Kloessel is only one of the many thousands of such cases that occur daily and pass unnoticed by the newspaper reporter, for to some it has become the natural order of things.

Officers Elected.

At a regular meeting of Harrison Lodge No. 25 K. of P. of Huntsville, Mo., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: J. A. Denny, C. C.; Jas. Burton, J. V. V. C.; G. H. Bagby, Prelate; G. W. Smith, M. of W.; J. W. Robinson, K. of R. and S.; W. W. Bailey, M. of F.; W. W. Warren, M. of E.; Ed Rout, M. A.; John Denny, I. G.; Jas. Yancey, O. G.; James Newsome, Grand Representative.

Lincoln Institute Notes.

President Allen is hoping to secure a "Lincoln Institute day" at the World's Fair in St. Louis, and will be pleased to have the hearty co-operation of graduates, patrons and well-wishers of the institute, in bringing about this feature which may be made one of much interest to educators and sight-seers from all parts of the world as well as to Missourians.

The present Freshman, or D Normal class, has the honor of being the first in the history of Lincoln Institute to receive regular instructions in "Ethics" from a text book and to be taught by the President of the school. Having satisfactorily completed the book by the close of the first term, the members of this class decided to banquet their much beloved president and teacher, and accordingly, on the evening of December 1, in a beautifully decorated dining room these students fully demonstrated to the president and faculty that they had learned in a very satisfactory manner the "Ethics" of dress, of table etiquette, of many of the points of polite society, of good morals, and gentle manners.

The address of their class president, C. Jefferson Davis, the papers given by Misses Rosa Drake, Henrietta Brown and Ruth Cooper, the vocal duette given by Misses Anna and Arlena Burns, furnished further evidence of the many important lessons they had learned from President Allen.

A dainty menu prepared and served under the supervision of Miss Sprague, of the department of Domestic Science, sweet strains of vocal and instrumental music, excellent after dinner speeches from President Allen and other members of the faculty, and the entire program completed by a half hour social, concluded an evening long to be remembered in the annals of Lincoln Institute.

Could the parents of the young people have looked in upon the happy conditions, could they have listened to the talks made by their young "hopefuls," the entire scene undoubtedly, would have impressed them as one full of promise for the future well-being of the Afro-American.

Elder Goins, pastor of the 2nd Baptist church, Jefferson City, also a member of the present graduating class of Lincoln Institute, conducted the Sunday afternoon service, December 13. The sermon was much enjoyed by all present. Elder Goins in his endeavor to secure a liberal training aside from strictly theological work, furnishes an example of industry and perseverance worthy of emulation.

News in Brief.

Fred Profit, a 9-year old Ray county boy, weighs 155 pounds and is still growing.

Near Appleton City is a sign on a tree reading: "No hunting permitted not by this farm on. Keep mit yourself off der land or you vill putt me in jail. Fritz Beepnickle."

A thief entered a henhouse at Warrensburg a few nights ago and stole a dozen chickens, but dropped a purse containing $140 and it was found next morning by the owner of the fowls. The thief must now choose between freedom with the chickens and his $140 with a penitentiary sentence.

The Blind Boone Concert Co. are traveling in Kansas and Indian Territory, and report an excellent season thus far. Prof. Boone will spend Christmas day at his home in Columbia.

The Smith, Farris, and Matthews boodle trials have been postponed.

ST. LOUIS MAN SENTENCED.

Thomas E. Barrett, former Marshal of the Court of Appeals, was sentenced in the U. S. District Court to five years in the penitentiary and fined $1,000. By his attorney, Judge Krum, he at once appealed. Barrett's sentence was the same as that of John P. Dolan and Frank Garrett, his associates, who were convicted with him in the famous triple trial. Barrett, Dolan and Garrett were convicted on two counts, "aiding and abetting" certain persons to have fraudulent citizen certificates in their possession, and "aiding and abetting" those persons to secure the papers. Barrett was placed under $20,000 bond pending an appeal, and producing sureties was not sent to jail.

PILES FISTULA—NO MONEY TILL CURED.

Notice: We have made a specialty of Piles, Fistula and Diseases of the Rectum for 30 years in Kansas City. We offer advantages in the treatment of such diseases which cannot be obtained elsewhere. We accept no money till cure is complete and our charges are always low. Examination costs nothing. Write for our 200 page treatise for men and our 100 page book for women—both sent free. Write to our old patients and investigate the merits of our work.

Dr. Walter Scott, Gen'l Agt. Home Fire Insurance Co., Kansas City, Mo., writes: "Your treatment and my cure of the piles was eminently satisfactory. No fee or money was asked until your treatment had resulted in a cure."

Dr. A. A. Swafford, President of the Swafford Bros. Dry Goods Co., writes: "I was afflicted for years with piles and you effected a permanent cure in a short time without a day's loss from my business."

Dr. S. G. Goshier of American National Bank, Kansas City, Mo., writes: "I suffered herewith and my check in payment of bill rendered and with it I express gratitude for the relief you have given me through your very thorough and effective treatment of my case of Piles and Fistula."

Mr. Chas. Dougherty, Spencer, Ia., says: "I concluded to go to you after trying all the so-called curatives without any relief. You at once made the necessary examination and informed me that I had a bad case of piles, and you told me you could cure me. You did just as you said you would."

A. N. McClary, Mayor of Sebatha, Kan., writes: "I must say that your treatment and cure of my case of piles and fistula seems now wonderful to me and that the treatment was a great deal more mild than I had expected. I am entirely satisfied and consider that I am completely cured."

Wm. B. Barrett, of Barrett & Tucker Lumber Co., Grand Rapids, Mich., writes: "I had piles for twenty years and was cured by you. I consider you the best doctor on the globe and would not be back where I was when I came to you for any money."

Samuel L. Weeden, Cotton Broker, No. 10 Old Slip, New York City, writes: "Since you treated me for bleeding piles I have been entirely relieved and feel like a new man. My general health has much improved. Not a cent was required or paid until a cure was effected."

Mr. O. H. P. Catron, President of the Bank of West Plains, Ia., says: "Your treatment for my fistula, fissure, piles, stricture and ulcers of the rectum was entirely successful in every respect, and I feel that I have a new lease upon life. I can cheerfully recommend all who are suffering with similar trouble to go to you. Every receipt you make you will fulfill."

Mr. Frank Strain, Probate Judge, Philadelphia, Kas., says: "I was troubled with piles for thirty years; in less than four weeks you dismissed me cured and practically a new man. When you examined me you stated what the cost of a cure would be, but did not ask or require a payment of any part of the amount until the cure was effected."

J. R. Sprankle, Captain, Cleveland, O., writes: "I doctored for twelve years with physicians in New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati and Cleveland for piles and fistula. I finally went to you and you cured me perfectly in ten days and while being cured I was not laid up an hour."

Senator J. R. Burrows, President First National Bank, Smith Center, Kas., says: "Your treatment of me was very satisfactory. There have been no signs of trouble returning in any form. I was treated over ten years ago."

Mr. Geo. Thiele, Jr., President of the Third State Bank, Ashland, Kas., says: "I can testify that you have entirely cured me of piles and I was not asked to pay a dollar until I was satisfied I was cured."
