

THE CAPE WEEKLY TRIBUNE AND CAPE COUNTY HERALD

Local and Personal

Attorney Geo. Logan of St. Louis is in the Cape on legal business.

A. Nations and Albert Smith of Gratiot spent Sunday in the Cape.

R. H. Bedford of Oak Ridge spent Sunday in the Cape, a guest at the Terminal.

Mandy Hall of Williamson, Mo., Sunday in the Cape, a guest at the Terminal.

Willard Staelberg of Benton was in the Cape yesterday Sunday, the wife of the Amish.

W. L. Sanderlin of Jackson spent Sunday in the Cape, a guest at the Terminal.

Marion Parker, a widow, spent Saturday in the Cape, en route to Benton for her Sunday.

Ad. M. Paine and M. M. Paine, Strandspurts, were Cape visitors Sunday. They have come to see S. C. Atchley.

Sam Gandy, Major Gandy, and L. J. Gandy, the three sons of Atchley, are in the Cape visiting with friends, preparing to proceed home Monday.

James Karsner, a prominent member of Strandspurts, spent Sunday in the Cape, returning to his home Monday morning. He was a guest at the Terminal.

Lillian Leslie of Marley, was in the Cape Sunday, a guest at the Riverview.

Attorneys W. R. Hall of Keimert, is in the Cape on legal business, a guest at the Riverview.

Candius Weber of Union, Mo., is in the Cape on business. He is stopping at the Riverview.

W. R. Cantrell and wife of Decatur spent Sunday in the Cape.

Clyde Vandervoort of Jackson spent Sunday in the Cape.

Esmer and Herbert Lloyd of Zelma, are in the Cape on business this week.

Clara E. Burger and Coletta Endeler of Kelso were in the Cape on a shopping trip Saturday.

S. M. Cobble of Glen Allen had business in the Cape Saturday, and was a guest at the Prescott.

E. K. Moore of Sikeston has business in the Cape this week. He is staying at the Present.

H. W. Howell and J. J. Dildon of Advance were Cape visitors Sunday guests of the St. Charles.

Logan Wright Hines, of Jackson, was in the city Saturday night on business.

A. Mrs. Eich of Dexter is in the city with a view of opening a new home in the Cape.

H. W. Bangert and Franklin Davis, from Louisville, spent Sunday evening in the Cape. Mr. Bangert is a well known merchant of Louisville.

J. H. McPherson, manager of the Cape City Steam Laundry, has come to Arkansas where he is to be busy until the next spring.

T. W. Gore, the popular engineer of the Shoe Factory, has been sick with grippe, but was able to resume his labors Monday.

The local Trades Council will Tuesday night in regular session, and will take up some new matters important to labor interests here.

Several brick layers recently engaged on the new hospital left Argonne Tuesday evening, giving for their home in St. Louis Saturday. The Tribune's notice and we will The work being almost completed, send just as you.

Chas. B. Miller, a prominent Mrs. L. C. Goodrich, wife of E. E. Nedly's Loring merchant spent a few hours in the Cape Sunday on his way home from Kennett and other points further south.

Mrs. Harry Harrell of Arnold came up to the Cape Saturday for a short visit with her father, Mr. W. H. Taylor, who is quite ill. She will return to her home Monday.

Henry Avery, C. A. Stewart and John Avery of West Frankfort, Ill., and L. R. Maxey and W. R. Freeman of Herrin, Ill., passed through the Cape Monday on their way to Jackson to attend the stock sale.

Silas Lair left Monday for a few days' visit in Scott County.

J. M. Petty of Wapello is in the Cape on business this week. He is a guest at the Riverview.

Mrs. E. Dugins passed through the Cape Tuesday on her way to Jackson.

O. P. Adams of Whitewater has business in the Cape this week. He is stopping at the Riverview.

Charles Barnett and W. C. Brad of Butler Bluff are in the Cape this week on business matters.

Bernard Siemers a prominent farmer from Garden City, was a Cape visitor Monday.

John Behrens and Wm. Weisel, do business men of Jackson, passed through the Cape Friday on their way to St. Louis.

The ladies of the Monday Club are meeting at the Elks Club Monday afternoon.

Charles Grupper and wife of Swinton, Mo., passed through the Cape Sunday on their way home from St. Louis.

Thomas Gibson was up in the Police Court Monday morning on the charge of disturbing the peace of his mother and half brother. He was found guilty and assessed fine and costs amounting to $11.50.

W. W. Taylor, the contractor, has moved from Bloomfield, Miss., to Williams street, somewhere in the city.

C. C. McSpadden of Walnut Ridge, Ark., has business in the Cape this week. He is staying at the St. Charles.

G. R. Turner of Bloomfield and J. D. Stoll of Siloam passed through the Cape Monday on their way to Jackson to attend the stock sale at that place.

Herman Westerich and a Mr. Heiserer from Scott County were in the Cape Monday negotiating the sale of some miles to our local buyer E. A. Miles.

Ben White, a popular switchman, feeling the need of a rest, after long and incessant labors, has applied for and was granted a lay-off for a few days.

The chink holes on Aquanis street below the old Potts mill have been filled with pieces of brick bats which are being covered with shale. This will remove the difficulty heretofore encountered by teamsters and draymen who have found it necessary to haul loads from that locality.

There will be a meeting of the Traders Council Tuesday night, and on Wednesday night there will be a meeting of the Painters Union when an organized by the name of Wood will address the meeting on the advantages of organization.

Miss Eva Fentress who has been teaching school at Conrad, has come to the Cape to enter the Normal school.

Miss Anna Schwab and Mr. Lee Schwab of Goshenville were in the Cape Monday visiting their son, Mrs. Charles Koen.

Albert Landy, manufacturer of the Goodwood Poultre Ass., at Oak Ridge, came up from Butler Bluff Monday night on his return home from a business transact in southern country.

G. T. Lee and the Van Buren boys are going to the Cape next Monday the sons of Mr. Atlanta.

J. M. Eggers and M. C. Thomas, representing the Marquette U. S. Fire Department, are in the Cape looking after business interests. They are members of the Atlanta.

The Tribune has quite a number of parties interested in houses to rent played on the new hospital. These parties are all newcomers.

Several brick layers recently engaged on the new hospital left Argonne Tuesday evening, giving for their home in St. Louis Saturday. The Tribune's notice and we will The work being almost completed, send just as you.

Chas. B. Miller, a prominent Mrs. L. C. Goodrich, wife of E. E. Nedly's Loring merchant spent a few hours in the Cape Sunday on his way home from Kennett and other points further south.

Mrs. Harry Harrell of Arnold came up to the Cape Saturday for a short visit with her father, Mr. W. H. Taylor, who is quite ill. She will return to her home Monday.

Henry Avery, C. A. Stewart and John Avery of West Frankfort, Ill., and L. R. Maxey and W. R. Freeman of Herrin, Ill., passed through the Cape Monday on their way to Jackson to attend the stock sale.

Something startling is promised for the Council meeting Monday night.

Maude Boxy and Myrtle Davis of Elsinore, were Cape visitors Monday.

John E. Gayle of Malden had business in the Cape Monday.

Charles Harrison of this city was in the Athelteer Club building destroyed by fire in St. Louis, but escaped without injury.

Harry Crimes, charged with being drunk, was liberated that he might go to work.

Government Agent J. H. Simpson arrived in the Cape from the South at 9 o'clock Monday morning.

J. V. Cooper of Butler Bluff, passed through the Cape on his way to St. Louis Sunday night.

The ladies of the Monday Club are meeting at the Elks Club Monday afternoon.

Charles Grupper and wife of Swinton, Mo., passed through the Cape Sunday on their way home from St. Louis.

Thomas Gibson was up in the Police Court Monday morning on the charge of disturbing the peace of his mother and half brother. He was found guilty and assessed fine and costs amounting to $11.50.

George Siemers who is employed as a twister in the Roth tobacco Works, has been compelled to lay off on account of sickness in the stemming department.

Sheriff Wm. Summers returned Saturday afternoon from Jonesboro, Ark., having in custody A. D. Highsmith, charged with forging a check on the McMurray Construction Co. The prisoner waived a preliminary hearing and was taken to the jail at Jackson to await his trial.

D. M. Ervin of Jackson, had business in the Cape Tuesday. He was a guest of the Terminal.

Mart Strand of Commerce was a Cape visitor Tuesday. He was a guest at the Riverview.

S. E. Conway a broom salesman of Mt. Vernon, Ind., is in the Cape this week trying to interest the local merchants in his wares. He is a guest at the Prescott.

Steamer Enterprise passed down Tuesday evening at about 7 o'clock. The Rees Lee did not leave St. Louis Monday as originally intended.

W. K. Skiff, a traveling salesman from Memphis is in the Cape on a business trip. He is stopping at the Riverview.

Alfred Bloomfield and E. W. Goodrich of New Madrid, are in the Cape this week on business. They are guests at the Terminal.

Barney Wagner, the mule buyer of Oran, passed through the Cape Wednesday on his way to Jackson where he will attend the stock sale.

Jesse Green, a well known business man of Puxico, spent Tuesday in the Cape looking after business affairs. He stopped at the Terminal.

Fred Suhre and T. B. Crites of Daisy are back in the Cape to resume work as jurymen during the session of the Common Pleas Court.

There was a meeting of the Blue Lodge, A. F. & A. M., Tuesday night at the Masonic Hall, at which Groves Obermiller and A. B. Sinks were initiated.

C. A. Davis, the job printing expert in the employ of the Tribune is laid up with an attack of mumps, and Joe Biltrey is filling the vacancy made by Mr. Davis' illness.

A. E. Sheppard of Jackson, deputy sheriff, is spending the week in the Cape on account of Common Pleas Court being in session. He is a guest at the Terminal.

P. J. Posey of Noxall, Mo., is in the Cape this week, having shipped a big consignment of several carloads of logs to the veneering plant at this place. He is staying at the Prescott.

The Steamer Cape Girardeau, will reach the Cape Saturday afternoon on her way North from Paducah, Mo. She will leave St. Louis Monday on her return trip.

The steamer Rees Lee passed through the Cape Sunday night on her way North from Memphis. She landed with the Darnell's over the unloaded a small consignment of phone freight at the Cape and took on a small shipment. She carried but one passenger, Detective Klineck of Memphis, who caused the search light to be played alternately from one side of the river to the other in his lookout for the St. Louis Auto bandits whom he suspected of making their way southward.

The steamer Rees Lee will leave St. Louis on her return trip on Tuesday at noon.

River falling. Gauge reads 14.

Theo. Kasten, of Pocahontas has business in the Cape this week.

M. V. Shaw of Puxico, had business in the Cape Wednesday.

Wm. Menness of Illinois, was in the Cape on business, a guest of Scott's.

Fred Douglas, of Delta, Ill., is in the Cape on business this week. He is staying at the Riverview.

J. W. Allen and wife of Formelt were in the Cape shopping Tuesday. They stopped at Scott's.

B. W. Williams of Advance came to the Cape Wednesday on a business trip. He stopped at the Terminal.

James A. Finch of Formelt had business in the Cape Tuesday. He was a guest at the St. Charles.

G. R. Fluegerty of Chaffee paid the Cape a business trip Tuesday. He was a guest at the St. Charles.

H. H. Fuller of Eureka Springs is in the Cape on business, a guest of the St. Charles.

C. L. French of Norwalk, Ohio, is in the Cape looking after business matters.

C. C. Shunkard of Marble Hill paid the Cape a business visit Tuesday. He was a guest of the St. Charles.

Mrs. Stella Lucas and daughter of Chaffee are visiting in the Cape, guests of the St. Charles.

V. B. Darnell came to the Cape Tuesday night from Zeta where he has big sawmill interests.

D. M. Ervin of Jackson, had business in the Cape Tuesday. He was a guest of the Terminal.

Mart Strand of Commerce was a Cape visitor Tuesday. He was a guest at the Riverview.

The Current History Club will meet tonight at the Normal in Prof. Moore's room. This will be the best program that the club have had for some time and it would instruct you a great deal if you would come. You are very cordially invited; 7:30 o'clock.

The Normal band and orchestra will practice Wednesday afternoon.

The Sorosis Girl's society had a business meeting Wednesday afternoon at 3:25.

The new term has started fine. Everybody started to work with a will Wednesday morning.

The Benton literary program was postponed from last Saturday afternoon until the coming Saturday.

The Mission Study Class will be continued all through this term every Friday evening in Webster hall, the time is from 6:30 to 7:30. Everybody who wishes to come in cordially are invited.

The tryouts of the inter-school debates will be held Monday of next week at two o'clock in Webster hall, at the Normal. Each candidate will be asked to speak for not more than ten minutes on the side of the question he has chosen. The question is Resolved, that Candidates for the Presidency should be selected by the Direct Primaries provided by National Legislation.

Well the good old Spring time will soon be here again.

Some few farmers are plowing corn ground already.

Linus Poinsett is quite ill with appendicitis.

Mrs. Lizzie Snider is having her barn repaired.

W. T. Gloth put a telephone on Hilltop line last week.

Rev. J. L. Gray filled his regular appointment at Passover Sunday morning.

Mr. Edward Lenzy and wife visited Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stevens a few weeks ago.

Casper Shafer moved on the Cargle place last week, and Mr. Cargle moved to the George Washburn place.

Conder Welker, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is reported to be getting along nicely.

Curtis Summers, the rural mail carrier on route No. 2, has been indisposed for some time. But is able to take up his work again.

Normal Notes

Junkie Bowman, of Jackson, Mo., a former Normal student is visiting town today.

Classes will start for the new term Wednesday. Everybody is enrolling today. Quite a bunch of new students.

Miss Mable Flint requests all that are taking part in the "Messiah," to be present at the rehearsal tonight at the Normal at 7:30 o'clock sharp.

Lawrence Morton returned Monday from Leavenworth, where he has been visiting home folks for the last few days.

R. L. Howard returned from Millerville, Mo., Monday. He spent the week end in Indianapolis visiting home folks and friends.

Miss Moore of Festus, Mo., will enter the Normal Tuesday for the Spring term. She was in school the Fall term but was out the Winter term.

The Normal Band will practice Wednesday, there are several new members expected to join the band at this practice.

Everybody is busy this morning enrolling for the new term. All