In many place the sidewalks of Butler are in need of repair and in other places sidewalks of any kind are not visible.

If an occupation tax was all that required the attention of a city council, there might be some excuse in electing men of small bore to the office of alderman, but the tax payers before the year is up will be forcibly reminded that it takes business men to look after the affairs of this city and it behooves the people to look well to their interests in casting their votes.

Nevada Mail.—Chas. F. Jenkins is under arrest at Belton, charged with bigamy. W. H. Marsh of Montrose, whose 17-year old daughter Jenkins married at Waarensburg a few days ago, caused the arrest. Jenkins says he has another wife, but that he has not seen her for seven years. He at first declared that he had a divorce, but afterwards admitted that he did not have a divorce. The bride was taken home and Jenkins was taken to jail at Clinton.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral possesses powerful healing qualities, which manifest themselves whenever this remedy is employed in colds, coughs, throat or lung troubles. Its anodyne and expectorant effects are promptly realized. It is a chemical success and a medical triumph.

Some malicious person or persons have circulated the report that the city council contemplated putting an occupation tax of $10 on cows, and also a tax on sewing machines. Now there is not the slightest foundation for such a report, but as there are certain people who are inclined to place credence in the statement we make this denial.

Amsterdam Breeze.—It took the populists the three hours to nominate a School Commissioner. They adopted the Omaha and St. Louis Platforms, also Brother Atkeson's famous war whoop of "Down with the Banks!" and have gone forth to knock the "stuff" out of the plutocratic school commissioners.
