Summit Happenings

Mrs. Jim Garrett had a runaway that caused her much fright Monday. Her horse became unmanageable from some unknown reason in front of the Robt. Sturgeon home. Her cries for help were responded to as quick as possible. She managed to get out but it seemed she was going to let the horse get away before she could get the little girl out. It was plunging back and doing other ugly stunts but the child was carried out of danger and Mrs. Garrett got away in time not to be dragged or injured in any way. The horse and buggy went on down the road landing in the ditch unhurt save a few scratches.
