

THE BATTLE BEGUN.

ANTI-SUBTREASURY CHIEFS CALL A NATIONAL CONGRESS.

The Organization Of a New Order the Purpose Fixed.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 20.—The alliance this morning gave a final couple to the anti-subtreasury people by barring Gates of Missouri from the meeting of the alliance. This was done by a resolution excluding "all alliance men who are not vouched for by the chairman of their respective state delegations." Leonard refused to vouch for Mr. Gates and although he bore credentials from his state alliance he was forced to retire.

The anti-subtreasury people made prompt response by issuing the following call for a convention of anti-subtreasury alliance men at Memphis on December 16, prox: Headquarters of the Anti Subtreasury National Executive Committee, Indianapolis, Ind., November 20.—A call for a meeting of anti-subtreasury alliance men.

Whereas, The national executive committee of the anti-subtreasury men held in St. Louis, Mo., on the 14 and 15 of September, 1891, appointed to present to the supreme council of the National Farmers' alliance and industrial union when assembled in Indianapolis, November 17, 1891, a memorial and protest against the subtreasury and land loan schemes and proposed governmental control of railroad and telegraph lines have, in due form and respectful manner, appeared to present said protest to the supreme council; and

Whereas, The supreme council aforesaid has declined to hear said protest; and

Whereas, The committee was empowered and instructed by the St. Louis convention to call another national convention to hear and consider the report of said committee;

AN ANTI CONFERENCE CALLED.

Now, therefore, the national executive committee of the St. Louis convention does therefore truly issue this call for a national convention of national anti subtreasury men in the United States, to be held in the city of Memphis, in the state of Tennessee, on the 16th day of December, 1891, to hear and consider this report of the committee and take such final action in the premises as may seem proper and best for the general welfare.

Let all local organizations of Farmers' alliance and industrial union and other farmers' and industrial organizations send full delegations, the number from each such local organization to be determined by itself.

WILLIAM S. McALISTER, Chairman.
ROBERT W. NICHOLS, Secretary.

The anti subtreasury people also published a two column card charging Macune with wrecking the Texas alliance exchange and making big money thereby and with trying to sell out the alliance to the old political parties. Most of these charges were made at the Ocala meeting.

The reform press association threatens to bolt the alliance if the state agents' association carries out its purpose of making all purchases through the National union company.

The Lexington Intelligencer says in its own behalf:

"The Intelligencer is only going along telling the solid truth and making straight democracy. If this has friends away from Grover Cleveland, the Intelligencer can't help it. If it brings new ones to him it shall not cry out. What is wanted is a united democracy; a party declaring for issues based upon the wants of the people and adapted to the needs of good government."

AMERICAN CLOTHING HOUSE.

No need of this caution with our NOXALL $2 00 and $2 50 wool kersey pants. They'll not rip, but if they should, we'll give you another pair for them.

Our Sales for October were the Largest in all our Business Career.

WHY?

Yes, why? Why is it that our trade is constantly increasing while other merchants are complaining of dull trade, warm weather, &c., &c.

Would you like to know? Then read every word of this ad and you will know the principal reason. Here are many others—largest stock—reliable goods—courteous treatment—no misrepresentation—our guarantee is a guarantee.

$10 for $7 50. Last week we closed out from manufacturer four styles of regular $10 cassimere suits. They were anxious to sell, and we bought them very low, therefore the price, only $7 50.	$7 50 for $6. Another lucky purchase. At same time we closed out 22 Vermont Gray Melton overcoats. We've always sold these goods at $7 50, but we must keep our trade booming, and will sell them at $6 00.	$12 for $8. Cash talks, you know. This manufacturer had only 12 diagonal worsted overcoats left. They are worth $12 if they are worth a cent, but our cash bought them so as to sell for only $8.
$12 50 for $10 Friday we received another shipment of those genuine Washington Beaver overcoats. Can show you where other merchants have sold inferior goods this season at $12 50. These will go fast like the others at $10.	$2 for $1 25. 10 dozen Men's Cassimere pants, regular value $2, but by closing out the 10 dozen we bought them so as to sell at only $1 25.	50c for 39c. A Foxy Newsboy of Brooklyn.

New York Sun.
There is a youth in Brooklyn who will end his days as a stock manipulator on Wall street or as a shoe maker in state prison.

Not content with the usual 100 per cent gain on all newspapers sold, or with the methods adopted by newsboys to despoil the would-be newsreader, he has invented an entirely new method of cheating his customers, which has so far proved a success.

It can only be played when the newsboy is called upon to give change for a dime or quarter. On these occasions he sticks the hand in which he holds the coin deep down into his pocket and then pulls it out with a lot of nickels and coppers.

In the meantime he has changed the good silver piece for a spurious one he always has with him. While counting out the change he notices the silver coin, looks at it carefully, and then takes a large bite out of it. He hands it back to the customer and, with his voice choked with emotion, tells him he thinks it a little hard that a rich citizen would try to do a homeless orphan. The rich citizen promptly shoves the bad coin in his pocket and gives the boy another coin and tells him to keep the change. Whether he gives him the change or not the boy has the original bit of silver, and the price of his paper.

Inhaled Gas For Hours

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 20.—M. A. Bates of Grant City, editor of the Worth County Times, was discovered in his room at the Pacific hotel this morning in an almost lifeless condition. He had been inhaling gas from an open fixture for nearly twelve hours.

The hotel is lighted with water gas. On going to his room last night Mr. Bates asked the bell boy how to turn off the gas. He was shown how the fixture worked and that was the last seen of him until about 11 o'clock this morning when the door of his room was broken open and he was found on the bed in an unconscious condition. It is expected that he will recover. It is supposed that Mr. Bates pulled the chain on the fixture, after turning it out, thus turning it on again.

A Murderer Captured.

Cabool, Mo., Nov. 22.—James, the Wright county murderer, who escaped from the Laclede county jail six weeks ago, was captured today by constable Turner and his deputies. He had been hiding in Arkansas, but came here to see his family. He killed a man named Pruitt, a relative of his wife. The officers broke in the house while he was in bed. He will be sent to Lebanon, Mo.

A HERO'S DEATH.

Napoleon De Montague Loses His Life In Saving His Fellow Miners.

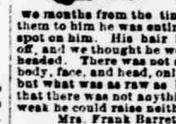

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 18.—Napoleon de Montague, a miner was killed yesterday in the Lance colliery at Plymouth, while endeavoring to save his fellow-workmen from a terrible death. He had fired a shot and ran behind a pillar. When it exploded the fire to some gas near the roof of a chamber communicating with the main gangway. Realizing that the fire might spread in a moment through the whole mine, De Montague tore off his coat and smothered the flame. Just as the fire was extinguished the roof of the chamber, loosened by the blast, fell upon him. He was rescued as soon as possible, only to die in the arms of his rescuers. Had the fire spread to the large bodies of gas in the mine a terrible explosion would have followed, endangering the lives of over 100 men. De Montague leaves a widow and five children.

The question of reforming drunkenness from liquor, and the opium and tobacco habit, has been decided successfully by Dr. Keely in his asylum at Dwight, Ills. The proper thing for friends and relatives to do with victims of these habits is to persuade them to go to Dwight and take treatment. Only a few weeks is necessary to effect a cure. Some of the most eminent men in the U. S. and Europe have been availing themselves of this treatment. It is said the per cent of those who fall back into their old habits after taking this treatment is only from one to five in a hundred.

RAW AS BEEF-STEAK,

Baby's Fearful Suffering from Skin Disease Covering Entire Body Cured by Cuticura.

My baby was taken very sick when he was three months old, and in a few days he began breaking out. We employed both of the best doctors, and they could do nothing for him. Then we sent for the best doctor in Kairo, Egypt, and he declared him for two weeks and he got worse all the time, and then I took him to a doctor who attends especially to skin diseases, and then he got worse than ever. Then I told my husband we had better try Cuticura. He said: "I don't see how it can do any good, but in least three months from the time we began giving them to him he was entirely well, and not a spot on him. His hair began growing right off, and we thought he would always be bald-headed. There was not a spot on his whole body, face, and head, only his nose and eyes, but what was as raw as beef-steak. So poor that there was not anything but bones, and so weak he could raise neither hand nor head." Mrs. Frank Barrett, Winfield, Mich.
