

"The Daylight Store"

Skirts, Suits and Coats

ON SALE AT A GREAT REDUCTION

Wool Skirts as low as 98c
 Many bargains in Our Dry Goods Department
MEN'S SUITS and PANTS on SALE very cheap to make room for new fall stock.

American Clo. House.

LEADERS FOR THIRTY YEARS.

Fresh Bulk Turnip Seed

Postpaid when ordered by letter

1 ounce 5c 3 ounce 10c 8 ounce 20c 1 pound 35c
 State if Flat or Globe Purple Top is wanted

Will have in a few days, White Strassburg, and White Chinese Radish, Savoy Leaved Spinach and Grand Rapids Lettuce for fall sowing.

HAY FORKS

Just got in another lot of those little 4 and 4 1/2 foot Iowa Hay Forks, light springy handles, best fork made.

SOUTH SIDE SQUARE

DEACONS' BUTLER, MISSOURI.

Dr. J. W. Choate made a business trip to Greenfield, Mo., Wednesday.

Mrs. J. R. Kibler, of Ft. Scott, Kas., is visiting at the home of her brother, Freeman Walton.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Shay, who live southeast of town, on August 1, a fine boy.

Theodore Wemott of Kansas City is spending a week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wemott.

Miss Adelaide Casper, of Independence, Mo., is visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Cannon.

Mrs. Alice Mains, who has spent the past year in Coldwater, Mich., returned home the last of the week.

Mrs. Sam Gosnell spent a few days last week in Rich Hill visiting relatives and taking in the big revival.

Miss Inez Voris, who has been visiting her mother south of town, returned to Kansas City the first of the week.

The Presbyterian Sunday School will hold their annual picnic at White's grove east of town Friday, August 6.

Miss Agnes Ward returned from Rich Hill Sunday where she had spent a week visiting Harvey Copeland and family, and attending the Fife revival meetings.

For Sale—A place of six rooms with toilet, bath, lights, etc. Rooms so arranged that two or more can be subrented to students or others for light housekeeping.
 42-2t

D. F. Payne,
 518 N. Main St.

Mrs. Roy Wilcox and son, Milo, who has been visiting relatives in the southern part of the state returned home Saturday.

Harry Henry and wife of Sedalia, spent a few days in the city last week visiting Claude Majors and family and other relatives.

Miss Cecil Nicolay and Carlisle Howard left for Appleton City Wednesday where they will spend some days visiting friends.

Robert Bradley, principal of the public schools of Adan, Ok., is spending a couple of weeks in this city visiting his sister, Mrs. Cap Price.

Miss Linda Nix returned Tuesday from a trip through the west. She visited the Panama-Pacific exposition and other points of interest.

C. A. Rook left for Kansas City Saturday. Mrs. Rook expects to follow him in a few days when they will make that city their future home.

Misses Lorena and Lelia Junghaus, of St. Louis, arrived in the city last week to make an extended visit with their aunt, Mrs. F. M. Wood.

The Butler base ball team, accompanied by quite a crowd of fans, journeyed to Appleton City Sunday. The Butler team was defeated by a score of three to two.

B. R. Baskerville, wife and daughter, Miss Pauline, of Deepwater township were in Butler Wednesday where they took the train for Montrose, Colorado, where they will visit a sister of Mrs. Baskerville.

Rev. F. A. Culmer was in the city last week in the interest of Central College at Fayette, Mo. He was the guest of Rev. W. J. Snow while in the city.

Earl Earsom, who has been attending school at Springfield, Mo., returned home the last of the week and will spend his vacation with home folks.

F. L. Donmyer, who recently moved to the Thomas place northwest of town was in Monday and had his name enrolled for the best paper in the county.

Rev. W. R. Randolph, of Clarksville, Mo., preached two fine sermons at the Presbyterian church last Sunday. He will preach again morning and evening next Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Trimble and daughter, Hortense, departed Tuesday for Birmingham, Ala., where they will spend some time visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. Fallon O'Byrne.

One coupon given with every cent purchased at Frank Clay's, the Booster Store. I am a Booster and would greatly appreciate all coupons left in my name.
 4t (e o w) * Amy Eggleston.

One of the attractions of Fair week this year will be the Gertrude Ewing Co., at the Fiske Opera House. This company carries twenty-one people and has always been popular in Butler.

Rev. W. J. Snow returned the last of the week from a two weeks' vacation spent in Fayetteville, Ark. Mrs. Snow and son, Jewel, came home by way of Clinton, where they spent a few days visiting friends, before returning home Monday.

Mr. Simon Oppenheimer, a prominent resident of Pleasant Hill, died at the home of his son, Sol Oppenheimer, in that city Tuesday of last week. Mr. Oppenheimer was 84 years old and was a native of Spiesen, Germany. The body was shipped to Quincy, Ill., for burial.

Sunday the Amoret base ball team will be the attraction. Amoret has a good team, having won the majority of their games this year and the Butler team, smarting from their recent defeats, have strengthened their team by the addition of a real pitcher, McQuarrie, and are out to win. Come out and see some real base ball.

Black & Arnold Clothing Co. Oscar Seifers was an Archie visitor Sunday.

Get your clothes at Black & Arnold. They save you.

U. Ayers, of Rich Hill, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Miss Ruby Davis of Kansas City is visiting Butler friends.

More those dark blue Headlight overalls, Black & Arnold.

Probate Judge C. J. Henry was a Nevada visitor Monday.

Cut prices at Black & Arnold.

Mrs. White, of Nevada, is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. M. Wood.

John Belk, assessor of Mound township, was a business visitor Monday.

T. J. Smith made a business trip to Kansas City the latter part of the week.

J. W. Choate and son, Leslie, made a business trip to Harrisonville Saturday.

J. J. Richardson and son, Harvell, motored up from Rich Hill Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ruth Seelinger, who has been attending school in Kansas City, has returned home.

Mildred Sackett of Kansas City arrived Sunday to spend a few days visiting relatives.

G. A. Corbin, a prominent farmer of near Hume, transacted business in Butler Monday.

Selling more shoes every day. Try a pair, Black & Arnold.

H. C. Morris was an Appleton City visitor Sunday and saw the Butler team lose a ball game.

Miss Margaret Harper visited Miss Elizabeth Weeks at Rich Hill the latter part of the week.

Mrs. John Yapple of Horton, Kas., arrived Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Smith.

Mrs. J. R. Morrison, of Kansas City, is expected in the city the last of the week to visit relatives.

Armand Duvall, who has been spending several months on a ranch in Oregon, returned home Thursday.

Elmer Jones and Miss Ruby Green of this city were married in Independence, Mo., Wednesday, July 28.

Alan Humphries, of Hollister, Mo., was the guest of Kirby Walker for a few days the last of the week.

Miss Elinor Morrison, of Kansas City, is making an extended visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Carolina Morrison.

Mrs. Lon Ray, who has been visiting friends in Ulrich for some time, returned home the last of the week.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church of Spruce will hold an ice cream supper on the church lawn Saturday evening, August 7th. Everyone invited to attend.

John Thurman formerly circuit clerk of Bates county, but for several years a successful real estate dealer of Wichita, Kas., was here Saturday visiting his cousin, Mrs. Virginia D. Sterrett and family.—Nevada Mail.

Buy odd pants, Black & Arnold.

Mrs. E. A. Getz, of Nevada, is visiting J. R. Campbell and family.

M. C. Fortune of Rich Hill was a county seat visitor Monday.

Mrs. J. E. Arnold, who has been visiting friends in Rich Hill returned home Monday.

C. R. Home, of Holdenville, Okla., arrived in the city Monday to visit friends and relatives.

Mrs. E. Haynes, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Porter, at Rich Hill, returned home Tuesday.

Our good friend Jas. R. Simpson, of Spruce township, was in the city Tuesday and made this office a pleasant call.

Miss Lulu Rockhold, of near Adrian is spending a few days in town at the home of her brother, Ira Rockhold and family.

Mrs. J. E. Haggard and little daughter, Wanda, of Nevada, are the guests of Mrs. Haggard's brother, C. H. Letton, and family.

Miss May Lutsenhizer and nephew, Walter Kelly, Jr., who have been visiting at the home of Charles Ewin, returned to their home in Kansas City Sunday.

Khaki pants 75c, Black & Arnold.

Automobiles were permitted in Yellowstone national park Monday for the first time. The National government has always forbidden anything but horse drawn vehicles in the park.

Mrs. W. W. Cannon and Mrs. R. U. Lotspeich spent Sunday in Warrensburg visiting their sister, Miss Helen Hulse, who is attending the State Normal School at that place.

Mrs. C. W. Anderson and children, Ralph and Clara Louisa, who have been visiting Mrs. Anderson's sister, Mrs. Will Smith, at Coffeyville, Kas., have returned home.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hodge, in Petty, Texas, on Wednesday, July 28, a fine daughter, Mrs. Hodges was Miss Mabel Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Arnold, of this city.

Mrs. J. E. Forbes, and two daughters and Mrs. Lena Monahan, of Kansas City, are expected the last of the week to spend a few days with their parents, Judge and Mrs. W. T. Cole.

The Butler Juniors base ball team played a team from Altona at the Butler ball park Sunday afternoon and after nine innings of fine ball playing defeated the visitors by a score of 10 to 9.

The Times' good friend Coleman Snodgrass, of near Virginia was in the city Monday and made this office a pleasant call. He says the wheat crops are very poor in his neighborhood.

Misses Rosalie Funk, Helen Braden, Alberta Ogg, Ercel Yates, Mrs. Chester Sleeth and Rev. Claude S. Hanby returned Monday from Marionville, Mo., where they had been attending an Epworth League Institute.

Dr. E. G. Zey and wife and Wm. Stanley returned Sunday night from an extended western trip. They visited the Panama-Pacific exposition, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City, and other points of interest. Mrs. Wm. Stanley stopped off in Kansas City to visit friends and will return later.

Charles McFarland and wife, who have been on a tour of the west with a party of Shriners returned home Friday. Charley says they had a fine trip. Visited the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco, Los Angeles, Cal., where they took a swim in the Pacific ocean and had a big time generally. Maj. Crowell, who was with the party will return later.

Silver coins of the issue of 1916 will bear an entirely new design, according to a statement made by R. K. Woolley, director of the mint. Instructions have been issued to the designer in the Philadelphia mint to offer suggestions for the new coins to the secretary of the treasury. The change in the design is in accordance with the law requiring a change every twenty-five years.

Our good friend D. C. Mize of New Home township was in Wednesday and made us a pleasant call.

The big Fife Brothers meeting closed in Rich Hill Sunday. According to the Rich Hill Review there have been 740 conversions during the meeting.

Hon. L. B. Baskerville and Percy Tyler, two prominent young farmers and stock raisers of Deepwater township were county seat visitors Wednesday.

Professor A. C. Moreland, county superintendent of schools, returned Friday from Warrensburg where he had been attending the summer Normal school.

Misses Elizabeth Ewin and Jessie Ray who are attending the State Normal at Warrensburg are expected home Thursday to spend a few days visiting their parents.

William M. McPherson one of Rich Hill's oldest residents, died at his home in that city Saturday, July 29. Mr. McPherson was 92 years of age and had lived in Rich Hill about 34 years.

J. B. Rand arrived in this city from Columbia Monday. Mr. Rand represents the Animal Husbandry and Veterinary Science departments of the College of Agriculture and expects to be in the county about a week or ten days looking for cases of hog cholera and telling the hog raisers how hog cholera may be prevented.

The Booster Sunday School class of the M. E. Church, South, chaperoned by their teacher, T. L. Beach, and Thos. Wainwright went out to the Ft. Scott crossing Wednesday evening and went into camp. They will return Thursday evening. They are well equipped with fish poles, dogs, etc., and they expect to catch enough fish and game to eat, not to mention chiggers and mosquitoes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lotspeich returned last Wednesday from a seven weeks visit to Montana. They report a most enjoyable trip but Mr. Lotspeich admits they were mighty glad to get back to little old Bates County. He has been putting in the time since his return bragging about a little barred Plymouth Rock hen, the property of his wife. On the day they returned home they found eight eggs in the hen's nest and not being disturbed she hatched out a flock of six little chickens the very next day.

Gus Kienberger and Homer Humphrey, the special committee appointed by President John Klump of the Commercial Club to raise a fund by subscription to defray expense of repairing the drainage ditch bridge near the Kern-Beatty ranch, 4 miles northeast of Rich Hill, raised $59 on Monday afternoon and turned the money over to Mr. Klump, who had the lumber sent out to the point needed to make the repairs. The farmers in that locality will doubtless appreciate the efforts of Rich Hill business men to put the bridge in good condition for trade and traffic.—Rich Hill Review.

Humburg Circus Committees.

The committee appointed some time ago by the Commercial Club to have charge of the Humburg Circus met at the office of secretary Culver Monday night to complete arrangements for the big show on Thursday, August 19. The following committees were appointed to make final arrangements.

On advertising and publicity—D. K. Walker and H. H. Holloway.
 On securing grounds—A. H. Culver and T. J. Day.
 On securing talent—Dr. T. F. Lockwood, H. H. Holloway and D. K. Walker.
 On help and drayage—T. J. Day.
 On music—Charles L. Fisk.
 On securing horses—A. H. Culver and T. J. Day.
 On concessions—D. K. Walker and H. H. Holloway.

Field Seeds.

Cow Peas.....$1.75 per Bu.
 Soy Beans.....$1.75 per Bu.
 Cane Seed.....80c per Bu.
 The seed to sow for fall forage.
 41-3t Cannon Elevator.

The Big Cleaning up Sale

$20 Suits.....$15.00 $18 Suits.....$13.50 $16 Suits.....11.25	BOYS' WASH SUITS AT COST	$8 Knee Suits...$4.50 $5 Knee Suits...$3.75 $4 Knee Suits...$3.00
25% OFF on All Trousers	ALL STRAW HATS AT COST	Trunks, Grips and Suit Cases at REDUCED PRICES
MEN'S and Boys' Silk Hats	$1.00 OVERALLS 85c	ALL UNION SUITS AT REDUCED PRICES

JOE MEYER, THE CLOTHIER.