The election is over and I have been quite sick over the result in old Bates, but to look over the result all over the country makes me rejoice, and hand in hand and guarded with the armor of tariff reform and true democratic principles at heart, we in Bates county, will yet gain the victory over all combined opposition. Let us not be discouraged, but rather firmer in our principles, we are right, and right is bound to rule. We hope the new party in power will make us good officers. . . . Quite a gathering at our office Saturday, some after mail, and others to bid us farewell, as we are to be housed for six months over the result of the election. S. W. Price has the room ready, so any one wanting our assistance will call at Uncle Sam's for us. . . . Judge Cole went to Montrose with 2 loads of wheat. . . . D. W. Cloud was quite sick the 4th, hence lost one solid vote. He is better. . . . M. L. Embree is out assessing, his first round he assessed U. L.'s and the democrats, did expect to let them go, but a mistake. . . . Wendleton is turnip man, has some fine ones. . . . Has any one seen Hick Ray since the 4th? He says the woods were full of U. L.'s and they all came out and voted. . . . Uncle Henry Cole, (father of the probate judge elect) called a few minutes Monday. He is feeling good about his wayward son, the judge. . . . S. W. Price, John Hayes and many others are feeling better since the 4th. . . . Jas. Witte and Jas. Ashbury, we suppose raised their neighbors Saturday night, as we sold them the powder. . . . E. J. Bennett, we are informed, has him a partner, found her on Peter creek. A long and happy life is our wish. . . . Quite a number of us democrats had our measure taken for burial, by our U. L. friends, but assure them they cannot bury us so deep but what we will be resurrected in two years with new life to know them under past all redemption. . . . Northeast Bates sends up two officers, S. A. Douglas, Recorder and W. T. Cole, Probate judge. Each of them downed a good democrat, hence hope they will make good ones. . . . The post-office grocery had the best trade Saturday evening it has had for a long time, is it on account of the U. L. success? if so, all O. K. come along and we will treat you the best we know how. . . . Rev. Inlow preached his farewell sermon to the people of Salem church Sunday night, and the house was crowded with attentive listeners. Text, "The way of the transgressor is hard," and he handled it well. All bade him God-speed in his new fields of labor. . . . Booker Powell left his old home in Shawnee Monday. He has moved to Butler, where it is hoped he may do well. We suppose he goes to take his position in the Mo. state bank, as he is president. . . . Walter Decker, one of Shawnee's best boys, has taken unto himself a partner for life, and feel safe in saying all join me in well wishes through life to them. . . . Geo. Randall said he hated to have his measure taken for two years by a U. L., but such is life. . . . Billy Powell moved to the old homestead Tuesday. Dick Greer moved into the house vacated by Billy. . . . Dr. Wright, of Altona, attended church at Salem Sunday, and wanted Bro. Inlow to preach at Altona, Sunday night, but failed to get him. Yes, and Mr. Billings did go as some had expected. So Mr. Elliott was mistaken, it seems. . . . All hands busy gathering corn. . . . Geo. Price is too sick to laugh. . . . Tom Starke says it all right, and he expects to move along as usual. . . . Billy Tyler is down in the mouth, but thinks he will soon get himself in shape. . . . Uncle Mose Greer has returned home from Pettis county, sick. . . . Mr. Lafollet has moved to the old Webb farm, so we have been informed. . . . Joe Marshall says he did not vote his sentiments. . . . John Lentz is busy all the time. . . . Mr. Bradley's fine house is nearing completion. . . . Jack.

Marvelous Endurance.

The marvelous amount of labor performed by the heart in keeping all portions of the body supplied with blood is not generally known. It beats 100,000 times a day, which is 3,650,000,000 times and 5,150,380 miles in a life time. No wonder there are so many Heart Failures. The first symptoms are shortness of breath when exercising, pain in the side or stomach, fluttering, choking in throat, oppression, then follow weak, hungry or smothering spells, swollen ankles, etc. Dr. Franklin Miles' New Heart Cure is the only reliable remedy. Sold by H. L. Tucker, druggist.

A chemist advises that candied fruit be opened an hour or two before it is used. It is far richer after the oxygen of the air has been restored to it.

Fifty Spasms a Day.

Had Mrs. H. A. Gardner, of Victoria, Ind., lived two thousand years ago she would have been thought to have been possessed of evil spirits. She was subject to nervous prostration, headaches, dizziness, backache, palpitation and forty to fifty spasms a day. Though having been treated by eight physicians for years without success, she was permanently cured by one bottle of Dr. Franklin Miles' Restorative Nervine. A trial bottle of this new and wonderful medicine, and a finely illustrated treatise free at H. L. Tucker's drug store, who recommends and guarantees it.

"Hello! Tom. Glad to see you, old fellow! It's almost ten years since we were married. Sit down, let's have an experience meeting. How's the wife? she's so-so, same as usual, always wanting something I can't afford."
"Well, we all want something more than we've got."
"Yes; but I guess 'want' will be my master. I started to keep down expenses; and now I'll say I'm 'mean,' and she's tired of saving and never having anything to show for it. I gave her four dollars down street, and she looked as happy as a queen!"
"I think she is; and we are economical, too. . . . My wife can make a little more for further than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty contrivance that adds to the comfort and beauty of our little home, and she's always 'merry' with it. When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says: 'Oh! that's my secret!' But I think I've discovered her secret. When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made one condition: she would have her Magazine. And she was right! I wouldn't do without it myself for double the subscription price. We read it together, from the title-page to the last word; the stories keep our hearts young; the synopsis of important events and scientific matters keeps me posted; and I can talk and understand what is going on; my wife is always trying some new idea from the household department; she makes all her dresses and those for the children, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we saved Joe when he was so sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Sanitation Department. Not I can tell you half!"
"What wonderful Magazine is it?"
"Demorest's Family Magazine, and—"
"Why the what! I'd wanted to go bad, and I told her it was an extravagance."
"Well, my friend, that's where you made a grand mistake, and one you'd better rectify as soon as you can. I'll take your 'number' from my wife's account; she's bound to have a china tea-set in time for our tin wedding next month. My gold watch with the premium I got for getting into a club. Here's a copy, with the new Premium List for clubs—the biggest thing out! If you don't see it in what you want, you've only to write to the publisher and tell him what you want, whether it is a tack-hammer or a new carriage, and he will make special terms for you, either for a club, or for next cash. Better subscribe right off and surprise Mrs. Tom. Only $2.00 a year, with five extra times that in six months. Or send 10 cents direct to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a specimen copy containing the Premium List."

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S WEEKLY has never failed to justify its title as a "Journal of Civilization," and it has done so with a consistency and a higher standard of artistic and literary excellence. It leaves untouched no important phase of the world's progress, and presents a record, equally trustworthy and interesting, of the notable events, persons and achievements of our time.
Special supplements will be continued in 1891. They will be literary, scientific, artistic, historical, etc., etc.

descriptive, as occasion may demand, and will continue to deserve the hearty commendation which has been bestowed on past issues by the press and the public. As a family journal, HARPER'S WEEKLY will, as heretofore, be edited with a strict regard for the qualities that make it a safe and welcome visitor to every home.

1891. Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR is a journal for the home. Giving the latest information with regard to the fashions, its numerous illustrations, fashion plates, and pattern sheet supplements are indispensable alike to the home dress-maker and the professional modiste. No expense is spared in making its artistic attractiveness of the highest order. Its clever short stories, parlor plays and thoughtful essays satisfy all tastes, and its last page is famous as a budget of wit and humor. In its weekly issues everything is included which is of interest to women. During 1891 Agnes B. Ormsbee will write a series of articles on "The House Comfortable," Juliet Carson will treat of "Sanitary Living," and an interesting succession of papers on "Woman in Art and History," superbly illustrated, will be furnished by Theodore Child. The serial stories will be by Walter Besant and Thomas Hardy.

1891. Harper's Young People.

AN ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY.

The twelfth volume of HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE begins on Nov. 4, 1890. This best and most comprehensive weekly in the world for young readers presents a rich and attractive programme. In fiction there will be "Campmates: A Story of the Plains," by Kirk Munroe; "Men of Iron," a romance, by Howard Pyle, with illustrations by the author; "Flying Mill Farm," by Sophie Sweet; "The Moon Prince," by R. K. Munckittrick; and "Yellowtop," by Annie Bronson King. In addition to these five serials, there will be stories in two or three parts by Thomas Nelson Page, Hjalmar Hjorth Boyesen, Edwin Lasseter Byrner, Harriet Prescott Spofford, Mary E. Wilkins, Nora Perry and others. Short stories, and articles on science, history, travel, adventure, games and sports, with hundreds of illustrations of the highest character, will render HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE for 1891 unrivalled as a miscellany of the best reading for boys and girls.

"The best weekly publication for young people in existence. It is edited with scrupulous care and attention, and instruction and entertainment are mingled in its pages in just the right proportions to captivate the minds of the young, and at the same time to develop their thinking power."—N. Y. Observer.
