OUTLAW COMES TO GRIEF.

Not to Flight by a Woman, Leaving Her Horse and Revolver Behind.
 Sedan, Kan., April 1.—Ben Craven, a notorious outlaw of the old school, who has been operating in the Oange country, south of here, started in to rob the town of Elgin, a small place on the state line, at an early hour this morning, but was frustrated by a woman.

Craven came to town from the territory in the evening, and made his boast that he was going to rob the town that night. No one seemed to pay any attention to him, as boasts of this character are of common occurrence. About 1 o'clock a. m. he came to the store of Ira Stout, and broke open the front door. Mr. Stout, who lives with his family in the rear of the store, was awakened by the noise, and came upon the robber, who greeted him with the salutation of "Hands up."

Stout immediately complied and led the way to the living apartments where his safe was located for the purpose of complying with the de mands of the robber and give over to him all the contents.

As the two men came into the room Mrs. Stout sprang from the bed and grappled with the intruder, grasping the barrel of his revolver.
 This gave her husband an opportu nity, and a desperate encounter en sued, in which Stout received an ugly scalp wound by being struck over the head with the revolver in the hands of the outlaw. Mrs.
 Stout continued to the battle with Craven until he was compelled to drop his weapon and flee. He was followed some distance by Stout, but made his escape into the Indian territory, which is half a mile dis tant. A large posse is in pursuit, and his capture is assured.

The brave woman who fought so desperately and saved the contents of her husband's safe, if not his life still has the bandit's revolver as a memento. Craven was compelled to flee without his horse and saddle, which are now in the hands of the authorities.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
 When she was a child, she cried for Castoria.
 When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
 When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

Lightning Through the Snow.
 St. Paul, Minn., April 1.—All over the state yesterday a blizzard of an unusual description prevailed, con sisting of snow and sleet, with wind, accompanied by thunder and light ning.

Drifts six feet deep were reported from West Superior, and street car travel was suspended.
 Dassel, Sank Rapids and St. Cloud all in this state, had much the same experience.

Dispatches from Yankton and Omaha indicate wintry weather throughout South Dakota and Ne braska.

Sterling, Kas., April 1—Yester day evening the mercury dropped about twenty degrees and the wind blew a gale from the north all night.
 Ice formed fully three fourths of an inch in thickness. Apricot and peach buds were injured. The weather is clear but cool, with a strong wind from the northwest.

A LARGE ESTATE.

Elias Falor was Worth Over $100,000
 Nevada Post.

The last will and testament of Elias Falor was filed for probate with Judge J. W. Smith, Tuesday by Charles Falor, executor of the will.

The estate of the late Elias Falor comprises about 2,600 acres of the best Vernon county lands, and his real and personal belongings were worth over $100,000.

To his beloved wife, Mary Falor is bequeathed a life interest in 200 acres of land and a one fourth inter est in the proceeds of personal prop erty of deceased. Also all the house hold goods. At her death the lands revert to Mr. Falor's four brothers and sisters.

To Charles Falor is willed 320 acres of land lying west of said Chas Falor's home and one fourth interest in the personal estate ex cepting household goods. The ex pense of the legacy and all debts are to be previously paid.

To the daughter, Almyra Yeater, is also bequeathed a one fourth in terest in the personal estate.

To the three grand children, Leroy Archie and Nellie Falor, is given a one fourth interest in the proceeds of deceased's personal property, they to have share and share alike.
 They are the off spring of the son, Norman Falor. W. F. Tygard is appointed trustee of the minor chil dren.

The will provides that the probate court of Vernon county shall appoint three competent appraisers, to allot his large body of real estate between his children and grand children.

To Elias Hogeland and Frank Hodden $100 each is given and $50 is given to his son-in-law, Enoch Yeates.

The will is dated May 25, 1895, and the witnesses are S. H. Ray, W.
 T. Younger and Geo. Templeton.

The dyspeptic carries a dreadful load on his back. It seems as if he were really made up of two men.
 One of them ambitious, brainy, and energetic; the other sick, listless, peevish and without force. The weak man weighs the other one down. The dyspeptic may be able to do pretty good work one day and the next day because of some little indiscretion in eating he may be able to do nothing at all. Most cases of dyspepsia start with consti pation. Constipation is the cause of nine tenths of all human sickness.
 Some of its symptoms are sick and bilious headache, dizziness, sour stomach, loss of appetite, foul breath, windy belchings, heartburn, pain and distress after eating. All these are indicative of derangement of the liver, stomach and bowels, and all are caused by constipation.
 Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the quickest, easiest and most certain cure for this condition. They are not violent in action.

Send 21 cents in one cent stamps sociation, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive

Shooting in a Cemetery.

Two guards in St. John's Catho lic cemetery in Kansas City, Kan., opened fire on one another with revolvers last night. Each took the other for a grave robber. Fortunate ly, their aim was bad and they did no damage, beyond disturbing the residents in the vicinity of the cem etery. Both emptied their guns and then the mistake was discovered.

Fear of body-snatching has led several families who have had burials at St. John's lately to post watchers. It was two of these that came together last night. Hereaf ter the watchers will keep each other posted as to their movements.

Hunters have been bagging a good many wild geese in the vicinity any good result. About a year ago

HEALTH BOARD MEETS.

Changes Penitentiary Quarantine and the Basis of Admission to Medical Colleges of Missouri.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 2.—The state board of health met this morn ing in this city. There were pres ent: Drs. F. J. Lutz, president; St.
 Louis; Willis P. King, secretary, Kansas City; A. W. McAlester, Colum bia; E. L. Standlee, St. Louis, and Paul Paquin, St. Louis. The board was in session until 2 o'clock.

The penitentiary quarantine regu lations were modified by requiring all local city and county health of ficers to certify that each prisoner convicted has been exposed to small pox for twenty days. This certifi cate shall be approved by the secre tary of the board, Dr. Willis P.
 King, at Kansas City, which certifi cate will be authority of the warden to receive such prisoners.

Visitors will be admitted when the warden shall be satisfied they have not been exposed.

The basis for admission to the medical colleges was fixed by abolish ing the first grade certificate regula tion, and requiring all applicants to present a diploma from some repu table college or high school or state certificate, signed by the state su perintendent. A grade of at least 80 shall be made on arithmetic, algebra, grammar, physics and Latin. The examinations for admission this year will be held between Sept. 1 and 15 at St. Louis, Kansas City and St.
 Joseph.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great

 Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement, "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."
 Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Cen

 It is the medicine above all others for catarrh, and is worth its weight in gold. I can use Ely's Cream Balm with safety and it does all that is claimed for it.—B. W. Sperry, Hart

LAYFIELD WORKS IN MACON.

The Kansas City Newsboy Preach er Makes a Decided Hit.

Macon, Mo., April 2.—Robert Layfield, "the newsboy evangelist," of Kansas City, is at Bevier, this (Macon) county, this week, stirring up the unregenerate in a manner very satisfactory to Christians. He delivered three powerful sermons Sunday and the doors and windows of the church were opened, so the crowd that could not get in the building could hear him.

It is said that "Bob" led rather a wild life in his younger days when he was selling papers in Kansas City, but he had many good business qual ities at the bottom and when he married a beautiful young lady in 1884 his transformation into a "bet ter boy" speedily followed.

His style of delivery is animated and effective. He talks in a language that all can understand and is im mensely popular with the young folks. He frequently refers with quaint humor to his experience as a newsboy and says that he learned in that vocation in reading human na ture has been of immense value to him as a preacher.

Indorses Monroe Doctrine.

City of Mexico, April 2.—In his message at the opening congress yesterday the Mexican president, in an allusion to the Anglo-Venezuelan controversy, said:

"The Mexican government cannot but declare its partiality on the part of the monarchies of Europe against the republics of America, against the independent nations of this contin ent, now all subject to popular form of government. In this man ner the doctrine now called by the name of Monroe would become the doctrine of America in the fullest sense of the word, and, although originating in the United States, would be the international law of this continent. As to the means to reduce this idea to practice, this is not the place or time to discuss them."

Hanged by White Caps.

Lexington, Ky., April 1.—White Caps in Mercer County are trying to regulate the morals of some of the citizens. Joshua Simms has a large family, but he has taken up with another woman. The White Caps visited him last night. About fifty of them surrounded the house of the woman and ordered him out.
 He came. The mob took him to a woods near by and strung him up for several minutes. He begged piteously for his life, and they finally cut him down before he was dead.

He was then tied to a tree and se verely whipped. The mob then took him to his home and told him to stay there, and if he was ever caught with the other woman again he would be more severely dealt with.

The Ideal Panacea.
