Overcoat Weather at Last

The signal service foretells colder weather—OVERCOAT WEATHER.
Being thus forewarned you should not fail to be forearmed against any wintry blast with one of

THOSE WARM, SERVICEABLE OVERCOATS OF OURS,

which we are closing out so very cheap. Never before have we given such values for the money

Remember we are closing out our entire stock at prices much below its real value, giving you

FEBRUARY CUT PRICES FOR THE WHOLE SEASON.

We are determined to have our stock at its lowest possible limit by January 1st, when there will be a change in our firm.

WE WILL SELL IF LOW PRICES WILL DO IT

OVERCOATS.	UNDERWEAR.
$ 3.50 overcoats reduced to $2.50.	Our stock of underwear was never before so large nor so cheap. We can suit you in any material and in any quality.

Vinton Items.
Our post-office will soon change hands. J. R. Simpson will hold the office vice T. Webb, resigned.
Willow Branch L. S. is now in running order. Last Saturday night the question of local option was discussed and the affirmative came out victorious.
Dame rumor has it that there will be a wedding in the near future. No doubt the parson will hate to lose his daughter, but we suppose he will have to Barret.
The township committee for the Sabine Pass R. R. held a meeting Friday night to discuss a plan to obtain the right of way through West Point township.
Willow Branch S. S. closed last Sunday until next April.
Daniel Stewart is erecting a large barn near his residence.
Gen. J. O. Shelby purchased 36 head of cattle of Mr. Wells, of Belton.
Mark Yates was deputized constable and has been busy summoning witnesses and jurymen for Squire White's court, Saturday.
Get there Dicer, get there Dummy, we always knew there would be an outcome in you yet.
Forest Grider is attending the Butler Academy this winter.
We wonder if Bud Grider's best girl has gone back on him or what in the world has happened.
J. W. Badger attended Squire White's court Saturday and, as usual, brought out his client victorious.
The Sabine Pass Co. have their prospect drill in position at Capt. Nickol's farm.

Round Prairie Items.
Nice rain Wednesday morning.
Corn gathering in this vicinity is a thing of the past.
Another church dance at the residence of Mr. Tipton on last Friday eve.
One of our young bloods was seen last Thursday evening considerably below freezing on account of his girl going with another fellow.
Emitt Hook visited the family of Mr. F. M. Steele, near Stumptown, last Saturday and Sunday.
Mrs. Margaret Walk and family of Vernon county, were visiting Mrs. Anna Ooley and other friends last week.
Mr. Englew Stevenson says he has the boss "taters" of the season, having several sweet potatoes weighing five pounds and upwards.
Those persons who are interesting themselves so much about us will call around at our satin quilted sanctum, we will be pleased to await them A La Sullivan.
Mr. Jeff Mock will leave for Illinois Sunday night on business and pleasure combined. Safe trip and lots of fun is what we wish.
Rev. Henry Price delivered a good lecture on dancing last Sunday night. If the balance of the ministers of the gospel would come down on this vice as he does it might be best for the community.

Mr. Jas. Mock was ordained elder of the Cumberland Presbyterian church last Sunday by Rev. Poteet, of Foster.

Married on Nov. 10th, 1887, at the residence of the bride's parents, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends, Miss May Horner to Mr. A. J. Ooley, both of Hudson Twp. Rev. Henry Price, officiating. The bride is the youngest of three daughters and is a prize that is not drawn every day. The groom is a nice young gentleman of splendid deportment and worthy of the prize he has captured. We congratulate them and may they never have reason to regret this great move. The infair was given at the residence of the groom's parents on Nov. 11th.
More Anon,
Dicer.

DON'T

let that cold of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh. Or into pneumonia. Or into consumption.
Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself.

The breathing apparatus must be kept healthy and clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.
All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boschee's German Syrup. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it and "know how it is themselves." Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.
