NUMBER 39

Summit Happenings

Mrs. Jessie Wirt and children returned Wednesday to their home near Loas Tree after some two weeks visit with friends and parents.

A motor truck belonging to a grocery firm of Waldo, 75th and Broadway, and driven by an employe, Mr. Al Haas, and accompanied by his wife, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Gardner and son, Arthur, all friends of Ray Sturgeon and wife took dinner at the Robt. Sturgeon home the 4th. They thought it was a long way to Butler.

The Summit people sympathize with the Charters relatives in their sad misfortune.

Mr. Fisher Lacy returned from Adrian Thursday where he had been harvesting his oats. His sister stayed with Mrs. Lacy in his absence.

Mrs. Golliday had several friends to drop in on the afternoon and evening of the 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass and daughters were Sunday visitors at Lewis Culbertson's.

Lewis Culbertson is about the busiest man you can think of. He has a sick wife to care for, Father Radford to look after and is trying to help the neighbors out in the hay fields.

Ray Sturgeon and wife returned to Kansas City Thursday after most three weeks visit with home folks. Ray has been employed in the Waldo green house for over two years. After this he will run it, having leased the buildings which he will proceed to fill at once with carnations, mums and potted plants.

Mrs. Clarence Bolin and Ada Mae Thomas returned Wednesday from a three weeks stay with their mother at Eureka Springs. They think she is improving.

The farmers are still very busy finishing their corn plowing and some are cutting oats, but are almost through. Some have begun on the hay crop. The weather is ideal for the harvest but a good shower would be acceptable.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Welton and little Helen Elizabeth are spending their vacation with Mrs. Newlon.

Virginia-Grand View Pickups

We have been having very warm weather the past week and the crops are badly in need of rain.
