From Davess County. HARRISON TP., DAVESS CO. Dec. 23. To the Editor of the Crisis: About two weeks ago a man by the name of Merchant came here from Clinton county, Indiana, and bought the Martin Weldon farm. He went back after the money and was to have been here on the 19th, but for some reason failed to put in his appearance. His wife then wrote to Charles Maddox of the former place, inquiring after her husband, and received an answer stating that he wasn't there. Last Friday Mr. Merchant's son arrived here, in search of his father. He says his father left home a week ago last Monday with $1,300 in his pocket and he has not been heard from since. It is feared he has met with foul play. They telegraphed along the line last Saturday, in hopes of hearing something of the missing man, but as yet they have received no information. The son was robbed of forty dollars while in the care. The young men have a debating society at the Reed school house, which is well attended and very interesting. The boys had a fox hunt last week, headed by William and James Trosper. Lots of fun and two foxes less to prey on the poultry. L. T. DALE. Choice raisins and nuts, just received at S. R. PARK'S. Malaga Grapes!!! Malaga Grapes!!! at Swain & Sons. The Grammar School is being taught by students from the High School. Mr. Stewart took charge first week after the dismissal of Miss Hubbell, Mr. Mitchell last week and Miss Minnie Hoffman has charge of it this week. Prof. Dobson informs us that the school is doing well. Trenton Republican. Hominy, beans, peas, pearl barley, rice, macaroni, vermicelli, all kept at Swain's. Our overcoats are going very fast at $3.00. We have some for $1.00 and $5.00. Brown & Taft. We received a circular last week from J. M. Greenwood, of Kansas City, addressed "Missouri Legislators and Educators." It is an able article, treating mainly on the advantage of efficient public schools in this State. But for its length we would give it place in our columns. S. R. PARK'S. The 1st Quarterly meeting of the M. F. Church South, for Chillicothe station, will be held January 11th, instead of January 5th. Don't worry over that old cook store any more; take it to Seay & Mohr's and trade it for a Maple Cook. LINNEUS ITEMS. Ed. CRISIS:—Knowing you by reputation, and being a reader and admirer of the Crisis, and the doctrine it so able advocates, you will perhaps allow me to acknowledge my appreciation. We are informed that you were in our little democratic two-sided platform city, on a flying visit a short time ago, but unfortunately however, we did not get to see you. When you come again, if possible, make it a point to remain several days, (or longer), that we may tell you how much we enjoy the good things in the Crisis. Such a paper as you publish is just what we need in every county and every town, of 500 inhabitants. The manner in which Dr. Greene, Judge Broadbent, and others, have labored for the Greenback cause, in your town and county, deserve much credit, and they will reap their reward, as the scales of prejudice is removed from the eyes of the people, so that they can see this matter in its true light. Linneus is quite dull for this season of the year, as is the case with every Mossback city. Some few preparations are being made for Christmas, while some are enjoying the "Beautiful Snow." "Oh, the snow, the beautiful snow," The sleighs are running to and fro, The bells jingle, the horses prance Were it not for "resurrection," many would dance. Some of the young folks, and perhaps some of the old, are preparing to dedicate the new City Hall, erected by Messrs. Wauke & Easley, with a tip of the "light fantastic" on Christmas night. If you ever indulge in this kind of mirth, come to this way, hang your coat and hat in the Planters House, where 'tis said a good supper will be prepared. As your correspondent never indulges in the amusement referred to, you will find us sitting in some chimney corner, quietly perusing some Greenback journal which advocates our political religion, and also thinking of the condition of many orphans and widows, and so much needless suffering brought about by cruel resumption. Is it not true that those who produce wealth, enjoy but little of it? Let us drive these shysters back to the land of Palestine, where they first originated, that labor may have its reward, and we a country that will be a bright and shining light to all nations of the world. Local news scarce. One wedding in town last week: Robert H. Dryden and Miss Emma L. Menefee. Attendants, L. C. Phillips and Miss Lena Goldman; A. R. Cassidy and Miss Nannie Dryden. May their lives be all sunshine and happiness with rare flowers along their pathway. It is rumored that two or three weddings will take place during Christmas week. [The balance of this communication has been omitted for want of space, but will appear next week. EDITOR.] Fair Dealing. We know it is impossible to please all, still we shall always make it our aim to treat everybody well, and by so doing gain the confidence and good will of the people. When we find that we are unable to make a living by fair and honest dealings we will shut up shop and take Greeley's advice and go west. But with our large stock of good and reasonable goods we have no fears that we will get our share of patronage from the good people of this county. A. J. SWAIN & SONS. BEDFORD ITEMS. Bedford, Mo., Dec. 21, 1878. J. P. Walden is at home from William Jewell College. Sleight bells ringing merry Christmas. We hear of hops once or twice a week. Theodore Terrill had a sad accident happen to him on last Monday, at Brunswick. He jumped from the train while in motion and landed on a pile of tin, spraining his ankle very badly. The spelling school at the Center school house last night. A. J. SWAIN & SONS.

Dawn Items. Daws, Mo., Dec. 17, 1878. To the Editor of the Crisis. We take of our hats and bow to you this cool evening. Once more the "Storm King" has visited us. This time in a very blustering manner, casting his dirt of pure white-ness in every direction and through each crack and crevice creeping, to the depth of our knee. We pity those of our friends who were waiting for the snow of last week, to go off, so that they might pick their corn. Ah friend! the early bird catches the "bug." Last week the good people of Dawn were visited by one Mrs. Reaviss and daughter, Minnie, who, for the small sum of fifteen cents, favored all, who wished to hear with her or their Educational powers which were good. And all would have been well, had they not attempted to leave without paying for the use of the church. She got as far as Avalon, but was overtaken there, when she paid up promptly. Some mistake or misunderstanding being the cause of the trouble. Another Troupe performed last night; so you see that we have been abundantly supplied with entertainments for the last week. We are informed by those who know, that there is a lively lyceum in progress at the Stout school house about a mile and a half south of Dawn. The society meets every Wednesday night. Dr. Greene's suggestion in last week's issue, prompts me to offer the following suggestion: That the manufacture of patented articles be free to all. The manufacturer, however, should be bound by law, to pay the patentee a certain per cent. (fixed by law) on the gross sales of said article. Whatever might be the disadvantages of this law, it would, we think, have at least two, if not more great advantages in its favor. 1st, It would give the patentee a sure remuneration for his invention, whereas under the present system, the patentee (generally a poor man) is in most instances, swindled out of his claim or bought out for a mere trifle. The wealthy manufacturer reaping the benefit of his invention. 2nd, It would be brought to general use sooner and at a much more reasonable price from the competition in trade. If any one thinks the above subject worth their while, we would like to have it discussed pro and con. It has so many sides. VINT. We keep everything in woodware from a wooden spoon to a $2.50 cedar pail. Drop in at Swain's and see for yourself. Reader, this article is, doubtless intended for you. Don't consider this a dun, but just a gentle reminder that your subscription is due us, and, that while we can live on glory, the boys who work at the case from early in the morning till late at night, must have their pay. We earnestly request all our subscribers who have not paid their subscriptions to call at this office and insure us a happy new year by enabling us to square up with the old. It should be borne in mind that the terms of all newspapers are cash in advance. Where we have deviated from this rule we have so as a favor to the subscriber. All unpaid subscriptions are now due. Wanted. Everybody who has an old sewing machine or a new one either, "Out of fix," or that needs repairing, to bring it to the Singer Manufacturing Company's salesroom, East Side Public Square, Chillicothe, Mo., and have it made as good as new. All work done reasonable and fully warranted. Also, for sale, Machine Needles, Oil and attachments for all Machines. J. S. FAUST, Agt., Chillicothe, Mo. Current prices, eggs, dates, raisins, California and Missouri dried peaches, New York and Missouri dried apples, all kept at Swain's. Foster and Martin, two of the prisoners who escaped from jail last Thursday evening, were recaptured the following night. They had taken refuge in Cox's coal mine, which is about three miles north of town, and deputy Hale, assisted by S. Hale and Mr. Joe Ruggler, ascertaining that they were there, as Foster had previously worked in the mine, followed in after them, a distance of not three hundred yards. It was a rugged work, and Johnny proved that his crew was thick full of "d." The Taylor and Pades Ogan, for purity and brilliancy of tone, has no equal. If you want one, apply at our office, we can obtain one for you, for one half their regular retail price. Attention Retailers! By calling at this office you can get a double barrel, breech loading, English fast Parker shot gun, brass splinter new, or $15 less than the manufacturer's price. Young Men Apply to the Editor of this paper for a half membership (at discount) in the Great Mercantile College, Keokuk, Iowa on the Mississippi. Will and John Dixon have dismissed their respective schools for this week, and are spending holidays at home.

Jas. T. Brown, N. H. Taft, J. W. Toppas, E. J. Broadbent, John E. Watt, Frank Leaver, Levi Lingo, C. W. Wells, C. H. Hanson, Frank Sheetz. Yesterday evening, at about 5 o'clock, the alarm of fire was given. It was found to be in the house owned by Thos. B. Jones, just east of the old Baptist Church. The house was completely destroyed, and but few articles of furniture were saved. The fire company responded to the alarm, and succeeded in saving J. T. Brown's stable, which was in close proximity to the burning building, and must inevitably have been consumed but for their timely arrival and untiring efforts. We didn't learn the cause of the fire. JOE GAZETTE enters upon its thirty-fourth year more prosperous than ever before in its history, and thanks its cordial greeting to its thousands of friends, with congratulations over the steady progress of true Democracy among the people. The Gazette is published in Northwest Missouri. It is filled with THE LATEST NEWS and contains editorial articles on current topics, the proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures by telegraph and correspondence, all the local news, full and correct. Market Reports, both local and general, a complete Department, for the Weekly, a Fashion and Ladies Department, Tales, Poetry, Special Correspondence. The Gazette will always be true to the highest and best interests of Missouri and the whole people. It will be a live, newsy, wide-awake sheet, fully abreast of the people in their onward march to a thorough and complete overthrow of the corrupt party which has governed the nation since 1861. It will labor to send into private life corrupt and incompetent men; to recover and hold both branches of Congress to the Democratic party; to restore fraternal peace and re-establish enduring prosperity on a solid foundation. It will labor for the success of "the Democratic party," believing that this policy will give the nation peace, and that prosperity which people alone can bring. True to its unwavering record of more than a third of a century, it will ever be uncompromising in its opposition to the removal of harmful restrictions upon trade, the lifting off of every extravagant in public expenditure and every needless office in the public service; to the end that labor may be lightly burdened. But while giving due attention to home affairs which promise to be of unusual interest and importance, the GAZETTE will never fail to keep its readers fully posted in regard to all foreign events. It will daily furnish its readers with all important news from every quarter of the globe, and present all topics of interest to business men, and provide entertaining reading for both old and young in the family circle. In short, during the coming year, whose events cannot fail to be important, both home and abroad, the GAZETTE, in elegant one type, will keep its readers fully informed in regard to all important occurrences, and endeavor to make itself a welcome companion, guide and friend, in the homes of the people. Its special correspondence from New York, Washington and Jefferson City, will be of unusual interest and value.
