

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

River falling. Gauge reads 14.6.

H. F. Galeener of Delta Mo., was a Cape visitor Sunday.

W. A. Hamil of Pocohontas, Ark., was a Cape visitor Sunday.

E. H. Williamson of Puxico Mo., was at the Cape Sunday.

Lafayette Caruthers returned from his farm Monday.

E. T. Arsthorp and wife of Cairo, autotomobiled over to the Cape Sunday.

N. Anderson of Commerce was at the Cape Sunday.

J. R. Loomis and wife of Charleston were Cape visitors Sunday.

W. W. Norman, of Hunterville, Mo., is in the city on business.

J. E. Godwin of Jackson was a Cape visitor Sunday.

It pays to put your Want Ad in the Tribune.

O. B. Hastings of Cairo was in the city Sunday on an auto trip.

The Jim Wood, towboat, passed down the river Monday morning.

U. S. Marshall E. T. Regenhardt is in the city looking over his building interests.

A. P. Stewart, attorney for the Frisco, and R. B. Oliver, Jr., are attending court at New Madrid.

W. J. Miesenhauer of Allenville, was a Cape visitor Monday and Tuesday.

Martin Fischer of Altenburg, Mo., passed through the Cape Sunday to attend college.

Chas. Wilson, brother of the late R. L. Wilson returned to his home in Kentucky, Monday.

L. E. Kelch of Irondale, Mo., was a Cape visitor Sunday. Mr. Kelch is interested in the timber business.

Chas. B. Miller and D. M. Simmings of Advance were Cape visitors yesterday.

The Rees Lee came up the river at 6 o'clock Monday morning with a good load of freight aboard.

Geo. H. Meyer bought the property belonging to Mrs. A. F. Frederick on North Fountain street, for a consideration of $1450.

M. E. Lesem left on a business trip through the Southern counties and will return latter part of the week.

Mrs. Ada Belle Ruane of St. Louis is visiting her brother, T. E. Barber and her mother Mrs. R. W. Barber of this city for a few days.

The "Wonderland," the beautiful floating theater, played to a crowded house Monday. This was the first appearance of the floating theaters of the season, and received a splendid welcome.

C. D. Bedwell and brother of Oak Ridge who are stockmen, were at the Cape on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Ida Malone, daughter of I. D. Ramsey who is at St. Mary's Hospital, Cairo, undergoing an operation is reported doing nicely.

J. W. Ellis of St. Genevieve, road master for the Frisco was a Cape visitor Tuesday.

W. Gregory of Chaffee, a conductor on the Frisco was in town Tuesday on business.

L. Pate of Nettleton, Ark., arrived Monday at the Cape with a carload of bananas which he places on sale here.

Albert Ramsey of Decatur, Ill., arrived Tuesday at the Cape to visit his father and brother.

L. C. Roberts of Mingo, Mo., was at the Cape on business Tuesday.

Alfred Bloomfield of New Madrid was at the Cape Tuesday to join his wife who came here accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Howard earlier in the week to consult an optician.

The new Froeze Threshing Machine Company, formerly of Advance, is moving the machinery to their new plant in the Robinson-Gale Addition. This new industry means progress, and will also be the means of bringing more people to our city. This company turns out one machine a week.

Chas. Benefield, of Gale, Mo., was a Cape visitor Tuesday.

W. C. Wilson of Canalou, Mo., was a Cape visitor Monday.

H. G. Kiesler of Perryville an insurance adjuster was at the Cape on business Tuesday.

D. C. Bailey of Marble Hill was here on business Tuesday.

J. W. Fristo of St. Louis, receiver for the C. G. & N. Railroad was at the Cape on business Tuesday.

T. J. Frazier of Chaffee was in the Cape on business Tuesday.

The Wonderland Show Boat left for up river at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Capt. J. G. Hauser of this city left Tuesday morning for Marianna, Ark., to take charge of a dredge boat and men in the employ of Otto Koehntzky a contractor on the Little River Drainage work.

E. A. Howell of Advance who is the advance agent for the Golden Rod Show Boat which is billed to arrive Wednesday June 3rd was at the Cape Tuesday on business.

State Republican convention will be held in St. Louis on May 27th. Many from the county seat and surrounding towns are passing through the Cape to be present on that occasion and also to view the Pageant.

J. H. Wilson of Illmo special agent of the Cotton Belt who made the sensational arrest of the colored man in which the latter was killed told in the Tribune yesterday, was a Cape visitor Tuesday.

The Retail Merchants Association held their regular meeting Thursday evening. It is hoped it will be well attended, as matters of importance will be discussed.

J. H. Jenkins of Advance was at the Cape one business yesterday.

A. D. Boller of Black Rock, Ark., a large dealer in real estate was in the city on business Friday.

J. Morse of St. Louis arrived in the city Thursday, having been called on account of the illness of Judge Wilson.

The Ladies Aid of the German M. E. Church will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the residence of Mrs. Louis Ische, Sr.

Mayor R. K. Wilson of Jackson was at the Cape on business Wednesday.

Charles Harrison returned Wednesday from Memphis where he attended the Lumberman's convention held in that city during the first of this week.

Another manufacturing concern that is showing great results in its monthly output, is the Missouri Mattress Manufacturing Company. This company supplies many points throughout Southeast Missouri and Wednesday shipped a carload of mattresses to its southern territory.

A. H. Hinchey secretary of the Commercial Club returned from St. Louis where he spent Wednesday meeting with the executive committee of the "Missouri Federation for Better Roads," where matters of detail were considered for the advancement of the Federation.

A meeting of the Commercial Club will be held Friday night and a good attendance is hoped for as matters of importance will be discussed. There will also be two representatives present from the Southeast Missouri Drummers Association to take up matters incident to the associations convention to be held here in the near future.

G. B. Greer a prominent farmer living at Sikeston received 20 head of registered Polled Angus Cattle a few days ago, bringing his herd now up to 39 head, and making it the largest herd of Registered Cattle in Southeast Missouri.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bauer who has been very ill for the past week, is reported to be getting along very nicely at the present. She remained awake for some time this morning and appears to be gaining in strength, being able to take nourishment now.

Matters concerning the Commercial Club at present are quiet outwardly, although it is intimated that many things are being worked out one of which if developed as contemplated is expected to create a population at the Cape of 2500 people within the next 24 months. All these matters require additional time before publicity can be given.

Herman Boek and Joe Shepherd, motored to Jackson Wednesday.

G. E. Kinder of Illmo was a business visitor in the Cape Wednesday.

The young society folks of Jackson gave a large dance Wednesday evening at Armory Hall.

Vest Walker of Oak Ridge, was in town yesterday on business.

W. H. Evans of De Soto was at the Cape on business Wednesday.

Chas. Lang of Herrin, Ill., was at the Cape on business yesterday.

C. H. Andrews of Poplar Bluff, was in town on business Wednesday.

A. K. Wakeland of Cairo, Ill., was in town on business yesterday.

Joe Snider of Delta was in town on business Wednesday.

J. W. Smallwood of Warsaw, Mo., was in the Cape on business Wednesday.

Henry Rozier of St. Genevieve, and Ed. Rozier of Farmington are in the city on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O'Brien returned this afternoon from Sikeston.

Blucker Spurling of Jackson, was at the Cape Thursday.

J. D. Thompson of Puxico passed through the Cape Thursday.

G. A. Dye of Browning, Ill., was at the Cape on business yesterday.

Wm. Ellis of Benton was at the Cape Thursday.

W. W. Davis of Chourice, Mo., was at the Cape on Thursday.

Hon. W. C. Morrow an attorney at West Plains, Mo., was at the Cape Friday on business.

L. G. Robman of Fordland was at the Cape transacting business Friday.

Theo. Roosevelt declared when he arrived from South America, that he would not be a candidate for Governor of New York.

W. J. Worsley and wife of Commerce were visitors at the Cape Thursday.

The colored schools will have their closing exercises Friday night in the Opera House.

B. L. Modisett of St. Genevieve was at the Cape Thursday transacting business.

C. H. Andrews now of Poplar Bluff, but a former resident of the Cape was here on business Thursday.

Hon. Jas. A. Finch of Formelt who is an attorney of that place was at the Cape on business Thursday.

Mrs. J. L. Cook and son Edward of Advance passed through the Cape Thursday on their way to St. Louis.

J. H. Goodwin of Doniphan was in the Cape on business Thursday and left early this morning for Jackson.

J. K. Russell of Longtown, Mo., was in the Cape on business Wednesday.

Frederick Sternberg an old Civil War Veteran, living about 5 miles west of Jackson went to Hot Springs Thursday. Mr. Sternberg is afflicted with dropsy.

The citizens of Frona, Perry county, Mo., have subscribed $10,000 for a bank at that place. The german farmers in that vicinity have saved their money making the existence of numerous banks possible.

Miss Sattie F. Bosley, deputy of the Women's Circle of the Woodmen of the World, is in the city calling on the members, and those wishing to join the lodge, and will be back again June 5th, when the new candidates will be initiated.

The case of C. W. Whitaker vs. J. F. Faeth and E. A. Johnston was brought up in Judge Miller's Court this morning. Whitaker claims the defendant owes him a certain sum for the feeding of some stock. The case was still at trial at the time of going to press.

A. P. Burford of Paris, Mo., is in the Cape on business Saturday.

Mr. Burford is a resident of Monroe county which by the way is the banner democratic county of the State. This county at the last election polled 5300 votes of which 4300 were democratic. The Republicans their many times do not name a ticket

E. B. Jenkins of Advance was at the Cape on business Wednesday.

R. B. Oliver went to St. Louis Thursday on a business trip.

R. B. Oliver, Jr., is in Poplar Bluff on business.

Judge H. W. Alexander went to Jackson Friday on legal matters.

Sikeston is to have a local option election, June 9.

M. G. Temple and Orren Wilson went to Illmo today on business.

C. H. Norvell of McClure, Ill., was in the city on business Friday.

J. H. Wiens of Oran was at the Cape on business Friday.

Roy Bratton of Oran was at the Cape on business Friday.

Lawrence Hunt of Farmington was in town on business Friday.

T. Ben Turnbaugh of Caruthersville was in town on business Friday.

E. H. Danks of Crystal City was in the Cape on business Friday.

W. E. Hamil of Pocohontas, Mo., was at the Cape Thursday on business.

J. N. Carroll of Pocohontas, Mo., was in the city on business Thursday.

I. B. Bishop of St. Louis was in the Cape on business Saturday.

Chas. Spaulding of Commerce who is a stock buyer was at the Cape transacting business.

C. D. Bedwell of Oak Ridge who is interested in a Sand Pile near Gray's Point was in the Cape Friday.

Miss Cora Matthews of Sikeston is in the city visiting Miss Maude Harris at the Terminal hotel.

H. W. Beers of Dutchtown was at the Cape on business Friday.

Chas. Gray of Gray's Point had business in the Cape Saturday.

The Steamer Stacker Lee passed down the river at 8 o'clock Saturday morning with a good cargo including 3000 sacks of corn for Cairo.

Henry Bear of Perryville who is largely interested in real estate, was at the Cape on business Friday.

W. H. Birdman of Chaffee, Mo., was at the Cape Friday with his wife, who is undergoing an operation at St. Francis' Hospital.

J. W. Coats and family left Saturday morning for Illmo. Mr. Coats is connected with the Frisco.

Jno. Owen of Greenbrier, Mo., was at the Cape Friday on business.

Geo. B. Cox of Dexter was a Cape visitor Thursday.

The Floating Show Boat Band gave a fine concert on Main street this morning.

Hugo Lang left for St. Louis Sunday morning and returned Monday morning. What's the idea Hugo?

Common Pleas Court met this morning with Judge Ranney on the bench.

Miss Myrtle McLain of St. Louis is visiting her brother Marion McLain an employee of the Street Car Company.

A. M. Tinsley returned Monday from St. Louis. Mr. Tinsley was a member of the Missouri Public Utilities party, making the trip to Keokuk Dam.

Miss Lena Harenberg of Jackson, is building a fine new residence on Painter ave, which will be for rent as soon as completed. This property is very convenient to the Normal school.

The farmers on the Jackson road are greatly benefited by the large new truck owned by Al Seabaugh, who will haul freight to both the Cape and Jackson. See Seabaugh.

The new Eagle Packet Boat, "Peoria" passed up the river Friday, she has not as yet received her machinery and was being towed by the Tow boat Oscar Barrett and is expected to reach St. Louis Sunday. The new machinery will be installed there. The steamer is expected to be ready for business in about a month.

The Peoria was built at Paducah where she left Thursday. It is intended by the company to place her to run from to St. Louis to Peoria in place of the Bald Eagle.

JACKSON NEWS

Declarations for county officers have been filed with the county clerk as follows:

J. H. Dorris and J. By Caruthers, Prosecuting attorney.

G. Jacob Keller, for County Judge.

Fred Goyert, for County clerk.

The following declarations have been filed for offices in Cape Township:

F. A. Kage and W. H. Miller for Justice of the Peace; F. W. Overholte, Constable.

The last day in which candidates may file under the law is June the fifth, next.

Mrs. Ben Sundermann left for the Cape Tuesday morning to join her husband.

The Mary and Martha Class of the Evangelical church will meet Tuesday afternoon with Miss Hilda Philips in the country.

Miss Lula Helmkamp left for St. Louis Tuesday afternoon on her vacation. She will visit relatives and friends and will be gone for some time.

Quite a number of Jackson people will leave for St. Louis Tuesday afternoon to attend the Pageant. The ones in the crowd are Francis Milde, Grace McClain, Ella Browning, Bessie Samuel, Mrs. Herman Mueller, and daughter Julia and Mrs. Frank Caldwell and son Clarence.

Richard Behrens came over from the Cape Monday evening to attend the graduating exercises.

Gerley Smith who has been working for the Frisco at Illmo came home today and is out on his fathers farm.

Mrs. Elizabeth Johnston and children of Pennsylvania are the guests of Sam and Clyde Vandivoort.

The Freshman Class left early this morning on a hay frame for Burfordville where they will have an all day picnic.

The graduating exercises of the high school took place at the Gem Monday evening, May 25th at 8 o'clock. The stage was beautifully decorated in pink and cream. There were three girls and four boys in the graduating class. They are as follows: Grace Vinyard, Mabel Riel, Edna Langenhennig and Ora Switzer, Sherman Cracraft, Edward Wilson and Frederick Williams. The class was addressed by A. M. Spradling, James Goodwin won the scholarship medal. Music was rendered by the orchestra.

On Monday afternoon Miss Mabe Henderson entertained with a miscellaneous shower in honor of the bride-to-be Miss Fay Kurrey. The Henderson home was beautifully decorated with roses and violets and the dining room was a picture of loveliness. The bride-to-be was presented with a silver wish bone after which a delicious luncheon was served.

Miss Mary Laclair of the Cape is visiting Mrs. Agnes McWilliams for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Poe and Miss Will Hobbs went to West Frankfort, Ill., this week to visit Cleveland Poe and wife.

Miss Mary Bernice Williams is home from Sullivan, and St. Louis.

We understand that there will be no Home Coming Reunion in Jackson this year.

Miss Linda Wagoner is visiting in the Cape this week.

Miss Genevieve Hesse of St. Louis is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. W. Kuellner.

Mrs. J. H. Davis left for St. Louis this week to visit friends for a few days and will go from there to her home at Hentsville, Ala.

Albert Ford has sold his house in West Jackson to Emanuel Hartle.

The Presbyterian Ladies will meet to quilt at Mrs. Daniel Kline's Thursday afternoon.

The Baptist parsonage will be completed and ready for occupancy by the first of June.

Mrs. Nick Nickles and Miss Binnie Shollhammer of St. Louis are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gockel and other relatives.

The Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors left early Thursday morning on hay wagons for an outing at Burfordville. They were chaperoned by their teachers and the grammar graduates went to Lemon in automobiles where they will enjoy the many good things to eat prepared by the girls.

Mrs. Anna Biggs of the Cape is visiting relatives and friends.

The Cemetery Association will meet with Mrs. Wm. P. Schaefer Saturday afternoon.

The fifth grade of the Public school will have an all day picnic at Burfordville Saturday in care of their teacher, Miss Jessie Harris.

Miss Helen Williams who has been teaching in the High School at Sullivan, Mo., will be home Saturday, her school closed this week. She has been re-elected to the same position for the following winter.

Rudolph C. Reisenbichler of Pocohontas, Mo., and Lena Danz of Shawneetown will be married at New Wells this coming Sunday by Rev. Winkler. They will live on the old Putz farm Southeast of Pocohontas.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Peneel will leave Saturday for Morley, Mo., to attend the wedding of Mrs. Peneel's brother, Ray G. Miller of Millerville to Miss Grace Lucky of Morley, which will take place Sunday evening at the bride's home.

There were almost 30 little boys and girls gathered at the home of Mrs. Wm. B. Schaefer Thursday evening, and from there they went to the home of Misses Mildred and Magdalene Knox where they spent a pleasant evening in games and music after which dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Ella Francis Jenkins entertained quite a number of her girl friends at her home Thursday eve which were very delightful. Those present were: Alma Hiers, Helena Kies, Irene Kersney, Irene Huffmeister, Ruth McAtce, Mary Litzenfelner and Louise Catherine Schaefer.

On Thursday afternoon the ladies of the Presbyterian Church entertained at the home of Mrs. Kent Wilson with a miscellaneous shower in honor of the bride-to-be, Miss Fay Kurrey, who in June will become the bride of Mr. Max Prill. The guests spent the afternoon most enjoyably and the hostess was the recipient of many beautiful gifts that will be useful in the new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Sikeston are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. Hartle.

Mrs. Maude Phillips of Bloomfield and Mrs. Elizabeth Davis of the Cape are the guests of Mrs. Blucher Spurling.

The pupils of the Freshmen class will go to Burfordville Tuesday where they will have a most delightful picnic party. They will leave town at an early hour.

Mrs. Nan Greer of the Cape spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. D. C. Halderman.

Miss Lucille Shepard one of Jackson's high school teachers left Sunday morning for her home in Benton.

Mrs. Albert Beattie and son, Leroy went to the Cape Sunday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Messemer for a few days.

Mrs. Mary Weise of Whitewater is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Auburg of this city.

Warren Green has commenced to excavate for the new house which he will erect on the Green Ferry Road.

The eighth grade graduates this year are Mary Browning, Alma Gockel, Marie Krump, Mary Firstone, Bessie Howard, Flora Taylor, Maude Knox, Lulu Morton, Julia Miller, Ruth Robertson, Grace Van Auburg John Burford, Edw. Brase, Clara Caldwell, Jacob Frederick, Dallas Hays, John Von Priest, Garnet Hines, Albert Henschelber, Leo Morris Huffmeister, Paul Kinder, Edw. Kies, Eugene McNeely, Hope Morton, Earl McAtce, Clarence Ritter, Hilda Ritter, and Mary Larimore. The graduating exercises are to be held at the Auditorium of the High School at 8 p. m. Friday. C. C. Oliver will deliver the graduating address.

Gordonville Woman Dies of Apoplexy.

Friends and neighbors were greatly shocked Wednesday morning to hear of the sudden death by apoplexy of Mrs. Phillip Sebastian, residing near Gordonville. The evening before Mrs. Sebastian had been working in her garden at about six o'clock she called to her son and said she did not feel well. The boy called his father and they took her into the house, and then summoned Dr. Schoen of Gordonville, but all efforts expended in her behalf were of no avail, she died before midnight. Mrs. Sebastian was 66 years of age. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at the Zion Lutheran church below Gordonville at 2 o'clock.