

The Butler Weekly Times.

VOL. XVII.

BUTLER, MISSOURI, THURSDAY DECEMBER 6, 1894.

NO 3

MAKE THIS AD BIG MR. PRINTER MAKE IT BIG

We want Every Shoe wearer to hear it.

GREAT VALUES IN SHOES.

We have inaugurated a special sale in the height of the season when you most need shoes.

Its a Big Money Saver For You.

Ladies best quality hand sewed turn and hand sewed welt (extension sole) 4, 5 & $6 shoes for $2.50. Ladies 3 and 3.50 shoes for $2. Ladies 2 and 2.50 shoes for $1.50. Misses shoes 1.25 & $1.50, worth 2 and $2.50. Mens shoes at $2 and $2.50 this lot contains 3, 4 and $5 goods.

We can't enumerate all the lots but come and see what we are offering. We are not going to quit business but we are going to reduce stock and close out all broken lots. We are making price that will do it. If you want $1.00 to go as far as $2.00 usual does attend the sale.

MAX WEINER

Positively none of these goods sold to other Dealers. We want shoe wearers to have full benefit of this sale.

Elkhart Items.

Mrs. John Page is slowly recovering. Mrs. Mary Keaton is somewhat better. Mr. Payton Neafus is afflicted with something like erysipelas. There was a big ball in the Dixie neighborhood Thanksgiving night and the literary was postponed until Saturday. Miss Hattie Badgely captured the prize as the most popular young lady at the Mt. Vernon magic lantern show. Mrs. Robert Heddeson entertained three school marms last Saturday and Sunday. There was a "feast of reason and a flow of soul," besides a bountiful supply of substantials. ELKHART.

New Home Items.

Sam Deaton of Foster signs for the TIMES. Jim Thomas, I guess, is going west as he was seen waggling a satchel home from Gent West's sale. Louis Jones bought him a fine jersey cow for which he paid $10 a spot. Miss Rosie Robb is very sick. Caldwell and Still butchered Tuesday. The Robb boys were summoned home from the saw mill, Monday on account of the illness of their sister, Rosie. There will be a Christmas tree at the school house. All turn out and make it an enjoyable affair. Wm. Cope, of Kansas City, was down visiting his brother John. John H. Cope has a new $30 shot gun. Charley Garwood and Dane Jackson, both of Virginia, were down looking for farms to buy. Press Mullis, of Worland, Mo., was down and bought 300 acres of land from a land agent at the Hill. Bring on your produce, I have the goods to exchange for them. I have plenty of ammunition and loaded shells on hand. Blood Woods has the New Home fever again. I am agent for the TIMES, and am authorized to transact any business connected with it.

Sign for the TIMES. Our teacher, Miss Coonts, is taking great interest in pleasing the little ones.

N. M. NESTLERODE.

STOLEN—From in front of T. W. Legg's carriage shop on the night of Nov. 7th, one road wagon made in Goshen, Ind., by Stultze & Walker, center and side spring, stick body, painted black, gear red. I will pay a liberal reward for information leading to recovery of same. Wagon has been used about six months. 52 4t T. W. LEGG.

New Firm.

Having purchased the stock of goods belonging to J. E. Harper, on south side square, I expect to continue the business at the same stand and hope by fair dealing to merit a part of your patronage.

I have secured the services of my father, J. E. Arnold, to assist me in the store, and we cordially invite everybody to come in and see us.

52 3t H. B. ARNOLD.

TOBACCO FOR SALE. 4,000 pounds in leaf at 10c a pound. Two miles south of Elkhart. P. S. FERGUSON

Bodies of Entombed Miners Found.

Webb City, Mo., Dec. 2.—On May 17, 1892, James Hamblin, Chas. E. Lett and Harry Roach were buried and killed by a cave in at the Troupe mines here. On March 15, 1893, the body of Hamblin was discovered, and yesterday that of Roach was recovered and identified by his clothing and watch. That of Lett remains entombed. Thousands of dollars have been expended in the effort to recover them.

Holiday Presents

for everybody. We have a beautiful line of the latest novelties and patterns in fur. Smyrna and Moquette rugs, Chenille and damask curtains and table covers, pictures and picture frames, etc. Your last and best chance for something beautiful, practical and appropriate for a Christmas present. North of Post Office, Butler, Mo.

D. W. DRUMMONDS.

CHRISTMAS AT O. H. F. S.

THE CHRISTMAS FIGURE

On our Furniture is a pleasing one, because we have trimmed our prices to suit even people who are short of cash. Oh! what a Table for your darling daughter! The thing she has longed for. A beauty for $2. That Ladies' Desk will delight your wife. Useful, ornamental, strong. But for comfort of your son, or, perhaps, papa, the Grandpa Armchair is a rare affair. Elaborately finished in the finest possible way. It is going at $2.25, $2.50, $3, etc. We can't tell you all the charming hits we're selling for the holidays. Let your eyes enjoy our picnic of good things.

G. B. HICKMAN.

NO TROUBLE AT MONTGOMERY

Kolb and His Followers March to the State House Grounds.

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 1.—From daylight this morning the streets of Alabama's capital resounded with the tramp of armed men and the roll of drums, and the early morning sun glistened upon hundreds of bristling bayonets, all of which marked the arrival and presence of the State militia to participate in the inauguration of Governor-elect W. C. Oates. Each of the soldiers, at the direct orders of Governor Jones, carried forty rounds of ball cart ridges for rifle, with other rounds close at hand. As they marched steadily up the streets in close order there was show in their manner and bearing a readiness for whatever might come. Hundreds of country men, attired in rough clothes and slouch hats, also came to town in small groups during the past twenty-four hours by train, wagon and mules. They did not appear to be angry, made no boasts or threats, but gazed rather strangely upon the militia. They were here at Captain Kolb's request to see him sworn in as Governor without the form of law. At Kolb's house a long secret caucus of Populist leaders was held this morning.

Governor Jones did not anticipate trouble, but was prepared to stamp it out promptly if it should appear. "I have ordered the militia to carry ball cartridges so as to be ready for action if requested."

As the morning wore on there appeared to be an increase in the number of countrymen in the city, but none carried arms outwardly. The militiamen ostentatiously around the streets with their guns and ammunition belts filled with cartridges.

Governor Jones and his staff were at the State house early in the morning, busily engaged in making preparations to protect the inaugural services from violence. At 10:30 the militiamen began to assemble at the Armory.

At a caucus of the Kolbites last night it was decided to assemble at the State house at 1 o'clock to day, one hour in advance of the inauguration. Some difficulty was experienced in getting an official to administer the oath, two Populist judges declining to act on the ground that they would lose their offices by being impeached for treason. At 11 o'clock a message was received at the State house that Kolb had taken the gubernatorial oath in a downtown office and was coming to the State house to make his speech. Governor Jones issued orders to give free access to the State house grounds to all as long as those who should enter should behave in an orderly manner.

Kolb was sworn in by James W. Powell, a justice of the peace, in the law office of Warren Reese and at the same time the oath was administered to J. C. Fanville as secretary of State; W. T. Lynch, as auditor; J. P. Oliver, superintendent of education and Warren Reese, Jr., as attorney general. Kolb and his cabinet then proceeded to the State house for the purpose of making a speech. He was followed by several hundreds of his adherents. They marched up the State house steps through the ranks of the assembled militia and to their places beside the identical portico upon which Jefferson Davis was declared President of the Confederate States.

In a few minutes Governor Jones sent for Captain Kolb, who was escorted into his presence by Lieutenant Irwin of the regular army. "I understand, sir," said Governor Jones, "that you propose to make a speech on these grounds, claiming to be Governor of Alabama."

"That is my intention," answered Kolb.

"Then I must say to you that the moment you attempt it I will have

GLORIOUS BARGAINS.

During the Month of December USEFUL CHRISTMAS GIFTS

FOR MENS, BOYS and CHILDRENS WEAR.

We are too busy to quote prices this week but come and see what we can do for you in mens, boys and childrens suits and overcoats. Save money by buying from us.

Lowest Price House in the County on Underwear

JOE MEYER, THE PEOPLES CLOTHIER.

you arrested and carried off the grounds," answered the Governor. "I say this in all kindness to you. If you were Governor you would do the same thing in a similar case. I will not permit you or any one else on these grounds to interrupt the inauguration proceedings of Governor Oates." Kolb looked around at the assembled troops and with a wave of his hand started down and out of the grounds followed by his adherents. They congregated again in the streets outside the capitol grounds. A wagon stood nearby and upon this Captain Kolb mounted. He stated that the proceedings would be opened with prayer. A Populist clergyman mounted the wagon and at his motion the Populists uncovered their heads. In simple English the clergyman invoked the blessing of God upon the assemblage, "a plain people, O God," he said, "we are here to secure an honest government."

At its conclusion Captain Kolb made a short, temperate address. The only bitterness in it was directed at Governor Oates, whom he termed a usurper. He declared that he had been legally elected governor and that he would use every means to gain the position which he declared belonged to him. He cautioned the people against violence and amid cheers descended from the wagon.

Dr. Crow followed with desperate and bloodthirsty threats. "They call me an anarchist in this state," said he. "If being opposed to ballot box thieving is anarchy, then thank God I am one." He called Governor Oates' followers scoundrels, and after cautioning peace called on every one present to meet him to night to form a company for the support of Kolb. There were not over 300 Kolbites in the crowd and no signs of arms among them. After this speech all dispersed and proceeded down town, where they began enlisting in Crow's company, although the latter has apparently no definite plan of action. A battery of artillery was swung into position on the hill in front of the state house and the cavalry withdrawn.

About 2 o'clock Governor-elect Oates reached the state capitol, escorted by the militia. The inaugural ceremonies were preceded by a prayer, after which Governor Jones introduced his successor, who was greeted with prolonged cheers. The oath of office was administered to him and the inauguration closed. There was no trouble and the incident appeared to be closed without the anticipated conflict.

TAYLOR BROTHERS WEAKEN.

Fear Mob Violence Upon Removal From St. Joseph to Linn County for Trial.

St. Joseph, Mo., Dec. 2.—Sheriff Carson received advices this afternoon from Sheriff Barion, of Linn county, stating that he would arrive here to-morrow and take the Taylor brothers, the alleged murderers of the Meeks family, back with him for arraignment in the Linn county courts on Tuesday.

When the Taylors were told that they were to be taken back, they became seriously alarmed, and the elder brother expressed great fear that they might meet with mob violence. He also stated that they would ask for a change of venue at once, as they are satisfied they cannot secure a fair trial at their home.

The brothers show a decided tendency to weaken, now that they know they will be taken back, and the boasts they have made all along to the effect that they wanted to be tried in Linn county have fallen flat.

The Linn county sheriff will come with a heavy guard and thinks he will have no trouble to defend his prisoners. It is thought that the prisoners will be taken secretly out of St. Joseph and taken to Linn county by a round-about way.

The Modern Mother

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Co. only.

Money to Loan.

The Missouri State Bank has on hand a large amount of surplus money that we are anxious to loan on good security. Parties wishing to borrow either on Personal or Real Estate Security in small or large amounts or on short time or for long time can be accommodated at once by calling. Will loan on Real Estate on time from one to five years and allow borrowers to pay part or all at any time and stop interest Money in Bank; no delay. 50 tf.

HAVE YOUR—

PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED

By J. A. TRIMBLE,

Prescription Druggist.

West Side Square.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE