BUTLER, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1916.

NUMBER 7

Elkhart.

Well, here goes for the tramp of last week. We left West Boone township and pulled out for Cass county, where I landed at the home of L. K. Buhn and wife, where I had a pleasant visit and a good time. I went to the city of Drexel and took in the sights. They have got a lively town there. The farmers of that part have got a fine country up there. It is well improved and they have some very good corn. I then went down to Main City and took in the sights in that part of the county. It is all right down in that part. The people of that part ought to be good for they have got some fine churches in that part. The Sharon church on the county line is fine and the cemetery is kept in the finest shape of any cemetery that I have seen anywhere. The roads in that part are kept in fine shape.

R. L. Scott and family spent last Sunday at the home of G. W. Armentrout.

Gus Bruner and wife are doing fine. They killed a fine big fat hog last Saturday.

Boyd Kershner and mother moved back to Bates county last week. They will live on the Pickett corner.

We haven't heard from the pie supper at Concord but we guess that it was pulled off all right.

A man from Adrian is out in this part with his shredder cleaning up some of the little corn.

Mrs. Pearl Armentrout sent to Kansas City and got a wheel chair. She makes it go some.

Mr. Truman Allen, who has been on the sick list is reported better.

Mr. Cas Gray wants to sell his beds and buy him a lantern and go to plowing.

Mr. Ed Bailey and wife, Mr.

Ralph Scott and wife were visiting at the home of Emmer Crumley and wife Sunday.

Fred Bruner and wife and the writer stayed all night at the home of Tom Bruner Friday night.

Mr. John Halfert and family spent the evening at Tom Bruner's one night last week.

JOHNNY.

In and Around Maysburg.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the Christian church the first Thursday in December. The last meeting was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Greenup. The Union and Aid came in the morning with well filled baskets, arduous Mrs. Greenup a delightful surprise. The report of the Moberly convention was given in a most enjoyable manner. Plans were made for a bazaar to be held at the hall on Friday, December 8. Everybody come. We would be very glad to receive any contribution in any salable form.

Lawrence Lockridge has been visiting his grandmother and aunt the last few days.

League Thanksgiving services were held Sunday evening by Mr. Harry Henderson in a most interesting and pleasing manner. Everyone seemed to enter into the spirit of the services making the meeting particularly enjoyable. The topic next Sunday will be "The Importance of Missions in Childhood." Mr. Virgil Jenkins, leader. Any new members wishing to join will be taken into the League. Everyone is most cordially invited to attend.

The League will give a progressive social Thanksgiving night. The social will begin with a brief program at the church. The members of the Endeavor and League are especially invited. Everyone welcome.

A quiet but very pretty and impressive ceremony was held at the Cottage Hotel, when Miss Abna Sunquist and Mr. Clinton Perry were united in marriage by Reverend Ethelbert Hughes. They were attended by Miss Sunquist, sister of the bride, and Mr. Bailey. Only a few relatives and friends were in attendance. Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

Don't forget the Bazaar Friday, December 8. There will be an oyster supper served with it. Virginia ladies are famous cooks. Come.
