Virginia Items.

["We heard 'em say it and noted it down, The things that happened about the town, So don't blame us if true or not, We always give you the best we've got."]

Mamie McManis, of Iowa, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Wm Drysdale.

Lost—Near Butler, one new process gasoline stove tank 3 oil screws. The finder will please leave same at Mr Arnold's hardware store.

The meeting at Nestlerode school house is still going on and will continue this week.

Chinch bugs are getting away with some wheat fields.

Elmer Garner has not heard of his hogs yet. He offers a liberal reward. Corn is coming up slowly. Flax is looking well.

Misses Alice Crooks and Sarah Oldham visited the family of John Cope at New Home Saturday and Sunday.

A. J. Park was at Clinton last week.

Miss Tye, of Amsterdam, called to see Miss Rachel Park Saturday evening.

Mrs. W. E. Pyle, of Golden City, Mo., is visiting her father and mother, Mr and Mrs Washington Park.

J. M. Catterlin and family, of Butler, took dinner with George Adams' family Sunday.

Earl Holloway is up and around again.

Will Kennedy, of Passaic, passed through Virginia Sunday.

H. P. Nickell was in Butler Saturday.

Dr. Christy and Milton Flesher, of Butler, passed through here Sunday. The boys say they had a good time at Mr Kelly's social.

Alta Park moved his family to Butler last week, where he will engage in the carpenter work.

NEL'S CLERK.

Ballard Items.

Nearly everybody is planting corn in this vicinity. Wheat, oats and flax looks nice.

Mort Murphy and wife of Altona, visited the family of Judge Cole, one day last week.

Miss Sallie Hannah of Butler, visited the family of Mr Bell last week.

Dr. McFarland and family passed through town Friday returning from a visit to his brother Sam.

Chris Greer and Will Cole took their colts to pasture Saturday.

Uncle Bobby Wright, of near Butler, spent Sunday with Judge Cole.

Miss Lottie McClelleny, of Lucas, is visiting her brother, E. L. McClelleny. Geo. Chandler came up Maple avenue with a broad smile on his face, he says it's a boy.

What's the matter with Culver, as several of the Culverters were in Ballard last week trading.

Earl Corwin and Miss Myrtle Hurt was married Sunday evening at the home of the bride, two miles west of Ballard.

Mr. Black of Austin, visited J. B. Hays Sunday.

Born, to the wife of George Price, a fine baby boy.

Mrs. Emma Johnson and sister, Miss Anna Griggs, called on Mrs. W. B. Cole Saturday.

Wonder if that young lady found her slipper, and who pulled it out of the mud?

Jim Cole and family visited his parents Sunday.

W. B. Morlan went to Ulrich Saturday after a load of goods.

Ned Cole is done planting corn.

Jim Woods and wife took dinner at Pa's Sunday.

The boys had quite a lot of fun catching Jim Woods' pet coon Friday night.

Culver Items.

Business rather dull in our line of late.

Our smith is the only one in town who is kept busy all the day long.

Prof. W. C. Barkley is afraid he will take the measles, so the children say.

John Ray brought out a corn planter for his brothers, as the old one failed to go when put to the test.

The boys got quite a joke on our village merchant a few days since, but Charley takes it all right and gives good ones in return.

James Bradley went a few miles south with his pruning shears, and will go to Vernon Co., as soon as he receives an invoice of shears from Kansas City.

J. M. Graham drives a horse to his buggy that is 25 years old. It is the second horse he ever owned, and he (the horse) is as big a fool as if only sixteen.

Fred Carlisle almost worked himself down, Tuesday last. He tried to make a harrow and spring wagon, besides sharpening plows all in one day.

Our Ray was up Tuesday, for repairs for his Uncle Sam and Aunt Emma.

Hear Johnny Herrman sing as he holds down that sulky plow, quite a different tune to what he sings when walking—just so with us.

Our feeders seem rather blue over late cattle markets, but live in hopes. J. A. Warford and wife visited relatives, South-west, Tuesday.

Decker Bros., say 35c has been the top for corn, and they never offered 40c.

Pasture for stock seems to be hard to find in Shawnee, as almost all the large pastures are plowed up of late.

John Deerwester has his fence in fine shape and has set out a lot of nice walnut trees along South street.

Amos Hughes, the rustler of our eggs and chickens, passed down Central Ave., Wednesday bound for Friend Carpenter's.

C. J. Greer was out rustling chickens, one day this week.

We did not sell, but barrowed our "taters" as though we intended to stay—and we do. JACK.

Nyhart Items.

J. H. Root, of Butler, was in our midst a day or two ago.

Doc Patterson has sold his cattle. They were fine ones.

Everett Silvers and A. W. Craig have planted about 100 acres of corn this year.

There has been lots of small grain sowed this year, but if people don't watch the little chinch bugs will destroy a good deal of it.

Earnest Pearce and Orville Pickett are shipping corn.

Harley King will commence his store building the first of next week. It will be one of the finest that was ever put up.

Atkinson need not think for a minute that Judge Ballard does not know where he is at on the silver question, for he does.

Tom Clark, Will Smith and Mat Adams went fishing Tuesday, but did not get many. Fish are scarce this year.

There will be another S. S. convention the second Sunday in May. I wonder if our S. J. will be represented the same as before. I don't think we could do any better, for Messrs. Frederick, Wington and Moffett are good workers. Manning Daniels is putting out 40 acres of corn and 30 acres of flax. C. Crigler was in our midst once more. He is looking well. William Smith, Charles Hoagland and Edward Frederick went hunting the first of the week, and got a good many squirrels. John Hoagland has sold part of his cattle. They are nice ones. We are sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Parks, of Virginia. Sil Ehart is remodeling his dwelling. I think something will happen soon, so look out, boys, for the cow bells. GEN. CODY.

TO TALK ABOUT SILVER.

Saline County Democrats Call a Convention for That Purpose.
Marshall Mo. April 29.—The democratic central committee of Saline county met to-day and passed the following resolutions:
Resolved, by the democratic central committee of Saline county, That it is the sense of the said committee that the democratic party of Saline county should take immediate action to express its opinion in the position silver ought to occupy in the financial system of the federal government and an early state convention of the democracy of Missouri should be called for the purpose of making public a declaration as to party policy for the purpose of the great campaign in 1896 and to repudiate the gold bug bond debt policy of the Cleveland administration; that conventions should be held in every county in the state and resolutions expressing the sentiment of the party in the different counties therefore be it
Resolved, That a democratic convention for Saline county is hereby called to meet at the court house in Marshall Mo., at 1 o'clock p. m., May 27, 1895, to express the sentiment of the Saline county democracy and that said convention be composed of one delegate for every fifty votes cast for governor Stone and one for every fraction over 25, to be elected by township meetings to be held on May 25, 1895.

Resolved that the committee favors the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the ratio of 16 to 1 by the government of the United States.

THE PISTOL IN KENTUCKY.

Governor Brown's Son and a Woman Shot Dead by a Wronged Husband.

Louisville, Ky., April 30.—Fulton Gordon, a member of a fine family in this state, followed Archibald Dixon Brown, son and private secretary of Governor Brown of this state, and Mrs. Gordon to the house 1025 Madison avenue, and broke in on them in a private room.

Brown was prepared for such visit and his pistol was lying near. Before he could reach it, however, the enraged man began firing. His aim was true and every shot must have cast effect, as Brown's body was riddled. Brown fired two shots, neither of which took effect, and then staggering to a chair in the corner sank in it a moment and then fell over dead. Gordon then turned to his wife and fired at her, striking her in the abdomen. Though mortally wounded, she was able to get down the steps and run twenty feet to the cellar.

When the police rushed in Gordon was thought to have been shot, but when he was examined it was found that he was not wounded. He is, however, in convulsions. Mrs. Gordon was Miss Nellie Bush, of this city and comes from one of the best families in the city. She eloped with Gordon about ten years ago and moved to Frankfort. She is 30 years old and leaves three children. Young Brown was recently divorced from his wife. When the divorce was published no woman's name was connected with the case, but it was understood that the reason for the divorce lay in Brown's intimacy with Mrs. Gordon.

Miller Went Free.

Kansas City Times, 27
Two families started overland from Kansas City yesterday afternoon for Bates county, Missouri. They were the families of Cornelius Miller and Mrs. Mary Weeks. As was told in the Times yesterday Miller was under arrest on the charge of using a cancelled postage stamp. He is 67 years of age, and his wife, who is 10 years his junior, says she is the guilty one, if anyone is guilty. Miller's case was set for hearing on April 22 in the United States court, but it was not called until yesterday. After the Times had called attention to the pitiable condition of Miller's family Miller was set at liberty. With his family and the family of Mrs. Weeks, who was an important witness in the case, he started for his home in Bates county. Missouri, yesterday afternoon. They were assisted out of town by contributions from the humane society and from reporters.
