NEGRO PRICE HANGED.

The Assault of Alice Ninas Pay the Death Penalty at Marshall for a Crime Never Before Punished by Legal Death in Missouri.

Marshall, Mo., May 8.—William Price, colored, aged 23 years, was hanged at 11:45 o'clock this morning, for criminal assault on Miss Alice Ninas, last November. He is the first man ever legally executed in Missouri for the crime.

THE STORY OF THE CRIME.

On the seventh day of last November Miss Alice Ninas, the daughter of a respectable German farmer living just outside the limits of Sweet Springs, was returning from school, walking along the road with her cousin, Miss Amy Ninas. Both were nine looking girls about 19 years of age. They were suddenly frightened by a negro who rose from his seat by the roadside and asked if they would tell him where some men lived that they had never heard of. When he saw that they were frightened and might start to run he seized Miss Ninas. Her cousin, frightened beyond reason, turned and ran, screaming with all her power of hysteria. An old negro woman, living in a hut near by, hobbled out and saw the brute struggling with the frightened girl. She could render no assistance. He was as strong as a lion and she was weak. Knocking her down he drew her to the roadside. The frightened Amy, fleeing down the road attracted the attention of a crowd of men and they hurried to the scene of the crime. Miss Ninas lay bruised and bleeding where Price had left her. The brute was gone. The country was at once filled with searchers.

ARRESTED IN HIDING.

The crime occurred soon after 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Price was arrested in hiding in a bit of woods that evening. He stoutly protested that he was not the guilty man, but was arrested and taken to Marshall.

He was recognized by the cousin of Miss Ninas and the aged negro woman.

Price had a bad reputation and it was not hard for those who knew him to believe him guilty. Shortly after his incarceration here, a mob visited the jail at night to lynch him. It was not well organized, however, and the sheriff induced the men to desist.

GEORGE MILLER'S SURPASSING LOVE.

Miss Alice Ninas was, at the time of her misfortune, engaged to Geo. Miller, a young farmer, living near her home. He loved her with a love of unsurpassing love and insisted on the marriage taking place as soon as possible. A few weeks after the crime the marriage occurred.

SHAME DROVE HER TO SUICIDE.

The bride had not recovered from the recent shock. It had completely shattered her nervous system. Even the love of a husband did not make her the bright, laughing girl she had been. One thing preyed on her mind—the fact that in a crowded court room she would have to repeat all the horrible details of the crime which had made her almost crazy.

The trial of Price was set for the March term of court and Mrs. Miller was summoned shortly before that time. Her husband was called away from home for a few days and she lost the courage given her by his presence. Her mind turned to horrible remembrances, and while temporarily beyond self control she swallowed a dose of laudanum. She told her parents what she had done, but it was too late to save her.

A HANGING INEVITABLE.

When Price went to trial he had no defense to offer. The trial lasted less than a day. The jury knew that if it did not find him guilty he would be lynched, and the judge who sentenced him knew that if he did not say "hang" it would only hasten the time of Price's death.

Price received the sentence with a smile. He never weakened up to the hour of going to the scaffold.

AN IMPORTANT ACT.

The Institute Law Passed by the Last Legislature.

Its Object Is to Secure Primarily Good Work in the Common Branches and to Link All the State's Educational Interests Together.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 25.—Among the most important laws passed by the Thirty-sixth general assembly and signed by the governor is what is known as the institute law. Indeed it is the most important school legislation had in Missouri in the last twenty years. The central object of the law is to secure good work in the common branches in the 10,000 country schools and in the smaller town schools not under good supervision. The second object of the law is to link all the educational interests together—the elementary schools to the secondary schools, and these latter to the state university.

This law provides for a state training school to train and license institute conductors and instructors and for a summer normal institute in each county of the state to train and license the 12,000 common school teachers. The state training school will be in charge of a half dozen distinguished educators and will be one of the most memorable educational gatherings ever held in the state. It will be held at the close of the State Teachers' association, probably at the same place (Warrensburg, Mo.) and will be in session two weeks.

This law takes the licensing of the 12,000 common school teachers from the county commissioner as an individual and entrusts it to a board of institute conductors and examiners, of which board the county commissioner is a member. These institute conductors and instructors are employed by a county institute board. This county institute board will consist of the county commissioner and two persons appointed by the county court. It takes the $40,000 biennial examination fees heretofore paid by the teachers to the county commissioner and turns it into an institute fund to employ competent institute conductors and instructors including the county commissioner, if competent. In addition to the $1.50 heretofore paid by the teacher for examination, the sum of $1.50 is paid by him, but this entitles him to a month's instruction in a good institute and to a certificate if qualified. Under this law a certificate in the common branches can be secured valid for three years in any county in the state, thus tending to make teaching more of a profession.

Instead of requiring teachers to be examined in all the "ologies" as heretofore this law confines the examination of three grades of certificates to the common branches. Under the old law, in force for years, to obtain a first grade certificate a teacher must be examined in twenty-four branches.

The hundreds of thousands of patrons clamored for first-class teachers—that is, teachers bearing first-class certificates—little comprehending that such a certificate meant a whole college course. This demand on the part of the patrons precipitated the teachers upon the county commissioners, urging an examination in these higher branches. The county commissioners yielded and sent out hundreds of smatterers bearing these higher grade certificates. These teachers, finding these higher branches on their certificates, made haste to experiment upon the pupils at the first opportunity. It made no difference that the pupils were not ready for these higher branches; that they could not read or spell or write a decent letter. There seemed to be a "call" for the teachers to cross over into this inviting field of higher education and the "call" was promptly obeyed. Hence, the rise of our common school system has been superficiality.

All certificates now in existence are valid until they expire. Teachers are not obliged to attend the institutes, but are encouraged to do so, especially if inexperienced or incompetent. But teachers are obliged to take their examination from this unbiased, competent board of examiners, unless prevented from doing so by good and sufficient reasons, in which case to county commissioner grants an examination and forwards the manuscript to the conductor of the last institute for examination.

Illard Items.

We heard a fellow telling a joke the other day that ran down the far west. Sam Kiersey is up with the season with his farming. John Harris is corn up ready for the cultivator. Doceer and C. K. Crow are planting in sight of today. This is a very busy week. Some are planting and others getting ready with vim. Doce goes northward to work and will not go west until hay harvest. Jim Ce is pushing mules this week with the dogcatcher heels with a good team and plow. The Ballard grocery store handles the Monroe flour and a full stock of fresh groceries. M. F. Perry, we hear is able to be out at work again. Billy Powell & Co. have about 200 acres of corn and are still plowing and will plant about 75 acres more. Henry Moe has surely gone fishing as he has not been here for some time. We still sell Star so on along Henry. Eggs are legal tender for no tariff, so bring them along and get your dozen in 17 pound sugar. Two good horses for sale, one 6 the other 7 years old, inquire of postmaster. John Hayes sent town for a pair of marble pants and has H. C. law and is ready to play Alton's champion or any other champion. W. Cole's fence, his lot, against sheep. Uncle Moe has a new painted. Dr. Mc has papered & painted his house on the inside. Tom Sta. it is said done with his cattle good for it, he works hard and takes good care of his and we are glad to see him do well. S. Kiersey passed down the road to see Squirefollet. J. S. Arbutle is talking of rustling out to work the roads—they need it. John Arbutle sends us a card headed "Strayed: Stolen." What's the matter John, haven't struck it rough in Vernon Co? If so return honest old Bates. McClenney spent a couple of days trying to trade for a team and finally did as all do—came by and let Tho. Buc administer. Mr. Walker came over and H. Doe to extract a couple of teeth. Zack Janson shipped his cattle Wednesday, we hear. Sam Price will ship the 18th we are informed and then start west. Geo. Mosier bought a horse of Loren—guess he is a good one. Geo. Price is improving at this writing; was very sick a few days ago. Dick Andis is rushing things as usual, I tell you he makes Uncle Dick get up and hum. McCa: Jack could not quite trade. We would like a team. Little Dow Molnar was down after repairs. Amos Hughes came in today night with his groceries and marbles to two days making the round trip to Mirose. John Wright is turning the stalks just east of Ballard. Bill Hughs bought a horse, step and a jump lately see how little Sunday. Will Shelton, a U. I. man, on south of Johnston came up to his sister, the widow Mosher, after a load of corn, in some cause his luck left him when his mocracy left him last year. How could it be otherwise. Danie is putting in a crop at the, but expects to work at the house on the hill. C. C. Ponge calls around once in a great while get the news. Squire Loflet is busy, has the stock that keeps one busy at this season of the year and a big crop beside. E. J. tark must be plowing hard as we have not in him this spring. J. W. Cole seems to be getting along fine with his crops. Leedford of Johnston, is rushing things forsham. Geo. Teeters will be home from the U. I. university about June 1. Uncle R. Andrews was up getting Dick's plow shamed. Ballard has on the spring suit. All this has cleaned house, painted and papered. John Wright got a letter today, came one tell him where to find a farm to rent. Wendleton at the blacksmith shop after reps for his corn planter. Thompson Bros are getting corn as are several others. Far McF visited Sam Mc one evening last week reports Samie and Ray busy plowing and planting corn. McDaniel is keeping his boys at work as M. I. Embree is close to the field and says he wants to plant corn this week. You can't guess at Cap Price bought one day last week but cred is in print his girl will know, wont she Cap. Miss D. P. found walking good no doubt, it rather tiresome. She may as well get used to it as she will no doubt have lots of it to dthen she gets to California. Uncle Mose & Fater Mc went to work Saturday morning and thought they could do a good week's work. Will Cole planting corn today, Bill Bros. have about 50 acres of corn planted and still at work. Sam Kiersey thinks too late to plant corn. Will Houghton must be planting for all his neighbors in this as he has not been seen of late. The B met last night, as usual, with the Prof. hand. He comes out twice each week on tharmon hall. John Greer called a few minutes and made some purchases hence you expect to see him lose his mousetache. B. Tyler still at home hard at work. Whatout Dick Chenneworth, has he moved that the tell? He surely has as he prepared to leave. J. R. Kams tells us that in about a week he intends to ship his cattle, 150 head, to the fair at St. Louis. He goes to home in Kansas, where we all wish him well. Sam Price must be hauling his last load say this morning. Cap Price found his wife home last night. Uncle Billyge has gone to hard work, all account of this law. It is U. I. hence he too must about he was superceded by a U. I. man and a pointer, too.
