Pretty Church Wedding.

Married: Mr. Charles Rufus Holloway and Miss Sarah Elizabeth Wix were united in marriage at the Presbyterian Church, this city, on Wednesday evening, October 28, 1908, at 8 o'clock. Rev. J. R. Lamb officiated.

Promptly at 8 o'clock, to the Lohengrin wedding march, rendered by Miss Irene Mains, came the wedding party in the following order: West aisle, Miss Catherine Walker, flower girl and Master Edward Zey, ring bearer, were followed by Mrs. Clyde McBride, of Kansas City, Matron of Honor, who carried a beautiful bunch of yellow chrysanthemums. Next came the bride, leaning upon the arm of her father, Clark Wix. East aisle, Rev. J. R. Lamb was followed by the bride groom, with his best man, Mr. Horace Leonard of Marshall, Mo. The party met at the altar where the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony was performed that joined two happy hearts for life. Mrs. Chas. McFarland sang beautifully, "I Love You Truly". The church was tastefully decorated in yellow and white chrysanthemums.

After the service, the wedding party retired to the strains of Mendelssohn's march, and repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was held. The house was also decorated in yellow and white chrysanthemums. The bride wore a most beautiful directors gown of white silk messaline, trimmed in Dutch lace, and carried lilacs of the valley. The groom was attired in the conventional black.

After the reception the bride and groom took the north bound train, enroute to St. Louis where they will spend a few days before returning to Kansas City, where they will make their home. The bride wore a going-away dress of the beautiful shade of London Smoke.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Wix, is one of the most popular young ladies in the city, and of surpassing beauty and culture. She was educated in the Missouri Valley College at Marshall, Mo.

The groom is a young man of exemplary habits and has made many warm and steadfast friends on his visits to the city. He holds an excellent position with the Eagle Generator Co. of St. Louis.

Out of town visitors were: Mrs. R. E. Holloway, Mr. Harry Holloway and Miss Florence Holloway, the mother, brother and sister of the groom; Mrs. Clyde McBride of Kansas City, Mo., Miss Celestine Westlake, of Adrian, Mo., Miss Kate Pharis, of Appleton City, Mo., Horace Leonard, Marshall, Mo., Mrs. J. W. Rose, Marshall, Mo.

Teachers Association.

The Bates County Teachers' Association adjourned at noon last Saturday, after a very successful session, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. The total enrollment was 162.

A well-arranged program of subjects for discussion was carried out. Prof. J. H. Scarborough of the Warrensburg Normal was present the whole time and led the Round Tables. The teachers entered into these discussions with more spirit than common. Thursday evening Dr. J. H. Conant of the University of Missouri delivered a lecture before the teachers on the subject, "A Schoolmaster's Conversion." Friday State Supt. Howard A. Gass visited the Association and delighted the teachers with a practical talk on educational matters in Missouri.

Friday evening the Annual D. Elementary High School Contest was held at the opera house. This has become a permanent and interesting feature of the association. The contestants were Miss Lula Burrows and Ivan Corbin of Rich Hill; Miss Mildred Duncan of Hume; Miss Louise Allison and Archie Odneal of Butler; and Miss Pearl Atkinson and Leon Wagdy of Adrian. The judges decided Louise Allison of the girls and Archie Odneal of the boys to be the winners. The judges were J. H. Scarborough of Warrensburg, G. A. Thellmann of Appleton City and L. E. Brous of Lamar.

Saturday morning Dr. W. J. Hawkins, President of the Warrensburg Normal and Prof. Thellmann addressed the teachers. Both speakers were heartily cheered.

Brakeman Killed at Rich Hill.

Alvin Barnes, a Frisco brakeman, was run over and instantly killed by a Frisco engine in the yards at Rich Hill on Friday afternoon last. The body was badly mangled, and portions were strewn along the track for a distance of 80 feet.

In attempting to get onto the brake beam at the rear end of a tender, his foot slipped, and he fell astride the beam, his right foot becoming fastened in the switch. The foot was held so firmly that the brake beam tore its way through the lower part of his body.

Engineer Goodell was unaware of the accident, until he saw a portion of the body roll out from between the wheels.

A coroner's jury was summoned and brought in a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Mr. Barnes was a young man of excellent standing and was a Royal Arch Mason.

Buster Brown and Tige.

Buster Brown with his dog Tige was the sensation of the day in this city on Monday. As a representative of the Brown Shoe Co., Col. Ray, with his well-bred Boston Terrier was extensively advertised to be at the Walker-McKibben store, this city, on that date, and so widespread is his fame as "Buster Brown" that not only the children but the old folks as well looked forward with anticipation to his coming. On account of inclement weather it was decided that he should make his appearance in the opera house instead of at the Walker-McKibben store as originally planned. An extremely large crowd gathered at the opera house long before the time set for opening the doors, and when finally the house was opened, a large portion of the crowd was unable to get inside. In spite of the almost impassable roads many came from quite a distance. A very creditable entertainment was given by Col. Ray, who, when he is made up for his part, is almost an exact counterpart of the "Buster Brown" of pictorial fame, and possesses an inexhaustible fund of dry humor. His kindness in making a special trip to the Hurt home that little Harry, the invalid son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hurt, might enjoy the character, won him many friends in the city. The entertainment was all that could have been hoped, and when interviewed, D. K. Walker, manager of the Walker-McKibben Mercantile Co., expressed himself more than satisfied with the results.

Joachim Sell, the aged father of Mrs. Chas. Fix left Tuesday for Waverly, Iowa, where he will make his home in the future. His son, John, of Seward, Neb., and his daughter, Mrs. Brinkman with whom he will make his home, after visiting several days here accompanied him on his journey. Mr. Sell was past 88 years old and very feeble. He has made his home with Mr. Fix for the past six years.—Rockville Booster.
