SHIRLEY CHILDS

SPIRITED AWAY.

Two Witnesses of the Wyoming Mysteriously Disappear.

Douglas, Wyo., May 5.—A decided sensation was created here this morning by the sudden and mysterious disappearance of the only known witness against the cattlemen who are now prisoners at Fort Russell. It will be remembered that just before the invaders attacked the K. C. ranch they captured two trappers named Jones and Walker who were held prisoners until after Ray and Champion were killed and then released. Both made their way to Casper and on Wednesday last were brought here and placed in charge of Deputy Sheriff Kimball. These men claimed to have witnessed the killing of Champion and Ray and as matter of fact are the only living witnesses who can testify positively against the regulators on the charge of murder. Kimball went to Glen Rock last night, leaving a deputy in charge and when he returned this morning Jones and Walker had disappeared. The men were allowed to run about the town during the day and slept in the office of the jail. Both came in late last night apparently pretty drunk and about midnight went out "for a walk" leaving the deputy asleep. From the best information obtainable they are still walking. Search has been made for them and telegrams have been sent in all directions, but no clue to their whereabouts has yet been received. The fugitives carried away two revolvers belonging to the sheriff.

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They say "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1. Trial size free. At all druggists.

Mexico, Mo., May 5.—E. M. Crigler of this city, a young colored man who has been making politics a study for some time, and who is yet a minor, wrote to Grover Cleveland for advice, he at that time being undecided in his choice between the two great national parties. Mr. Cleveland with characteristic promptness sent the following reply:

LAKEWOOD, N. J., May 2.—Dear Sir: I have received your letter and its enclosure. I am glad to know that you are thinking for yourself on political subjects. It seems to me that American citizenship ought certainly to develop a better test of party affection than the color of a man's skin. It cannot be that one party monopolizes all the promises of benefits to your race, and your preference between parties ought to be determined by thoughtful consideration of the political situation. Such consideration is the badge of fitness for citizenship. Yours truly, GROVER CLEVELAND.

A Romance in Real Life.

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 4.—On the platform of a Pullman at the depot here yesterday morning and indolent looking chap in English togs and a pretty young woman in red conversed so earnestly that they attracted the attention of everybody within range. Several passengers were anxious to tell what they knew of the story of the interesting pair and said that the man was a frank, honest fellow who would talk willingly. Cards were exchanged and his read: "Edward F. Griffin, Overseer Public Works Department, Hong Kong." He yielded his story like a major. Said he: "I am trying to persuade the girl here to stop off in Cheyenne and marry me, but she wants to go on to Colorado Springs and see her folks about it first. This is a genuine romance, just like a novel. Eight years ago we were lovers in Vermont and were engaged. My parents were Irish emigrants and poor, and her people were well fixed. It was agreed that I should start out to make my fortune, and that she should wait ten years for me. She has been true, and has waited like an angel. I worked in the Chicago stock yards, prospected in Colorado and tried a dozen things on the coast. Six years ago landed in Hong Kong. At first I was clerk in a wholesale house, then secured my present place. My salary is $5,000, and I make something on the side as you say in America. All the time I have thought of the girl and knew she was single and thinking of me, though I never heard of her. She now lives at Colorado Springs and has been visiting with friends at Helena. We met in the car Ogden and recognized each other at once. It was a pleasant and sweet meeting. Before the train had gone one hundred miles we were engaged again and will be married at her home right away." Griffin's story was smilingly corroborated by the girl.

Are you made miserable by indigestion, constipation, dizziness, loss of appetite or yellow skin? Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. Sold by H. L. Tucker.

A Boy Murderer's Remorse.

Kansas City, Mo., May 4.—Amos Avery, the 18 year-old boy who murdered John A. Miles, of Barton county, last September, and who was brought here to save him from being lynched, is having a terrible time of it in the second street jail. He is quiet enough during the day, but at night the shadow of his crime seems to drive him mad and he howls and yells and shrieks almost continuously. He has torn his clothing into shreds and threatens to brain the turnkey whenever that individual endeavors to quiet him. Avery shot Miles while driving along the public road and stole his team. This team seems constantly before his eyes now, and he frantically screams "Give me those horses! Give me those horses!" The boy was sentenced to be hanged April 29th last, but was granted a new trial.

A man may conquer himself but he is often powerless to combat with the elements; they must have their way. Editor McClure of the Philadelphia Times is playing in hard luck. When General McCausland destroyed Chambersburg in 1864 all McClure's Lincoln campaign correspondence, including more than a score of letters from good old Abe, and many others which would now be priceless went up in flames and down in ashes. By the fire of Wednesday night the correspondence and mementoes of McClure's thirty years' intercourse with the public men of the country and most carefully accumulated political and personal data were lost, including a letter from General Grant covering four closely written pages in reply to a confidential proposition from the Times to pay him $100 a column for any number of contributions concerning the war.

Bradfield's Female Regulator.

has won, on merit alone, a widespread and enviable reputation. It is a combination of vegetable agents, the result of the experience of one who made the disease of women a life long study. Taken according to directions the organs awake to new life and energy, leaving the woman free from pain at these periods. Sold by all druggists.

A Brute Behind the Bars.

Joplin, Mo., May 4.—Marshall Pyatt, of Webb City, accompanied by a deputy, drove up to the entrance of the salvation army barracks last night and entering seized and placed under arrest one Frank Reynolds, who is charged with outraging the person of Lizzie Martin, a little 11 year old girl living in Webb City. The Webb City officers instead of taking Reynolds to Webb City locked him up in the Joplin jail. This was done to keep the prisoner safe from mob violence there being strong feeling against him at Webb City. Reynolds arrived at Webb City last Saturday and registered from Louisville, Ky. He represented himself as a paper hanger and Monday was given work by Mr. Martin. Mrs. Martin was away from home, and after setting Reynolds to work Mr. Martin drove over to Carthage, leaving at home his little daughter and son. Reynolds sent the boy away on an errand and while he was absent assaulted the girl. The little girl was seriously injured, being choked and beaten. After the assault Reynolds came to Joplin.

Why will you cough when Shiloh's cure will give you immediate relief. Price 50c and $1. Sold by H. L. Tucker.

Little Rock, Ark., May 4.—A very clever swindle was perpetrated in this city on the treasurer of Pike Lodge, I. O. O. F., Mr. Philip Ottenheimer. A consumptive-looking young man, well dressed named Jas. A. Smittle, called upon Mr. Ottenheimer at 430 o'clock and presented a traveling card from Huntington lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., of Huntington, W. Va. He then presented a voucher signed by the noble grand and secretary of that lodge for $22, accompanied by an order on any lodge to whom presented for payment. The young man said he had to leave for Hot Springs on the next train, and that he needed the money badly. Mr. Ottenheimer cashed the order after consulting with other members of the lodge. Shortly after he telegraphed to F. D. Fuller, secretary of the Huntington lodge, asking if the voucher was genuine, and he received a reply that it must be fraudulent. The police was notified and the night watched, but Smittle had in all probability left on the cannon ball for St. Louis, and he has not yet been heard of.

Disgraced his Cloth.

Omaha, Neb., May 4.—"Rev." J. B. Bell was taken from the general conference hall at noon to-day and assigned to temporary quarters at the police station. The "reverend" gentleman's very shiny hat and his broadcloths coat did not grace the patrol wagon. Detective Vizard, in citizen's clothes, made the arrest while the conference was in session, and accompanied him to the station. The good brother did not blanch when the minion of the law touched his shoulder, but went quietly, mildly protesting that such tribulation never surprised the "chosen." The "Rev." J. B. Bell is not a delegate, but from all accounts is a wolf in sheep's clothing. His arrival has been expected and he will be forwarded to the authorities at Lincoln where he will answer to the charge of having obtained money under false pretenses. His method has been to negotiate in an offhand manner a loan to cover temporary necessities. In this his suavity of manner and elegant apparel have been of great assistance.

It has been observed that it is a lamentable fact that Pride often wears patent leather boots and begs its tobacco.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Noves, 250 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Fulton, Mo., May 3.—There is reason to believe that in the near future there will be some startling developments regarding the state lunatic asylum at this place and its present management. Facts are being gathered which, when given to the public, as they are sure to be shortly, will create a profound sensation all over the state. If the Republic would send one of its staffs here he could be put on the track of much that is of interest to the people and that would throw light on the way the State's charitable institutions are conducted.

You can do but little with the stubborn fool who has "a mind of his own." He will go his own way and destruction is before him.

Shiloh's cure will immediately relieve cough, whooping cough and bronchitis. Sold by H. L. Tucker.
