Duwall & Percival of this city are saving the farmers of Bates county thousands of dollars by giving them the benefit of their lower rates of interest on farm loans.

Mrs. Frank Lloyd presented her husband with a fine daughter, Wednesday.

The Sunday school convention at Summit school house was largely attended.

We are sorry to learn that Uncle Alf Miller is still confined to his bed and is very weak.

Geo. L. Smith did not get to attend the Washington encampment on account of sickness in his family.

C. W. Baldwin, of Hamilton, Ill., who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. A. Denton, returned home Sunday night.

R. C. Clark and Miss Fannie Arried, both of Altona, were united in marriage in the parlors of the Laclede hotel Monday.

John Patton and wife, who have been spending the past week visiting in Kansas returned home Monday.

Dick Dalton will speak at Adrian at 1 o'clock p. m., the 29th inst. The democrats of north Bates should give him a big turnout.

Alexander Bergman, the anarchist who tried to kill H. C. Frick, had his trial at Pittsburg, Penn., Saturday, and was given 21 years in the penitentiary.

R. A. Harris left Sunday morning for Lexington, Kentucky, on a business and pleasure trip. He will be absent a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hickman and Miss Mary Walker, who have been spending the past week at Monegaw Springs, returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. Dalton, candidate before the democratic convention for governor will speak at Adrian the 29th, and the citizens of northern Bates should give him a rousing turnout. He also speaks the same evening at Rich Hill.

Hon. D. A. DeArmond is not confining himself entirely to his district during this campaign. He spoke at Warrensburg last week, and his effort was highly complimented by a number of the ablest men in the state.—Lamar Democrat.

Warrensburg happens to be in his district.

W. R. Hoffman, of East Boone, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Lulu, were in the city Monday and favored us pleasantly. Mr. H. showed us a bill of a grand democratic rally to be held at Clark's bridge, located 5 miles northwest of Archie, on Wednesday, September 28th, 1892. Farmer Dick Dalton, Hon. D. A. DeArmond and other speakers are advertised. No doubt they will have a good time.

There is a story afloat to the effect that Henry T. Burckhardt, the handsome young editor of the Howard County Democrat, is about to become a married man. Burckhardt is one of those jolly good fellows who like all the girls so well that they do not feel like showing any partiality. That is probably the reason that he has delayed this important step so long. And he it is known there are gray hairs in the Howard county editor's head and many a furrow in his cheek.—K. C. Times.

In view of the departure from our midst of the Rev. J. W. Stockton, late pastor of the Baptist church of this city, the Butler Ministerial Union hereby records its high appreciation of him both as a man and as a faithful co laborer in all the highest interests of the city and community. It is with sincere regret that we lose him from our number, as also from personal association and christian work outside the union.

By order of the union,
JOHN B. HILL, Pres.
W. D. BLAIR, Sec'y.

Judge DeArmond.

It was the good fortune of the editor of the Sun to make the acquaintance of the gentleman whose name heads this article. We accompanied him during two days of the time which he spent in his canvass in this county and if the impression upon the people he met was as favorable as that which he made upon us—and we see no reason for thinking otherwise—he is certain to have a very strong support in this county. There are many reasons why he should be returned to congress not for the ensuing term alone, but for as many terms as he may desire. One of these reasons is because he can and does represent the people. He can because he has the mental ability to understand the wants of the people and also the best means of attaining the desired ends. His record, both as judge of the circuit court and as a congressman is good and shows that he truly represents his constituents. As a speaker Mr. DeArmond is plain, logical and convincing. He does not attempt to arouse an evanescent enthusiasm by the tricks of oratory, but appeals directly to the intelligence of his hearers. As a consequence when he makes a convert to democratic ideas he stays converted.

Personally, Judge DeArmond is a cultivated gentleman, temperate, in every respect, with no traces of that false dignity possessed by many public men which seems to say to the commoner people, "I am of a higher order than thou." The people of this district will make a mistake if they do not give him a big majority, and—well, they are not going to make a mistake in this instance.—Osceola Sun.

Farmers and Bankers.

The Butler Union circulated as a supplement, the agricultural report issued by the state board of agriculture several weeks ago. The editor's attention has since been called to the fact that the supplement contained the outrageous lying(?) report that in this state there were farmers who had actually money deposited in the banks. The Union editor at once says that the statement is a lie and that the farmers are too poor to deposit any money in the bank. After repudiating all connection with the contents of "that supplement" the Union adds:

"That sheet will never get circulation through this paper again until it has been rigidly inspected and we know it contains no lying statistics."

In other words anything which tends to show that the farmers are not going to the devil, will be strictly prohibited.

The Union publishes an ad. which says that the stockholders and several of the officers of the Farmers' bank of that place are actually farmers. It might be well to add for the information of the Union editor that among the heaviest depositors in the banks of Rich Hill are farmers.—Rich Hill Tribune (Rep.)

Judges Reese and Fix, the Democratic nominees from this end of the county will be elected without any trouble. Reese as presiding justice has demonstrated ability and backbone, while no more honorable, fairer or better associate judge than Fix ever served on the county court, and as to Jas. S. Hayes, if the Democrats of the northern district do not stand by him it will be their own loss.

Judge Boxley is gaining friends down here each day. The party has no better campaigner, as the county had no better prosecutor than genteel, fair-minded, fearless Calvin F. Boxley. Every Democrat and lots of Republicans realize this, not to mention the third partyites, who were so well aware of it that they made no nomination.—Rich Hill Review.

Capt. Chas. E. Leonard, of this county, and brother of L. Leonard, says: "If I had 100,000 votes, every one of them would go against that brother of mine, who is running for governor on the third party ticket. I am opposed to that whole business and regret very much the course my brother is taking."—Booneville Advertiser.

To Teachers, Patrons and Pupils of Bates County.

Columbus day—the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America will be celebrated in nearly every district in the United States on Oct. 21, 1892. President Harrison has proclaimed it a national holiday. It is to be a day of rejoicing, for the discovery of our country—the birth place of liberty and free institutions. The public school is to lead the enterprise. They should, because they are the crowning product of four centuries of American civilization; because they are to be the instruments of universal education and elevation and patriotism; they are to show man his relation to man, to the universe, to God.

All should aid in making Columbus day one the grandest celebrations in the history of our government. Comparatively few can attend the opening exercises at Chicago, October 21st, but all at the same hour can celebrate the great discovery—an event that did more toward dispelling ignorance and superstition, and opening up fields of active thought and scientific research than any the last ten centuries.

Let Missouri and especially Bates county, be in the front rank in this matter. Let every teacher have exercises and every citizen aid him; let him vary the national program to suit his surroundings. In the country let arrangements be made to discuss the needs, aims and objects of the school by the citizens, teacher and visiting speakers. Let all bring their baskets, spend the day and go home feeling a deeper interest in the schools than ever before.

In cities and villages let the program be carried out in the forenoon and in the afternoon have a review of the students after which have exercises at the public hall.

NATIONAL PROGRAM.

Raising and saluting the flag.
The Song of Columbus Day.
The address, by the best speaker among the boys.
The Ode. Read or recited by a young lady.
America. In all cases to be the closing song.

Co. Commissioner.

Cholera Or Poison

Sedalia, Mo., Sept. 18.—Concerning the mysterious illness of of the family of Thomas Boswell and the death of his 24-year old, son Fred, referred to in these dispatches last night, a new and startling theory has been advanced. It was first thought the death resulted from poison, but Coroner Mu-hi held an inquest on the dead man to day and declares the symptoms indicate sporadic cholera, but that it might be poison. He was unable to state positively and a further investigation will be made. No occasion for alarm exists, as the family have in no way been subjected to infection from the plague.

Miss Edith Robinson, of Butler, was in the city last week, visiting friends. Mrs. W. F. Tygard arrived home from Butler on the Pacific to night. Miss Dora Patten returned home from Butler on the noon Pacific yesterday. Misses Alice and Lizzie Boxley, who have been visiting friends in this city for the past few days, returned to their home in Butler this evening. They were accompanied by Miss Hattie Donohoe.—Monday's Review.
