The Lades Delighted.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effective in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels. 40

Johnstown Items.

Things in Spruce are quiet since the primary.

The United States court was called to order Monday by Coleman to try the Herford and Turner case. Turner was plaintiff and Herford defendant.

Sam Budd went to St. Clair county on business this week.

Dr. Choat went to Butler to-day. Ogburn is threshing at Hoover's to-day. He says he has about a week's work yet.

John Coleman moved his family to Clinton last week, where his son and daughter will attend college.

Schools of Spruce will open soon and then mothers will smile and be happy.

The peach crop of Spruce was pretty good judging from the way the women are canning and preserving.

Charles, Walter and John McComb expect to start for Arkansas next week. Boys be careful and don't come back married.

Frank Billings starts for Sedalia to attend school, to-day. Frank expects to talk on the wires. Look out for a telegram, Fannie.

We understand that the Sunday school convention that was talked of by the Walnut Grove Sunday school has fallen through. Too bad as they are a great help to Sunday school workers.

Is Jim Bradley dead or not, if not why don't we see him on the wing? Arise and explain Jimmie.

Parson Tersh has returned and the Union Bros. are happy. Look for the nominee before long.

Our postmaster is happy. Its a boy and his name is John Wanamaker Calahan.

Claudia Etter who has been visiting at his grand-father W. J. Crabtree's, has returned to his home at Garden City, Cass county. Claudia is a bright little fellow and made many friends while in our midst.

We were not aware of the fact that Charles McComb was practicing medicine, his patient lies, in Shawnee.

John Radford still smokes and carries Uncle Sam's mail bags.

Jim Gibbs is pounding corn to-day for dear life.

Gov. Snort would like one more picnic this season—getting a little pie and cake hungry.

November will be a cold month for our Union Bros.

Ely, our carpenter, has moved to Rich Hill—sorry to lose him.

Bill Cole says he don't expect to be elected—just making the race for his health, we suppose. It is very thoughtful of him not to expect the office as Mr. Francisco will keep that.

Parson Robinson is still running the short line.

George says the train from Montrose to Clinton are a little ahead of time, especially when his best girl wants to go. You should hurry up next time, George.

Walt McCowan a bachelor for life I reckon. Too bad, Walt.

Bro. Union don't you see the Nov-
