

Our Muslin Underwear Sale

IS NOW ON IN FULL BLAST

BARGAINS which we offer you cannot afford to miss

SPECIAL!

48 SILK PETTICOATS, in black and colors, regular price $6.50, while they last

$3.98

Sam'l Levy Mercantile Co.

VIRGINIA.

While cutting logs in the timber Tuesday of last week Bird Barr accidentally cut his foot. It is very sore, and he will be laid up for a while.

Albert Brayton, who is making his home with his cousin, Fred Brayton, went to Kansas City Monday.

Everett Drysdale moved to his farm, southeast of Virginia, last week.

Emmett Burk is putting up a windmill.

Elmer and Arthur Hardinger spent Saturday with their cousins, Virgil, Mary and Hazel Burk.

Misses Belle and Edna Burk spent Sunday at J. C. Crosswhite's.

Mrs. Jess Williams, living on the old Foster place, who has been sick for some time, was reported a little better Sunday.

The meeting at the New Hope Baptist church will continue on this week.

Fred Stroeber moved last week.

Lee Hardinger spent Sunday at Emmett Burk's.

Earl Hinson, who has just moved back from South Dakota, took dinner with Young Aaron Thursday of last week, and attended Clark Draper's sale. He has rented the James Drysdale farm near Passaic.

There was a very good crowd at Clark Draper's sale last Thursday, considering the cold wave that was coming from the north. Col. Clyde Robbins made the stock bring prosperity prices.

Vivian Allen came down from Kansas City last week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Allen.

Mrs. Will Bernhardt, of Butler, came out Friday of last week to visit her mother, Grandma Durst and other relatives before moving to Colorado.

J. Haggard, of Butler, has moved on a farm, one-half mile south of the Belmont school house.

Dr. Wheeler and bride attended the literary Friday night at Grand View. They are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wheeler.

Will Durst was at Kansas City last week to see Mrs. Durst, who underwent a surgical operation Tuesday of last week. Monday he received a card from the nurse that she was getting along nicely.

Dr. Smith was called to see Grandpa Minton Friday of last week. It was feared he was threatened with pneumonia. Tuesday morning he was still a very sick man. Her daughter and husband, Bob Stanley, of Butler, have been with him.

Mrs. G. W. Park received a Valentine post card from Mrs. Nora Jundy Lanyon, of Lemars, Iowa. She says the people there say the winter has been the coldest for twenty-seven years, but she likes the country fine.

Mrs. W. W. Park is equipping her kitchen with the latest improved kitchen furniture. Some of it is equipped with a fine big looking glass, so she can keep fixed up, and when her husband comes for his meals, she will look as pretty and young as she did when she captured him.

G. M. Garner has timothy hay and corn for sale.

The Mulberry Hay Seed Band expects to meet at the Plainview school house the first Saturday night in March to practice.

Mrs. W. J. Bard received a card from Paul Hendricks, of Miller, South Dakota, from which we quote the following:

Mary L. Hendricks.
Born Oct. 31, 1840. Died Jan. 2, 1910, aged 69 years, 2 months, 2 days.

The life of a loved one is ended,
Oh no, it has just begun;
Earth's fetters at last are broken,
Heaven's freedom forever won.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks owned and lived many years on the farm, now owned by S. E. Jones, three miles east of Virginia. Mr. Hendricks was superintendent of the Baptist Sabbath School, when Sabbath School and preaching was held in the Virginia school house. They moved to South Dakota about twenty-five years ago.

The old settlers remember Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks and sympathize with him in his bereavement.

Everett Drysdale, of Butler, moved to his farm Friday of last week.

Prof. Geo. McMichael and some of the Belmont and Grandview boys debated against the Mulberry boys at the Mulberry school house last Friday evening.

Mrs. Geo. Ruble's dog visited Parktown Sabbath night.

Willie had a little lamb whose life was about to flicker,
Until a lady brought her a bottle full of licker

In order for this little lamb to be a Prohibition daughter;
A W. C. T. U. lady will have to bring her a bottle full of water.

Mrs. W. F. McKibben returned from Kansas City Saturday, where she was visiting the family of O. W. Walker. She brought her little grandson, Harlan Walker, with her, and he expects to visit his grandparents for some time.

Miss Josephine Simpson was on the sick list the first of this week.

There will be preaching at the M. E. Church next Sunday evening by Rev. Gilbreath. Topic for the Young People's meeting: "How to Work."—John 9:4-5. Romans 12:11. Leader, Mrs. Myrtle Johnson.

A fine big boy arrived at the home of Ray Jundy in the storm Sabbath night. Another plow boy will be a Prohibition voter.

Mr. Clements, of Kansas City, moved in one of Geo. Ruble's tenant houses last week, and will work there this season.

Mrs. C. W. Wolfe is on the complaining list.

Geo. T. Jackson, of Washington, has bought the Pat Maloney farm at $35 per acre.

Thomas Hockett, who was called to the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Ester Crumly, who lives in St. Clair county, Mo., Monday of last week, has returned home. He reports his sister resting easier, when he left, is all he could say. He said the roads were muddy, when he got there. They were almost impassable, and Wednesday of last week six inches of snow fell there, and the roads were blocked by drifts, and as he went through Harrisonville, both going and coming, they were sprinkling the streets. It was so dry and dusty. Aaron and Eldon Crumly, who went with him, returned with him.

Grandpa McClure is still confined to the house.

Will Durst went to Amoret Sabbath to see his son, who has been sick. He is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wallace.

W. W. Park took a load of fat hogs to Butler Monday.

Henry McCann's shepherd dog has left its boarding place for parts unknown.

The subject, "Intemperance and other sins of the body," discussed at the Union meeting at the Christian Church Sunday evening, showed more than usual interest and proved that all the church denominations have agreed on one thing at least, that King Alcohol shall not rule Missouri much longer, and we believe that every minister and every member of every church will work and vote for the Prohibition amendment next fall.

Miss Willia Darr, who has been teaching school near Foster, sent in her resignation and returned home last Friday, and is in very poor health at this writing.

Willie Whinery, who was severely kicked by a horse Monday night of last week, is slowly improving. His mother, Mrs. J. T. Whinery, has moved her household goods to the A. J. Park house in Virginia, where her son, Joe and family, are now living, and she and her daughter, Mary, and also Willie expect to leave soon for Oklahoma, where they will spend the summer.

The Mulberry Hayseed band will celebrate their anniversary on March 16 in the hall at Virginia, the organization being one year old about that date. A good literary and musical program will be rendered free in connection with a pie supper. Everybody invited to attend. Don't forget the date, March 16, 1910.

YOUNG AARON.

Elkhart.

The teacher and pupils at Lone Star are preparing for an entertainment the last day of school, March 3. The teacher, Miss Nola Ellis will commence a three months term the following Monday at Miami Center.

Mr. Fritts and family moved last week to the Green farm lately vacated by Tom Bruner.

Aunt Maggie Scott is having hard luck in the poultry business having lost over 50 fine hens by death the past few weeks.

Mrs. Pearl Armentrout is improving slowly under osteopathic treatment at Butler. She would appreciate a call from any of her friends when they visit Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Winfrey visited at the parental Rayburn home Sunday.

Mrs. Joe Timanus has been quite sick the past week with some throat trouble.

Joe Baker was an Amsterdam visitor Friday.

Uncle Tom Hockett returned Friday night from a visit to his sister, in St. Clair county. He reports her condition hopeless.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dubes and children visited Friday at the N. Williams home, three miles south of Amsterdam, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCracken, of Sterling, Neb. Mrs. Mc. is a daughter of Mr. Williams and a niece of Mrs. Dubes. Mrs. D. and niece had not met for 25 years, since the latter was a little girl of nine years. X.

West Star Items.

Fred Wishart, of Oklahoma, is here on a visit to his relatives and friends. He visited L. G. Thomas Sunday.

There was a large crowd attended the pie supper at Star last Saturday night. The program was fine, and a nice time was seemed to be had by all.

Mary Cooper and Naomi Johnson, of Butler, visited Nadine Bottom, and they attended the supper.

Ladean Harper and Marie Marsteller stayed at Mrs. Blanche Warren's Saturday night. They also attended the supper.

Dick Warren and Bob Lyle went to Colorado to look at the country. Did not know whether they took a claim or not.

Ada Cooper, Pansy Pharis and Winnie Pharis stayed all night Saturday night with Mae Daniels, and all day Sunday. They attended the pie supper at Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Neff Blough visited G. W. Daniels Sunday.

Jack Frazee helped move his father-in-law, Mr. Smith, last week to his new farm he purchased this winter.

There was a Valentine party at Jim McKee's Valentine night.

There was a party at Robie Thomas' last Saturday night. The crowd was small. But they reported as having a fine time.

They made about $11 at the pie supper at Star.

AUNT SALLY.

Pleasant Valley.

Myrtle Walker is improving at this writing.

Mrs. Stokes' daughter from Illinois is going to Camden county to see her sister before returning home.

Mrs. Greenlee is looking for her daughters from Atchison, Kansas, the first of the month.

Will Blankenbaker and wife and F. L. Blankenbaker and family spent Sunday at W. R. Jackson's.

The sawmill on the Greenlee place will commence sawing this week.

There was a pie supper at Star school house Saturday night. They had a large crowd and pies sold well.

Every woman is going to see how many chickens they can raise this year.

Mrs. Greenlee is better at this writing.

Grace Gerkins took Mrs. Jackson's picture the day of her funeral, and the family were well pleased with them.

F. L. Blankenbaker is getting along nicely with his new house.

FLOW BOY.

FOSTER.

G. W. Ingersoll was a passenger east Sunday over the Inter State.

Jerry Haw left Sunday for his home in Eldorado Springs, Mo.

D. H. Arbogast was a passenger west Sunday.

John Allen, Jule Heckadon and Harley Imel were business visitors to Butler Saturday.

J. H. McCollough was an arrival from Butler Sunday morning, where he had been to close a deal for the Harley Imel property.

Dr. Rhoades reports very little sickness at present.

Mrs. Dr. Wilson was a passenger west for Worland Sunday.

Judge J. J. March and wife attended the funeral Friday and ate dinner and spent a few hours with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Arbogast.

Born, Feb. 20th to Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jennings, a nine pound boy. Tally up another Democrat for the Republicans to shed tears over in the 6th district.

Miss Salia Arbogast visited Miss Nellie March near Rich Hill Friday night and Saturday.

W. T. Stover moved to the Thomas Hart property on Central High street Wednesday.

Uncle Louis Jones reports his brother improving slowly. His two daughters, of Colorado, will remain with him until he is able to return home.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Kaiser died Feb. 16th, after a life of only 13 days, at their home near Reavely. The remains were brought to Foster and interment made in Salem cemetery Friday. We extend our sympathy to them in the loss of their little baby. This is the second one they have laid to rest in the last year.

Rev. J. H. Boner preached at the M. E. church Sunday at 11 a. m. and at Independence at night.

Grandpa and grandma Orear, who have been spending the winter with their son in Butler, returned home Tuesday. Grandpa Orear is very feeble. He had a stroke of paralysis about a year ago from which he never recovered.

Mrs. W. W. Russell departed Friday morning for Kansas City and will make her home with her son, M. D. Russell.

A. G. Metzler and wife left on the noon train Sunday for Sedalia. They will visit their old home in Hermon, Mo., and other points before returning home.

J. R. Bangs, of Pittsburg, Kansas, was up last week in the interest of the Central Coal and Coke Company. We learn the Central people have taken a nine months option on the land of the following named gentlemen, J. C. Collier, J. W. Bailey, C. B. Briscoe and J. R. Bangs. The last named gentlemen's land is known as the T. J. Wilson land 1-2 mile south of Foster. We were also informed the Central people have offered them $50 per acre for the mineral right or $80 per acre for the mineral and surface right. If the coal is found to be satisfactory prospecting will commence soon and the outlook is a better day for Foster.

What a jubilee Foster will have when the Central Coal and Coke Co. begins to sink shafts and we can hear the Friscoe whistle and "Oh my!"

J. W. Darby went west Monday over the Mo. Pacific to Pleasanton.

W. P. Cobb and T. P. Hines were business visitors to Rich Hill last week.

Tom Cobb and family, of Rich Hill moved on the Lewis farm south west of town.

Walter Shofer wife and family visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Plymell south of town.

DENAH.

Another Car of FURNITURE

UNLOADED THIS WEEK.

STOCK FULL OF NEW

- |                  |                 |
|------------------|-----------------|
| Beds             | Dining Tables   |
| Dressers         | Library Tables  |
| Chiffoniers      | Parlor Suites   |
| Buffets          | Dressing Tables |
| Commodos         | Parlor Tables   |
| Davenport        | China Closets   |
| Couches          | Chairs          |
| Kitchen Cabinets |                 |

A. H. Culver Furniture Co.

Headquarters for Good Furniture