

The Butler Weekly Times.

BUTLER, MISSOURI, WEDNESDAY MAY 19, 1886

NO. 25

Communicated from Spruce.

THE TIMES:—There has been, in the last two weeks, many inquiries as to who would make the best Recorder, and the answer has been almost invariably D. W. Simpson. It is conceded by all who have had an opportunity to examine the work of the Recorder's office since Mr Simpson has officiated in the capacity of Recorder, that everything has been done efficiently and systematically, and that it would be hard to find a more suitable man for the position. He has served an apprenticeship of three years in the office on small salary and now ought to have the office one term, and it is people all over the county are those with whom I have talked, will get there. Ely. Mr. Simpson is a young man of good standing everywhere and has a host of warm enthusiastic friends who have an earnest desire to see him Recorder for the next four years. Now I shall examine the democracy one question: should we exchange a certainty in uncertainty? Mr. Simpson for the last three years conducted the business of the office in a most efficient manner, as the records will show, and why exchange him for one whose business qualifications are but a meager knowledge? We select the man for the office for the man, and by so doing not only hazard the best interests of the party, but make a mistake that our children and grandchildren may have to pay for. Real men, attorneys and abstractors had a picnic for the last fifteen days, at the expense of the farmers in general, correcting and making up mistakes and errors occasioned by incompetency in office at that date, and it still goes on. How shall such be repeated or how lay aside all personal feelings in the matter and select only men for the various offices as now to be competent and efficient?

My wish is that all may act wisely and prudently in these things and that their careful consideration be given to their votes for delegates to the 22d inst., and should my name be selected on that day and I receive the majority of the votes by the nomination, I feel no anxiety in saying that Bates county will have a first-class Recorder.

VOYER.
A Just Conclusion.
Judge Gantt is a gentleman, whose character is above reproach, whose business none can gainsay, whose honesty none can question. His democracy and fitness are equally apparent. While we feel that he will be nominated for congress, and that he also recognizes it, the highest regard for him, will ever be shown for him the very utmost respect. The Democrat treats all candidates with proper consideration and would rather say too much for every one than too little. We never disagree as to a state of affairs, we would rather say that we are mistaken.—Bates county Democrat.

The above to be accepted as an acknowledgment on the part of the Democrat that its editor had when Judge Gantt, he came direct to court of appeals, he came direct to get up a petition in his name. This statement is denied by Judge Gantt, and the Democrat says that the Judge is a gentleman whose truthfulness none can gainsay. Here's a paradox that possibly be explained in a way that will prevent the shedding of blood.—Osceola Sun.

Mayesburg.
Farmers have a good rest on account of the heavy rains. Grand river has been over the bottoms for a week or so. The people at Creighton look longingly across toward us and think, "so near and yet so far." It will ever be thus until Creighton helps us to build a grade across the bottom. We had a heavy hail storm south of Mayesburg the 5th, which done considerable damage to wheat, oats &c.

Baker Carleton, of Eldorado, visited his brother L. O. Carleton of the post office, last week. A great deal of the corn will have to be replanted, on account of the wet weather. Mr. Whittaker failed to get enough pupils to justify him in taking the school at Smoky Row, hence he did not begin. We understand that Nalts Bradley has secured the Mayesburg school for next winter. Miss Douglass seems to be giving good satisfaction at Mayesburg in her school this summer.

The Freeze Out school reports a good attendance and a good school. Bradley, at Peter Creek, complains of a small attendance. Bradley needs a large school to employ his enlarged capacities. Mingo will be considerably divided in the coming democratic convention. There are so many good men that it will be hard to distinguish the sheep from the goats.

Dr. Griffith and party spent a few days last week fishing in the Osage. The doctor prescribed plenty of snake bite cure, so the party had no accidents but caught no fish. Reitz's corn mill on Cove creek is the busiest place in the county on Saturday. JAKE.

East Boone Items.
Generally speaking, farmers are about through planting corn, but we have heard some say, that their corn is not coming up and will have to plant over, but in most of the fields we've noticed where corn was planted about the middle of April it is coming up nicely. We do not believe that God will ever destroy this earth again with a flood, but we almost thought the windows of heaven were opened on Tuesday evening of last week and that God for our wickedness, was going to destroy the earth again with a flood. The rain bow is a token of his promise and we believe His word is true, but oh! how it rained or rather poured down. The earth was a sheet of water. It is our opinion East Boone will send a delegation to the county convention for the following named gentlemen: Presiding Judge, John H. Sullens; associate Judge, Wm. S. Mudd; sheriff, G. G. Glazebrook; representative, J. H. Hinton. NOW AND THEN.

After his berth had been made up he went to the dressing-room and unstrapped his leg, keeping hold of the strap, and then got into his berth. Then he called the porter. "I've got rheumatism and can't bend over," he said, "and I wish you'd pull off that shoe." The porter untied the shoe and tried to pull it off, but it wouldn't come. "Pull hard," said the passenger. The darkey gave another pull. "Oh, brace against the berth and pull," said the passenger. The porter had blood in his eye. He put his foot against the berth and pulled like a dentist. The passenger let go the strap and the darkey fell back with he shoe and the leg. "My God! you've pulled off my leg!" shrieked the passenger. The porter dropped it, and, with his eyes bulging out and his teeth clattering, he broke from the car. He concealed himself in a corner of a baggage car, and pretty soon the other conspirators came in, pretending they didn't know where he was, sat down on a trunk, and talked over the awful condition of the man whose leg had been pulled off, and about the penalty the darkey would have to suffer, if caught. The porter was of no service to anybody that night.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Cleanliness and Golliness go hand in hand. The preacher, to promote it, gave this command: Go into every household where raiment is unclean. And tell them the merits of WATER QUEEN. At all first-class dealers for 5 cents. Casa Co. Democrat.

Last Thursday morning as S. E. Licklider was riding into Everett he was overtaken by one Calvin Brown, who was riding a mule in a gallop. Both continued at a lively gait, when all of a sudden Brown's mule fell to its knees and then rolled over, throwing Brown against Licklider's mare. Both mule and mare went flat on the ground. The mule got up first, Brown's right foot being still fast in the stirrup, and in an instant the mule wheeled and started back toward home as fast as it could run, kicking at Brown every few jumps, but missing him by kicking too high. Brown rolled over four times in the hope of relieving his foot from the stirrup, and after being dragged about 200 yards, his foot came out of the boot. Dr. Arnold was called immediately and found Mr. Brown badly bruised, but no bones broken. L. W. Rosier hauled him home and he is now reported as being able to sit up.

"We don't have to recommend Parkers Hair Balm but once," writes Mr. C. A. Burger, druggist, of Liberty, N. Y. "After that it stands on its record." It stops tall hair, restores original color, softens and gloss. Exceptionally clean, prevents dandruff.

Judge Parkinson says: "I am being crucified between two newspapers; one promised to repent and be with me in paradise, but up to date there is no proof that he ever repented."—Butler Times. (Park should hold Bro. Wade to his promise. Repent of his pretense at running the Judge for an office he has no hope nor expectation of securing this trip, but would awfully like to get him into line, and enter into combination that would be of service two years hence. We opine the Democrats of Bates cannot be so easily cajoled, and do not propose to be bargained away by Parkinson and Wade, or indeed by any one just on the strength of a post-office fight between two newspaper men which is already becoming ridiculous. —Rich Hill Review.

With bright eyes, yet gray, lusterless hair. Parkers Hair Balm will restore lack or brown prematurely lost, stop its falling. Don't surrender your hair with but an effort to save it. no 14 1m

From Mr. P. Morran, book and time keeper for Mike Martin, who came up from Ft. Scott last night a Herald reporter learns that work on the St. L. K. C. & Col., railroad is to be pushed toward as rapidly as it is possible for men and teams to do so. Mr. Morran states that Mr. Martin received a telegram yesterday morning from railroad headquarters to complete 20 miles of grade from Ft. Scott, in this direction which will extend to Metz in Vernon county, at once. The order requires Mr. Martin to complete his work within 60 days, and as a consequence he will be obliged to rush the work as speedily as possible. Mr. Martin will take all the laborers and teams he can get, at good wages. Address him at Ft. Scott, Kan.—Rich Hill Herald.

Zenizio, the crazy Italian, is still confined in the city jail, and the authorities are puzzled to know what to do with him. He is raving mad and beyond all control. Probably an attempt will be made to day to return him to Sheldon from which point he was brought to this city. Rich Hill has all it cares to do to take care of her unfortunates without being forcibly bound by those of other counties. —Rich Hill Herald.

The party above referred to was brought to Butler on Friday evening by City Attorney Dooley and turned over to Sheriff Hanks to await the action of the county court in the premises. Several parties have talked to him who pretend to understand French and they say he is most certainly of that nationality. Judges Letker and Denney got together Monday and made an order sending him to the asylum yesterday.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Some three weeks since the Herald related the facts in a case where in a young girl from Carthage figured as the principal. In some manner the paper fell into the hands of a Mrs. Hoggerty, of Lane, Franklin county, Kansas, who sends the following letter, received here to-day: DEAR SIR: I see in your Weekly Herald an advertisement of a poor girl coming to your town in a pitiful condition from Carthage a few weeks since, turned out of house and home. Please give me her name and information of her whereabouts at present that I may find out who she is and something about her circumstances as I am anxious to know what has become of her. MRS. HOGGERTY, Lane, Kansas. Box 151.

It will not disappoint you. It is the best article known for purifying the blood and building up health and strength. For 25 years erysipela broke out in blotches on my face. I found no cure until I used Parkers Tonic two years ago. no 23 1m
