HON. JAS. N. SHARP

Hon. James N. Sharp of Mound township, who so ably represented his county in the Forty-Eighth General Assembly is again the Democratic nominee for this important place, his excellent legislative record having been laid before the people of the county in detail and vindicated at the August primaries by his constituents. Col. Sharp, who is a native Tennessean, comes of good old Democratic stock and has been a life long Democrat. He has never hesitated to make any needful sacrifice for the good of his party. The Republicans have made a particularly bitter fight on Col. Sharp and in their efforts to defeat him for re-election have not hesitated to grossly misrepresent his attitude on important questions. He is a close student of affairs, has a keen analytical mind and is a debater of considerable prominence. Bates county owes it to herself to return him to the State Legislature as her representative.

JOHN M. REEDER

John M. Reeder of Adrian, is peculiarly fitted both by nature and experience to fill the important office to which the Democrats of the North District have nominated him. A native Bates countian, the greater part of his life has been devoted to farming and stock raising, and through his honesty, his ability and his mature conservative judgment he has made the same success of his own affairs which he will make of the county's. Mr. Reeder has always been a Democrat and an active party worker and although he has never failed in his allegiance, to his party, he has never before been a candidate for public office. As a judge of the county court he will be a safe man in whose hands to intrust the administration of the county's finances. He will carry the full party vote of his district.

JUDGE W. H. LOWDER

In the selection of a nominee for a Judge of the County Court, the Democrats of the South District made no mistake when they renominated Judge W. H. Lowder for this place. There is no more important office within the gift of the people of a county than a county judgeship, and there is no

Nearly a Woman

On the borderland between girlhood and womanhood it is a problem to select apparel of exact suitability. Too young to wear gracefully clothing designed for more fully developed figures and more matured personalities; the Miss has nevertheless a throughgoing scorn of juvenile garb. In our stock will be found innumerable models, painstakingly designed for this girl-woman—cut on grown-up lines but with those faint modifications needed to make the most of Our Heroine's girlish charms.

man in the south district more admirably fitted for this important place than Judge Lowder. A successful farmer and a practical business man whose mature judgment, unquestioned ability and economical, conservative disposition, combine to make him an ideal county judge. In addition to his natural qualifications for county judge, Judge Lowder has the benefit of two years experience in this capacity and during his service on the bench, he with his colleagues, has made a record of efficiency and conservative economy never excelled by any county court in the history of the county. He is a prosperous farmer of New Home township and is well known as a gentleman of honor and ability, and a hard working, consistent life-long Democrat. His record entitles him to re-election.

W. B. DAWSON.

The Democratic party in Bates county in presenting to the voters the name of Watt Dawson as a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney may well do so with pride and with confidence. A man, tried and true, a gentleman of ability, learned in the law and a prosecutor who has neither fear nor favor. As a Democrat his loyalty has been often tried and proven, and never has he failed to place himself in the front ranks of his party and battle tirelessly and courageously for its success. As a lawyer his standing is unquestioned and his reputation as a scholar extends into the higher courts of the land. As a public prosecutor he has behind him an unimpeachable record of utter fearlessness, economy and justice of which the citizens of the county may well be proud. As a man he is well and intimately known throughout the county to possess a strict, unswerving sense of honor, a sympathetic disposition and a moral and physical courage of a high order.

J. W. BAKER.

In J. W. Baker, the Democrats have as a candidate for sheriff on a ticket which is exceptional for its strength and personnel, one of the strongest and best known citizens of the county. A man for whom his party need offer no half hearted apologies and a man who won his place on the ticket through his strength of character and his unquestioned honor, courage and ability. One of the hardest working, most loyal Democrats in southern Bates county, he comes from a big Democratic family, all of whom have consistently fought the party's battles for many years. When in 1912 he was a candidate for sheriff and was defeated by a narrow margin at the primaries by his Democratic opponent, Joe Baker came up smiling, with his coat off for his successful rival and led his party in the support of the ticket. His qualifications for the office of sheriff are unquestioned. His dauntless courage has many times been tested by violators of the law and like his honor, has never flinched and never found wanting. The voters of Bates county cannot afford not to elect J. W. Baker sheriff.

JOHN H. STONE.

John H. Stone, the Democratic nominee for county treasurer comes before the people of the county with a record for business ability and an honorable efficient conduct of a public trust which is in every respect flawless. During his four years administration of the office to which his party has again nominated him he has served his county faithfully, honorably and well. He has made a deep and comprehensive study of the county's finances and there is probably no man in the county who is better posted regarding its financial affairs. His books are models of accuracy, neatness and are comprehensive in detail and he has so systematized his office that not one penny comes into or goes out of the treasury of the county but John Stone can at any and all times give a full, true and complete accounting therefor. His statements are complete and comprehensive in every detail. His books are open at all times to public inspection. Any citizen of the county may at any time learn anything he cares to know regarding the county's finances from Mr. Stone. He is a gentleman in every respect, courteous and accomodating and he has never failed to go to any length to accomodate any one regardless of politics who might have business in his office. He comes of a family staunchly Democratic and has always upheld the traditions of his party.

JOS. A. FLAMMANG.

Joseph A. Flammang, the Democratic nominee for county surveyor is probably one of the best known young men in the county and his efficient, courteous administration of the duties of his office have commanded the respect and regard of all with whom he has come in contact during his incumbency. An engineer of exceptional ability, he has made a deep and comprehensive study of the county's road and bridge problems which has given him an intimate knowledge of the conditions pertaining to his office possessed by no other man in the county. More permanent road and bridge work has been completed during his incumbency than ever before in the history of the county and more economically probably than in any other county in the entire state. He is in every sense a self made man and secured his excellent technical education which so amply qualifies him for his office, solely through his own untiring hard work and perseverance.

W. D. YATES.

Weldon D. Yates, the Democratic nominee for Public Administrator is indeed well qualified for the position for which his party has chosen him. His faithful, efficient administration of that office in the past has amply demonstrated to the people of the county his unquestioned honor and ability to justly and equitably administer the affairs of the estates becoming his duty so to do. He is an expert accountant and has always taken a deep and active interest in public affairs. He has no opposition for this office.

DR. C. J. ALLEN

Dr. C. J. Allen, of Osage township, the Democratic nominee for coroner, has no Republican opposition. Dr. Allen is a native of Bates county having been born and raised in Rich Hill, where after having been graduated from one of the leading medical colleges of the country, he engaged in the practice of his profession. He had several years hospital experience in the Kansas City hospital and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office of coroner. He stands high in his profession being at this time the president of the Bates County Medical Association. Since attaining his majority he has always been active in the support of the principles of the Democratic party.

Republicans are up to their old tricks in this county of pretending to trade votes with Democrats but that brand of political flim-flam is too stale and too flimsy to deceive even the most credulous Democrat. The Democrat who trades his vote with a Republican is not only giving something for nothing, but he is also giving his Republican friend a good opportunity for a hearty laugh at his foolishness.

Every man who voted a Democratic ballot at the primary in August obligated himself by so doing to support the Democratic ticket from top to bottom. It is a matter of honor that every man should support the ticket if he participated in its nomination.

No real Democrat will be easy enough to believe the campaign lies which some Republican politicians are always circulating on some of the Democratic county candidates, in the hope of getting a Republican or two up to the pie counter.

Every man on the Democratic county ticket was put thereon by the vote of the people. Much of the Republican county ticket was hand picked by the Republican party bosses and placed on the ticket through the committee.

There has been ample time during the past several months to prefer charges against any candidate and any story started during the last week in the campaign may safely be regarded as untrue and unworthy of notice.

A vote for Wilson is a vote for peace and prosperity. What a vote for Hughes means no one but Roosevelt knows.

Do you want war? Then vote for Hughes. Roosevelt as Secretary of State will do the rest.
