

The Butler Weekly Times.

VOL. LXXVIII.

BUTLER, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1915.

NUMBER 5

Mt. Carmel News.

The people of Mt. Carmel neighborhood will have a social gathering and basket dinner at the Mt. Carmel church Thanksgiving day, Nov. 25. Rev. Spencer will be present and give a talk. Everyone cordially invited to bring their dinner and come and enjoy the day with these people.

Mrs. W. E. Osborne and children are spending a few days with her father, Mat Simpson, and family near Cornland, while Mrs. Simpson is visiting relatives in Kansas.

The Mt. Carmel Y. P. B. will have a business and social meeting at the home of their president Miss Gladys Waldron, Friday night, November 19. Everyone interested in this work invited to attend.

Rev. Spencer filled his regular appointment at Mt. Carmel Sunday afternoon.

Geo. Sedwick finished shucking his corn last week and sold it to John Craig. Mr. Sedwick and family expect to move to Colorado in the near future.

Mrs. Guy Thomas returned Saturday from a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, near Pleasant Gap.

Arthur Hardinger is the proud owner of a new Winchester rifle. The pie supper at Enterprise school house Wednesday night was pulled off in good shape.

Miss Bertha Craven who is teacher had a splendid program prepared which was listened to by a large crowd. The proceeds were about $10.50, which went for school purposes.

Mrs. Larris Wheatly went to Butler Saturday to spend several days with her mother, Mrs. Mullis and family.

Mrs. Sedwick has been quite sick the past week but is some better at this writing.

Bird Barr left Sunday morning for Kansas after a two weeks visit with home folks. His son Derrel stayed with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Barr.

Mrs. J. W. Cox was called to north Missouri Thursday to see her mother who is very sick.

Mrs. Sellers of near Nyhart has been quite sick.

UNCLE HENRY.

Mulberry and Western Bates

Roy Shelly has traded his 114 acre farm east of Amoret, to Chas. F. Hudgins of Richmond, Mo., for his garage and plumbing business at Richmond. Mr. Shelly will take possession of the garage December 1st.

The ladies of the Amoret United Presbyterian church were guests of Mrs. J. C. Sageser Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Hudgins of Richmond came down Thursday to attend the Roy Shelly sale.

R. Bohilken is building a new barn.

Miss Alma Jacobs of Haysville, Iowa, and Mrs. Nellie Hawkins of Cleveland, Mo., visited at the Frank Hennon home from Friday until Sunday.

Prof. A. C. Moreland visited the Mulberry school Wednesday and found everything running in the best of order.

Dr. J. C. Sageser made a business trip to Kansas City the latter part of the week.

The Homer township reading circle met in Amoret Saturday afternoon and had an exceptionally good meeting.

M. W. Dowersox and family visited at Roy Shelly's Sunday.

Mrs. F. C. Ewbank and son, Parry, ate dinner at ye pencil publisher's Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Morwood and son, Claud, were transacting business in the county seat Friday.

Eleven auto loads of robbers accompanied the Amoret High School teams to Fulton Saturday night. The Amoret girls won by scores of 6 to 0. The Amoret boys won by a score of 14 to 9.

Dykman and family were at M. H. M... Sunday.

Morwood is on the...

...had a...

On the Wing.

Lee Reese is making very frequent visits near Ballard. Say, boys get your old bells, tin horns, and shot guns in readiness for action soon. So say dame rumor.

Mrs. W. W. Davis is very sick at this writing.

At Elmer Requa's Monday a 15 gallon ice cream sapper with cake, candy, pickles, apples and oranges were served. There were 200 in attendance.

C. W. Ray sold corn at the lake in Butler at 50c per bushel.

The lady teacher at Pleasant Ridge resigned and Ben Wix will finish out her term.

J. C. Knowles has taken a fine team of mules from Gus Herman to break.

Miss Mamie Culver says she couldn't ask for a better school to teach than Brackney.

Frank Walker, the hog doctor of over near the waterworks was around a few days last week in the interest of his profession. He knows his business.

Mrs. Walter Snodgrass is very sick at this writing of a complication of diseases.

Colman Snodgrass is coming back to old Deepwater to live. We knew Colman could not stay away after drinking out of Deepwater creek. They can't stay away. They are good people, and we wish them success in their new home.

Marion Kennedy a blind man of Trowbridge, Ills., moved the date on his paper up 3 years. If a blind man can do this it seems to us a man with two good eyes can do as well.

Charley Harper of East Boone township has an excellent Jersey cow and 13 yearling steers for sale. See him for a bargain.

E. A. Stith cut a bee tree out on J. H. Baker's land last Sunday. They took 10 gallons of honey from the tree.

John Allison and family and Claud Hubbard and family visited with Chester Hubbard Sunday.

J. H. Carroll says he has a good threshing machine in good condition for sale. Those needing a bargain call on Mr. Carroll.

J. A. Smith has just returned from John Allison's southeast of Johnstown after a two weeks carpenter job. Mr. Smith rebuilt a house for Mr. Allison in place of the one recently burned.

Earl and Wesley Raybourn are baling hay on Knabb's creek.

Alex Jackson and Lewis Dandeline are sawing wood for A. Westover near the Concord school house.

J. H. Baker and J. A. Beard, auctioneers of eastern Bates were looking up business in their line at Montrose.

J. W. Eggleston and family of Charlotte township have bought the Star Theatre at Butler. Mrs. Eggleston and son, Frank, will manage the business.

The Eggleston boys have charge of the Johnstown Telephone Company.

Nestlerode was out to the White grave yard taking a picture of the monuments of Joseph and Fanny Beaty, foster parents of Lewis L. Wix, of Deepwater township.

Jessie Knowles has decided to stay another year in old Bates County. Welcome to stay Jessie.

Hon. Jack Knowles is a busy merchant at his trade farming.

F. M. Kennedy sends $3 from Trowbridge, Ills., and says set his date on The Times ahead as he can't do without it as it is like a letter from home. Mr. Kennedy is totally blind and his wife reads the news from old Bates to him. Mrs. Kennedy has run the telephone central at Trowbridge for eleven years.

N. M. N.

Summit Happenings.

Joe Clark and family visited Oscar Price's Sunday afternoon.

W. B. Taylor came out Sunday and took his car into town. We think he is going to joy ride some.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hyatt gave a party for their daughter, Margaret. All present had a jolly time.

Elmer Sturgeon and wife were Friday evening visitors at Mrs. Nannie Golliday's.

Ralph Cummins has been out of school several days helping his father gather corn.

Oscar Price and family were Saturday evening visitors at Jim Thomas'.

Little Newlon Ison has been sick lately.

Frank Jewett and family spent the day with Mrs. Golliday Sunday.

John Golliday took Mr. Alms to the train Sunday. He has been helping John gather corn.

T. C. Jones and family motored to Johnstown Saturday to visit with Roy Jones and family.

Lewis Radford and wife spent Sunday at Lewis Culbertson's.

Mrs. Lewis Culbertson's father is spending a few days with her and may make his home with her.

Mrs. Ruth Jones is nursing a sore head from bumping it against a lamp. The lamp was the hardest or at least the sharpest.

Miss Mabel Card spent Friday night with Eulalia Sturgeon.

Charles Lafolett is sawing lumber on the Herbert Wayland farm.

Herbert Wayland and family and Walter Taylor and family were callers at Elmer Sturgeon's Sunday.

Jim Thomas is building a corn crib.

Mr. Price is rebuilding his barn.

Mrs. Bartley's son is making her a visit and making things more convenient for his sisters by building a new barn.

Mrs. Haskins was a caller at Mrs. Lacy's Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Lyman Hensley spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Robt. Sturgeon.

Mrs. Sam Davis, Mrs. Barr and Grandma Arnold called at Mrs. Rankin's Tuesday evening.

Everett Grant and family and Wm. Tyler and wife motored to Nevada this week.

SUNSHINE.

North New Home.

Mrs. Lon Smith and brother, Dave Medley, of Illinois, visited last week with their brother, Joe Medley and wife at Wichita, Kas.

Charley Simmons moved his saw mill from the J. F. Kern farm to Worland.

Mrs. Sellers of Nyhart was very sick last week.

Mrs. Minnie Crawford and sister, Miss Carrie McGaughey of Kansas City visited last week with their brother, Brick McCaughey and family.

Ed Daniels of Butler made a business trip to Nyhart Saturday.

J. W. Jones did some carpenter work for Henry Thorp last week.

Quite a number attended the dance at Bert Galvin's Saturday night and all reported a good time.

Guy Phelps is working for Jack Skaggs.

Rev. Lewis Keele took supper with Brick McCaughey Friday evening.

Uncle Dave Smitherman and wife spent Sunday afternoon at Homer Linendoll's.

Jack Skaggs and family spent Sunday at John Phelps's.

Cliff Ehart and wife and John Phelps visited at Henry Ehart's Sunday.

COR.

In and Around Mayburg.

The protracted meeting closed last Wednesday night at the Baptist church.

This neighborhood received a terrible shock last Thursday evening when word came over the wire that Dr. Miller had been drowned. Harry Hibbs had taken the doctor, Harry's wife and her mother to Clinton where Harry's wife was to take treatments. Coming back that evening there was only the doctor and Harry in the car. Harry's wife and her mother stayed in Clinton. About 3 miles out of Clinton the car got from under control in some way and as they were on a grade it ran off the grade and upset in about 2 feet of water. Harry, after a hard struggle, freed himself and got out from under the car. He was bruised up some but before help could arrive Dr. Miller had drowned. The family have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral was held from the Baptist church Saturday at eleven o'clock. Rev. Smith and Thomas and also the Masonic lodge had charge of the services. Dr. Miller had a large circle of friends. He was a member of the Baptist church and had been for a number of years.

Mrs. B. F. Richards of Butler and grandson, Fred, and son, Edwin, and his wife and daughter attended the funeral of Dr. Miller Saturday and paid her daughter and family, Mrs. Tan White, a short visit.

Quite a number from Butler, Appleton City, Montrose, Urieh, Adrian and Creighton attended the funeral of Dr. Miller Saturday.

Miss Elsie Gilbert went to Butler Saturday night with Mr. Arthur Chambers and family.

Mr. Bob Hilt and wife stayed at Mr. Godwin's Saturday night.

Tan White butchered a hog Monday.

One of Mrs. Sim's cousins is visiting her at present.

Mrs. Maggie Jacobs was quite sick Saturday night. They called Dr. Smith of Urieh. She was unconscious several hours but is better at this writing.

Mr. Montie Simpson is on the complaining list.

Mrs. Focht spent the day Wednesday with Mrs. White.

Mr. Shelton and family and Mr. Sam Farmer and family spent the day Sunday at Mr. R. K. Godwin's.

Mr. Bub Long and family visited at Sterling Harness' Sunday.

Mr. Harne Harness also took dinner with them.

A NEIGHBOR.

Orchard Grove.

Everyone is shucking corn now in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley May and grandchildren of Drexel, Mo., visited Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Isley last week.

Mr. Henry and Miss Pearl Tharp have returned from a visit in Henry county.

The tenent house belonging to Mr. Cannon burned to the ground Saturday evening. Mr. Charlie Edwards and family were living in it, but were not at home when it burned. Nearly all of the household goods were saved.

Miss Frona Hood and Miss Cora Allen of Adrian, who have been visiting Mrs. Walter Cassity, returned to their home Friday noon.

Mrs. I. F. Ellington spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Lafa Cassity.

Mr. Ben and Lee Kisner have purchased a handsome new Buick car.

Mr. Everett Morilla and family took dinner at the home of Mr. F. J. Peters Sunday.

Master Donald Kisner, who cut his foot on a piece of glass some time ago, is improving steadily.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Kolosiek and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Beach and daughter, Stella, drove over from Appleton City Sunday in Mr. Kolosiek's car.

Mr. Ben Wix is teaching the Pleasant Ridge school.

Sunday school, 10 a. m., Christian Endeavor, 7:30 p. m. Subject, "Thankfulness." Leader, Mr. Culver. Everyone invited.

Miss Nova Kelly dismissed school Friday owing to a bad cold.

APPLE BLOSSOM.

A Message Every Woman Should Read

Here it is November and many women have yet to buy their new Fall Suits—what's to be gained by delaying your purchase? The time to wear new Fall Suits and to buy them is now. Our stock is at its height of completeness this very moment. Great numbers of new Coats and Suits have just arrived. We are offering values that will be impossible to equal elsewhere or later in the season.

Suits in Poplins, Serges, Gabardines, Etc.
in Navy, Black, Brown and Green. Garments that sell elsewhere $20.00 to $30.00
PRICED AT $15.00, $18.00, $20.00

New Shipment of Coats
in Mixtures, Gabardines, Broadcloth, Velvets, Velours, Etc.
PRICED AT $7.50, $10.00, $12.50, $15.00

All linen Table Damask
THANKSGIVING SPECIAL
50c to $1.00 yard

Athena Underwear
For Women

Union suits at.....$1.00
Separate Suits at50c

Comforts, Blankets, Feather Pillows at low prices

Sam'l Levy Mercantile Company

The store at which it will pay you to trade